SHIP IS LATE, MRS. SNOWDEN'S LECTURE SUNDAY CANCELLED

Montlaurier Will Not Arrive at Sand Point Till Monday Night.

HAS 305 PASSENGERS

Prominent English Woman Must Rearrange Plans on Reaching Here.

Word was received at C. P. R. headquarters today that the Canadian Pacific steamship Montlaurier will not arrive in port before Monday at midnight. She is en route here from Liverpool and Glasgow and was expected to arrive on Sunday night or early Monday morning. The steamer was late leaving Glasgow and was since reported to have encountered heavy weather. She is bringing 305 passengers of which number 73 cabin and 116 third class embarked at Liverpool, and 28 cabin and 90 third class at Glasgow. The steamer also has 1,249 tons of general cargo, of which 115 tons are for local merchants. She also has a large consignment of mail consisting of 86 bags of letters and 66 packages for this city; 1,580 bags and 1,149 pieces for Canada in general; 38 bags for the far east and five bags for the Fiji Islands.

Lecture is Off. Because of the late arrival of the Montlaurier the address by Mrs. Philip Snowden in the Imperial Theatre, arranged for Sunday evening, has of course been cancelled. It was thought also that her visit to Fredericton also could not materialize. She also was to speak in Halifax. Her itinerary will no doubt be re-adjusted on arrival.

RUDOLPH VALENTINO and NITA NALDI MONDAY

Imperial Theatre Presents The Second of The Latin Star's Superfeatures:

"A Sainted Devil"

A FIERY TALE OF A SPANISH-AMERICAN YOUTH whose bride is stolen from him on his wedding night. His vain search for her, his embittered turning against the injustice of life and becoming a bandit, seeking vengeance for his wrongs, makes a tense, exciting drama full of hot-blooded action and suspense. Valentino's role is that of a handsome young planter who becomes the terror of the neighborhood and seeks vengeance against everyone whom he suspects. The conditions under which he finally finds his bride bring us up to an event probably more sensational than anything he has done before.
