Huston, owners of the New York American Baseball Club, to pay $25,000 for the services of "Duffy" Lewis, manager of the Salt Lake team of the Pacific Coast League, until June 1, was received and declined by T. #### Baker to Play.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 21.—John Franklin Baker, erstwhile "home run king," who joined the ranks of the benefactors by marrying Miss Elizabeth Mitchell of this city, vigorously denied the reports that he was through with baseball. "The report that I have quit baseball is all bosh," said Baker. "I signed a one-year contract last year with a reserve clause and it is probable that I shall return."

John G. Mitchell, father of Mrs. Baker said he did not believe his daughter had any objection to Frank's playing baseball, and added that he believed Baker would return to the Yankees in the spring.

SKATING.

Montreal Skaters.

While Russell Wheeler and Joe Vossberg were competing in the Canadian outdoor skating championships at St. John, other skaters of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association competed for club honors at the Westmount rink last night. There were six events decided and each attracted an unusually large entry. The competition in the senior events, with the exception of the 220 yards race, was keenly contested. This is accounted for by the renewed interest in speed skating at the winged wheel rink and the better class of juniors. Honors were well divided, while good time was made in each event.

HERMIT, FOUND DEAD IN RAGS, HAD $1,000

Hicksville, L. I., Jan. 11.—A thousand dollars in silver and moldering notes was found here when the dilapidated two-room house, occupied for fifty years by Thomas Baldwin, a hermit, 94 years old, was torn down. The money had been secreted in the walls, in corners, and in the cellar under pots and pans.

Baldwin was found dead in bed Saturday by a neighbor, Martin Blyman, who went to the house with food for the recluse. Coroner Charles H. Stoll found that death was caused by pneumonia, from which the old man had been suffering for a week. The dead hermit lay dressed in rags, although twenty-five good suits were hanging in his room.

The demolition of Baldwin's house began Saturday afternoon on the orders of Coroner Stoll. The house was in a dump of woods southeast of the town, and it was feared that vagrants sleeping there might start a fire. Most of the money was found today, wrapped in bits of newspapers. It has been rumored that the old man had buried gold in his cellar, but no trace of it has been found. Some of the money found in the cellar was so badly moldy that it had disintegrated. The remnants were gathered up and taken to a bank from which they will be sent to Washington for redemption.

Half a century ago Baldwin inherited the house and thirteen acres from an uncle. He cultivated only enough ground to supply him with vegetables throughout the summer and potatoes for winter. Little is known of his life before he came here but it is supposed that he was engaged in shipbuilding. He seldom spoke to his neighbors and never confided in any one. It is said he was rational up to within a short time of his death. One of his peculiarities was an aversion to going into the town. He is said to have had a sister living in Jamaica, West India. He was buried this afternoon in the Hicksville cemetery.

THE MODERN WAY

In the old days shoe repairing was more or less crude and even many people of an economical nature thought it best to buy new shoes rather than wear the old ones that had been repaired crudely. Today both our wealthiest folks and most economical ones have their shoes repaired by us because they know that we can give them the perfect results.
