LOCAL NEWS

IS IN ENGLAND.
Mrs. B. H. Riley of 287 Duke street west has received word from her son, Supper Fred A. Riley, reporting his arrival in England. Supper Riley went overseas with the Canadian Engineers unit.

NOT A CANDIDATE.
W. Frank Hatheway informed the Times this morning that the report that he may be a candidate for commissioner is entirely unfounded. He will not be a candidate.

WELCOME GIFTS.
The vegetable exhibits of Miss Parks, Miss Hegan, A. M. Belding and some others at the War Gardens Exhibition were sent this morning by Mr. Burditt to the Children's Home in Elliott Row. The Y. W. C. A. received the large display of Frank V. Hamm and some others.

INJURED BY BLAST.
Richard Peet of West St. John, who was working on the road near the Three Mile House yesterday, met with a very painful accident which may mean the loss of one eye. Two blasts had been placed and after the first explosion Peet, not knowing that there was another, drew near. When the second blast came he was struck. His cheek bone was broken and his left eye injured.

DOING GREAT WORK WITH AMERICAN TROOPS IN Y. M. C. A. OVERSEAS

(Frederick Gleaner.)
Mrs. Thomas Hobson of Grand Bay, widow of Thomas Hobson, superintendent of the Fredericton-Chatham Junction branch of the C. G. R., has received an interesting letter from her son, Rev. Dr. Allan Hobson. He is a former U. N. B. man who gave up a professorship in the University of Chicago to go overseas as secretary of the Y. M. C. A. He is with the American Expeditionary Force in France.

Rev. Dr. Hobson says that the work being carried on by the Y. M. C. A. is "big, wonderful and Christian," and he is happy in being able to do his part. The recent greater activity of the troops, he says, makes a stronger appeal to the Y. M. C. A. The needs of the boys in combat and of the wounded make the big organization put forth its strongest efforts.

Dr. Hobson says: We have been with them under fire, at the dressing stations, and in the field hospitals. Hot coffee, sandwiches, cigarettes and friendship are greatly appreciated. He adds that this work is all received with a gratitude that is a pay better than riches. Gradually the Y. M. C. A. has built up a team of workers who are congenial and devoted.

Dr. Hobson has been put in charge of the work for more than 40,000 men, and has about forty persons associated with him. They run eighteen stores, many services, 100 entertainments a month, athletic, lunch room and hut for reading and writing. They are on the spot with front line soldiers at times of attack and when they are in sorest need. The Y. M. C. A. branch over which he has charge also look up "missing soldiers" and send word, or get them to write, or both.

Rev. Dr. Hobson's fine executive ability should stand him in good stead in handling this big job.

Rev. Dr. Hobson is brother-in-law of Rev. W. R. Robinson of this city.

CAPTAIN FRANK EASON
INVALIDED HOME

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 5.—Capt. Frank Eason of this city, who went overseas for the second time as adjutant of the 28th Maclean Highlanders, has returned to Fredericton. Since going to England with the 28th he had a severe attack of rheumatic fever and was in hospital for the greater part of the time. He has been invalided to Canada.

IMPASSIONED WORDS RE WAR AT THE METHODIST CONFERENCE

Hamilton, Oct. 5.—"We shall listen to no proposals of peace from Potsdam. There will be no peace conference to determine who is victor." With these and other similar impassioned sentences, Bishop Joseph Berry, fraternal delegate of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States, stirred the general conference of the Methodist Church of Canada last evening to a degree of enthusiasm that had not been equalled since its session began.

"There must be a surrender of the sword of Germany, dripping with the blood of innocent women and children," he declared. He fairly carried his audience off their feet when he exclaimed: "The American colonies never fought their mother; they fought their Prussian grandfather."

FORMER RUSSIAN MINISTER SLAIN

Quickoff, Leader of Octoberist Party Is Victim of Robbers

London, Oct. 5.—Alexander J. Guichonoff, former Russian minister of war and marine in the first revolutionary cabinet and speaker of the Third Duma, joined the Octoberist party during the revolution in 1905. In that year he founded the newspaper Golos Moskvi. In 1907 he was elected a member of the Council of the Empire and then of the Duma, where he led the Octoberist party, and in 1910 became speaker of the Duma. Mr. Guichonoff resigned as minister of war in May, 1917, declaring that he refused to share responsibility for conditions then existing in Russia. In September, 1917, he joined the Korniloff movement and a few days later it was reported that he had been arrested at Pskov, but was released, soon thereafter.

ST. JOHN SOLDIERS IN LIST OF WOUNDED

Pte. D. W. McNeil and Pte. Arthur Watson—N. B. Names

Mrs. Arthur Murphy of 52 Brussels street received word this morning from Ottawa that her son, Private Daniel Walter McNeil, a member of a local infantry battalion, had been admitted to No. 22 Casualty Clearing Station, suffering from shrapnel wounds in the hip and scalp. Private McNeil went overseas as a member of the first draft from the depot battalion. He is about thirty-two years old and after joining the army was employed in the Hygienic Bakery. A brother, Private Frank McNeil, has been in France, a member of a local battalion, for several months. His step-father, Private Arthur Murphy, recently returned from overseas.

Private Arthur Watson, son of Mrs. L. Watson, 148 Durham street, has been wounded in the head, according to a telegram received by the family this morning from Ottawa. Private Watson went overseas in the 28th Battalion. He is nineteen years old and was formerly employed as shipper with Ames-Holmes-McCready, Ltd. A brother, Private Kenneth Watson, is at present in France, a member of an American battalion.

Sergeant V. Dowling, of Fredericton, has been wounded in the back by shrapnel and is now in No. 4 Canadian General Hospital, Harrogate, England. He was one of the most popular N. C. O's of the 28th. He has been in France since March, being transferred to the 1st Battalion, C. B. L., and had been in the trenches only since August.

Ray Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simpson, of Fredericton, has been wounded. He went over with the Klitties and on the breaking up of that unit volunteered with a machine gun company.

N. B. Names.
Ottawa, Oct. 5.—Today's casualty list includes P. B. Merrill of St. John and G. Sullivan of Moncton, killed in action; E. P. Garnett of St. John, 10 of wounds; Lance Corp. G. Brooks, M. M. of Newcastle, H. W. Puddington of Moncton, Lance Corp. A. E. Laugren of Sackville, L. Gross of McAdam, J. C. Whitehouse of Millbank, wounded.

HE GAVE HIS LIFE

Pte. J. F. Beckwith, whose death in the war was reported in the Times last evening, died of wounds on Sept. 28. This gallant young soldier enlisted two years ago while only a boy of seventeen. He crossed to England with the 140th and within a few days was sent forward and then drafted to France in the Nova Scotia battalion. Private Beckwith is survived by his father, Arthur Beckwith, of East St. John, his step-mother, three brothers, a sister, a half-sister and a half-brother. The brothers are Leo, who went across with the 118th and is now with the 28th Battalion, Arthur W. of 108 St. Patrick street, formerly of the 140th, and Harold, at home. The half-sister is Miss Muriel Beckwith and the half-brother is Bertie, at home. The sister is Mrs. Walter Cosman of 188 Mecklenburg street. In their great loss Private Beckwith's family will have the sincere sympathy of many friends.

DEATH OF MISS MINNIE E. BURPEE, GRADUATE NURSE

The death of Miss Minnie E. Burpee occurred last evening at the home of her brother, Frederick J. Burpee, 278 Prince street, West St. John. Miss Burpee was a graduate nurse of the Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, and practised her profession in that city for some years very successfully.

She leaves three sisters and five brothers to mourn the loss of a loving sister. The sisters are Mrs. A. Williams of London, Ontario; Mrs. Murray W. Long of Lancaster Avenue, West St. John, and Miss Jennie S. Burpee, graduate nurse, of St. John. The brothers are Lockwood S. and Thomas B. of Boston; Harry S. of Eastport, Maine; Frank E. of Moosejaw, Sask., and Frederick J. of this city.

Gunner P. B. Williams, a student of Rotheray college, now overseas with the 5th Siege Battery, is a nephew, and Dr. B. C. Foster of Fredericton is an uncle. The funeral service will take place at Fredericton at the residence of Dr. B. C. Foster on Monday afternoon.

ROTHE AY TO STOP MOTOR OVER-SPEEDING

The residents of Rotheray, permanent ones, as well as suburbanites, are determined to put a stop to the dangerous over speeding of automobiles in that village. A case was before B. C. Barclay Boyd, stipendiary magistrate, on last Wednesday when Ewart G. Horne was fined $25 and costs which were paid, for fast driving on September 15.
