TO BE MARRIED IN WEST
Miss Ethel McAlpine left on Saturday evening for Winnipeg, where, on the 16th inst., she will be married to Stanley St. J. Poole, of that place, but formerly of this city. Miss McAlpine was accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Poole, who is en route to the coast on a visit.

A successful hunting trip has just been concluded by Dr. Neve, Dr. Maccaulay, F. G. Lamoreaux and A. Scott on the St. John. They bagged upwards of 100 black duck together with several pairs of woodcock and partridge.

NORTH END FIRE
The North End fire department was called out a little after seven o'clock this morning in response to an alarm rung from box 128. The fire, which was only slight, was in the house occupied by A. E. Clark, near Murray, Gregory's mill, off Douglas avenue. The fire started from a spark from the grate in one of the rooms, and burned through the floor. A street from the mill was turned on and the blaze was well under control before the department arrived.

AN INCIDENT OF THE MEETING
Michael Kelly, of St. Martins, was in the audience gathered in the Nickel Theatre last night in the interests of fair play for St. John. Mr. Kelly, though lacking the gift of sight, is favored otherwise and is noted for his brightness in conversation and platform speaking, and the audience was given an impromptu illustration of this last evening. One of the speakers was working out an example of the effect of the Gullies rates and was figuring the number of passengers on a train, so many sections, so many cars, etc., and announced his total as "754, I think." "758," came from Mr. Kelly like a flash.

MISS MARY J. DALZELL
Many friends regret the death of Miss Mary J. Dalzell, which occurred on Monday. Miss Dalzell was a native of Upland, but had lived nearly all her life in St. John, making her home for the last thirty years with her sister, Mrs. R. D. Coles. She is survived by Mrs. Coles, another sister, Mrs. James Calder of Fairbury, Nebraska, and two brothers, George of Vancouver and James of New York, besides several nephews and nieces. One of her nephews, Elmer Calder of Fairbury, Neb., has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Coles and family for two weeks. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the residence of R. D. Coles, 191 Charlotte street.

MUST LIKE THE PLACE
It would appear that the horse of Jas. McKinney of Strait Shore has a great fondness for the grazing grounds in Riverview Park. Whether that is the case or whether he is drawn there by the attractiveness of the scenery, cannot, of course, be said, but from any rate his presence there, using the park as a pasture, is objected to by neighboring residents. In the police court yesterday morning Mr. McKinney was fined $2 for allowing the animal to roam at large through the park on Saturday. He promised that the animal would not again use the grounds as pasture. Yesterday the animal was back again, and now Mr. McKinney will be back again in the court to answer another similar report.

COURT WOULD LIKE TO HEAR OF RELATIVES OF LATE WM. MCKELVEY
Matter of Two Estates Taken Up in Probate Today

The probate court today took up the matter of the estate of William McKelvey, yeoman. He died intestate in 1909. He lived on the corner of Sheffield and Wentworth streets, where he had some real estate. William G. Kee, a connection, was appointed administrator and, he having died without having fully administered the estate, John C. Kee, railway mail clerk, was appointed administrator de bonis non. There not being enough personal estate to pay the debts, or with the consent of the real estate, subsequently this was sold, and now the administrator has filed his accounts and asks to have them passed and allowed and distribution made among the next of kin. Mr. McKelvey was never married. Some his relations live in the States and a few in New Brunswick. It is hoped that relations or connections who have not already done so will communicate with the court, or with the possession of the administrator. A citation was issued returnable on Monday, January 26 next at 11 a.m. Messrs. Baxter & Logan, are proctors.

The court also dealt with the matter of the estate of Miss Frances A. Jack, who died intestate, leaving one brother, William Arthur, and six sisters—Mary R., wife of Dr. Thomas Walker; Mrs. B. Derwyne MacKenzie, widow; Alice D. Jack; Edith H., wife of Warwick W. Street of Berkeley, Cal.; Helen R. Jack and Emma C. K. Jack. On the petition of the last two, with the consent of the others, resident within the province, they were appointed administrators. The real estate consists of an undivided interest only amounting to $500 and personal estate $2,800. Fred R. Taylor is proctor.

CHURCH BELLS RING AS GUIDE TO MISSING PRIEST
Missionary in Quebec Went Hunting and it is Feared Life is Lost

Quebec, Oct. 14—Rev. Father LeJolice, a missionary at Berisimis, has been missing for a few days, and it is feared he may have lost his life. He left Berisimis the other day on a hunting trip, taking two dogs, but nothing has been heard or seen of him since, and the dogs have not returned.

The bells of the church have been kept ringing and a search party is at work, but so far without avail.

Y. M. A. BOWLING SEASON OPENED
The bowling season on St. Peter's Y. M. A. alleys in North End was opened last evening with a very interesting match in the society league in which the Shamrocks took four points from the Malaisets. The Shamrocks were composed of F. White, captain; R. Hansen, J. Gibbons, J. McCurdy and J. McIntyre, while the losers were made up of T. McGivern, captain; E. Hanson, C. Shea, H. McCarthy and U. Pierce.

Much interest is being taken in the league, and the opening game last night was followed closely by a large gathering of spectators. The alleys have been nicely renovated during the last few weeks and are greatly improved. The Emeralds, captained by T. Cosgrove, will meet the Micmacs under G. Connell this evening. On Thursday night the Erins, Captain Jas. McIntyre, will bowl the Maples, under Jas. McGowan, while on Friday night the Thistles, under Joseph Dever, will meet the Roses, with E. Harrington as captain.

POLICE PROBE TO BE BEGUN THIS EVENING

Chief First Witness in Open Session in Court House—No Counsel

The second investigation into the affairs of the police department conducted by Commissioner McLellan will open this evening at 7:30 in the court house. Unlike the last this investigation will be open to the public.

Commissioner McLellan said this morning that Chief Clark would be the first witness to be heard this evening. Speaking of the report that some of the members of the police department wanted to be represented by counsel, the commissioner said very emphatically that no counsel would be permitted.

"This is not a trial, nor a prosecution, nor a persecution," he said, "it is an investigation into the affairs of the department, and I am going to conduct it in my own person, and I am going up there trying to bluff me or to run the investigation to suit themselves they are liable to be thrown out of the window."

Since the last investigation the police force has been steadily decreasing, as one after another member has left and no appointments were made in their place owing to the refusal of the city to appoint any more men over whom they have no control. This situation has led to complaints on the part of citizens regarding lack of protection, and from the chief that he has not sufficient men to protect the city.

It is believed that one object of this investigation is to show the public the condition of affairs in the department, which will justify the city in insisting upon a vote in its control.

The Business Man or College Chap Who Is About to Invest in Fall Clothing Should Know---

This is the twenty-fifth fall and winter season we've announced our readiness to supply the men and young men of Saint John and vicinity with the best clothing made.

That during all this stretch of years we've met all sorts of competition, and have not only held our own but have forged ahead and actually outdistanced all rivals.

That today our clothing store leads the entire country in volume of business.

That this great success is the result of selling better clothing for the money than any other store.

That at all other stores two profits must be paid—the manufacturer's and the retailer's, and this doubling-up of profits means an income of 25 per cent. to 33 1-3 per cent. in the price of clothing.

That every garment sold at Oak Hall is up-to-the-last-tick-of-the-clock in style, and is guaranteed for satisfactory service.

That anyone can have his money back for any garment that doesn't turn out right.
