STRONGLY FOR PRISON FARM

After having made a hurried trip in an inspection of the methods in vogue in prison farms throughout Canada and the States, Councillor P. M. Cochrane of St. John, and County Secretary Kelley returned to the city this morning on the Boston train. Mr. Cochrane was well pleased with the result of his visit, and when asked if he thought it feasible to provide for this city a prison farm on a scale similar to what he had seen he replied "absolutely so."

They visited Montreal, Toronto, and Guelph and Boston. A visit was also made to the state reformatory at Concord Junction and Bridgewater where there are 5,000 prisoners on a splendidly conducted farm.
