RECENT DEATHS

Justice Fairley, Jr.
Justice Fairley, Jr., died at his home, 100 St. John street, Dec. 5—Justus Fairley, Jr., 72, died at his home this morning while shaving. Heart was the cause of death. He was years of age and a brother of the late Justice Fairley, the well known jurist. Deceased had been in Fredericton Tuesday in his usual good health, returning home that night. Three survivors—Harry, on the editorial of the Minneapolis Herald; Clarence, with the C. P. R. in Montreal, and the late home.

David Burke.
David Burke, one of the best known insurance and real men, died here today. Mr. Burke was prominently associated with insurance business in Montreal and 40 years held the presidency of the Managers' Association of Canada, a former solely of the executive of insurance companies in Canada. He was in Charlottetown (P. E. I.), and he had his education in the schools of province, and later went into business. In 1869 he came to Montreal.

James Farnham.
James Farnham died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Vanasse, at 100 St. John street, Dec. 5, at the age of 88 years. In the old wooden ship building, Farnham was a well known caulker, had not been actively engaged for many years. He leaves two sons, two daughters, C. E. Farnham, St. J. T. S. Farnham, of Jamaica Plain, N. B., Mrs. Chas. Vanasse, of Digby, and Mrs. Chas. Vanasse, of Digby, and also a brother and two sisters, William Farnham, of St. John, Mrs. J. J. Thorne, of Digby, and Mrs. J. J. Thorne, of Weymouth. The funeral took place on Wednesday, with interment in the Episcopal cemetery. The house was conducted by Rev. J. D. Bennett and at the grave by Rev. William Driffield. Among those who attended the funeral were: T. S. Farnham, of Jamaica Plain, Chas. Farnham, Jr., of St. John—by Courier, Dec. 5.

Angor Commercial.—Mr. and Mrs. M. Graham left on the afternoon of Dec. 5 for Woodstock, N. B., called there the death of Mr. Graham's sister, Maurice H. Craig. Mrs. Craig had friends in this city, having visited several times.

Burial in Fredericton. Patrick died, aged seventy-six years. He was buried by his wife and eleven children, four sons, James, Charles, Andrew, Daniel, and of Lewiston, Me.; and his daughters, Mrs. Harvey Collins, Francis Murphy, and Miss Nora, of Lewiston, Me.; Mrs. Edward Skett, of Hallowell, Me.; Mrs. Royens, of Auburn, Me. and Miss Zeta, of Fredericton. One brother, John, of Digby, York county, and three sisters, Joseph Vayton of Miramichi, N. B.; James H. Quinn, of New Brunswick, and Mrs. Herman Murdoch, of Fredericton, also survive, as do twenty-grandchildren.

The death occurred at Fredericton on Friday of Miss Sarah Jarvis. Her mother, Mrs. William Jarvis, and her daughter, William Patterson, passed away a week ago. Two sisters, one of whom is Miss Nellie Jarvis of Fredericton, survive, as do eight brothers, all of whom are residing in the United States.

THOUSANDS WILL BE DELIGHTED
All past efforts to give an art-loving public a calendar of exceptional beauty have been totally eclipsed by the 1914 Pabst Extract American Girl Calendar. With marvellous accuracy the brush of one of America's master artists caught and portrayed the rare grace and charm of a typical beautiful American Girl garbed in a dainty evening dress of exquisite color and design. The new Pabst Calendar, a supremely beautiful panel 7x9 1/2 in. is an exact 12 color reproduction of this attractive painting.

FROM INDUSTRIAL HOME
The Moncton police have been asking to keep a look-out for Edmund Harrington of Newcastle, who recently escaped from the Boys' Industrial Home in St. John and is supposed to be heading his way toward his North Shore home. He is about five feet nine inches tall, with light skin and long narrow nose. He is wearing striped pants, grey undershirt, grey overcoat, and a cloth cap. He is about eighteen years of age.

CONNAUGHT SEES MONTREAL SOCIETY DANCE THE TANGO

Montreal, Dec. 5.—Graced by the presence of the Duke of Connaught, his attending aides, local members of the bench and bar, militia officers in gorgeous uniforms, and ladies exquisitely gowned, lords of commerce and finance and social leaders of the city, the Royal St. Andrew's ball of 1913 held tonight at the Windsor Hotel will probably be remembered as the most brilliant function of its kind ever held in Montreal. Added to the brilliance of the scene, and the dignity lent by the presence of royalty, was a spontaneous gaiety that was not dampened by the great crush of guests that made dancing at times difficult, but did not wholly prevent exhibitions of the latest tango steps.

Two ball rooms were provided, the Windsor Hall and the Ladies' Oratory, with a shaded, bunting-decorated passage between.

In the grand ballroom, transfused with an overhanging mass of dark green foliage and laurel gathered up into festoons and arches, with shaded lights shining dimly through, the setting was like a fairy bower. The color scheme
