ACADIA CLOSING

Interesting Ceremonies at Wolfville—The Graduates.

Yesterday afternoon the senior class of Acadia seminary held their class day exercises at Wolfville. An exhibition of wood and iron work was displayed by the Acadia engineers in Rhodes Hall. A household science exhibit was held at the same time in the seminary. At 8:30 there was a baseball match between Acadia and Middleton, which was won by the former, the score being 11-8.

In the evening the closing exercises of the Collegiate and Business Academy were held, with the principal, W. L. Archibald in the chair. The opening prayer was delivered by Rev. G. W. Miller, B.A. A vocal solo by Miss Emma Conrad followed. An essay on "Wireless" was read by M. B. Vall and Miss Mar-Lusby gave a violin selection. The class history was read by G. DeWitt Mullin of St. John. Miss M. White sang the "Creole Love Song." The valedictory was delivered by L. M. Gray. Rev. Gordon C. Warren of Fredericton addressed the graduating class. The diplomas and certificates were awarded by Dr. Archibald after which the processional march was played as a piano duet by the Misses Ora Annis and Violet Holden.

WILLIAM O'KEEFE INJURED

William O'Keefe was quite seriously burned yesterday morning. While going towards a table in his boarding house, in Union street, he fainted and fell across a table knocking over a lamp the oil from which ignited his clothing, and before help arrived he sustained severe burns. He was conveyed to the hospital and late last night his conditions was said to be critical. Recently Mr. Keefe's
