Mrs. Cunningham, summoned by the shooting, was the next target of the crazed veteran. He fired at her as she stood on the porch of her home. The chief value of the new styles has been in attracting crowds to the shoe store windows.

Girl Swimmers Set 3 World's Records
Misses Ederle and Bauer Star in Races in 60-Foot Pool at Long Beach—Goes 100 Yards in 1.05.

New York, July 11.—Miss Gertrude Ederle, of the Women's Swimming Association of New York and Miss Sybil Bauer of the Illinois A. C. of Chicago, achieved record swimming feats at the opening water carnival in the 60-foot pool of the new Olympic Baths at Long Beach, L. I., Saturday afternoon. Miss Ederle swam 100 yards, free style, in 1.05 flat, disposing of the national record for 60-foot pool, credited to Miss Minnie De Vry of the Illinois A. C. last spring. Miss Bauer lowered her own 150-yard backstroke standard for a short pool from 2:08 to 2:01.25, and on the way passed 100 metres in 1:29.25, setting a record, as none has been registered officially to date. These actually are world's records for the conditions, but the International Federation does not list marks made in pools shorter than 75 feet. Miss Ederle accomplished her brilliant feat in an open A. A. U. 100-yard handicap which she won from scratch, beating by a narrow margin her clubmate, Miss Virginia Whitteck, the runner-up, who received 6 seconds. Miss Doris O'Mara, also given 6 seconds, was a close third.

Miss Bauer Beats Miss Rignin.
Miss Bauer returned her records in an invitation 150-yard dorsal event in which her only opponent to report was Miss Allen Rignin, of the Women's Swimming Association, junior national champion at this style of swimming. Miss Rignin pressed her noted Chicago rival up to 100 yards, but fell back after that and was beaten by 6 yards. Truly startling performances featured a 220-yard scratch free-style race for girls, never having won a championship. Four girls of the W. S. A. were the contenders and every one of them beat the excellent mark of 3:13. Miss Theresa Starnes, a novice quite recently, earned victory in the striking time of 3:05.45, while Miss Ruth Morgan and Miss Helen Briscoe, 3:18 and 3:22 respectively, took the places as named in 3:10 and 3:12. Miss Allen Rignin, Olympic fancy diving champion, won by a wide margin a scratch contest from the 10-foot springboard. She ran up a total of 102.8 points, as against 92.63 points garnered by her nearest opponent, Miss Florence Briscoe.

Hornet Victim Calls On Police For Help
Bronx Resident Protests at Undergrowth Colony of Insects That Invaded Street.

New York, July 11.—The police at the Kingsbridge Station in the Bronx were considerably puzzled recently when they received a frantic telephone call from a man who said that he had wandered inadvertently into a huge underground hornet's nest at Kingsbridge Road and Heath Avenue and was convinced that the police should take action regarding such a menace to the neighborhood. Lieutenant Thomas J. Ryan called on the Park Department, but the nest was not located within its jurisdiction. So he notified Captain James Trainor.

Captain Trainor has been in the Bronx only a week and his long service at Police Headquarters in Manhattan gave him little confidence in handling such a rural problem. He called for advice upon his chauffeur Policeman James McCann who has prospect of a millionaire colony in Riverside for years and is thoroughly versed in the ways of Kingsbridge hornets.

When they drove to the home of the man who called for help, Henry T. Williams, at 2875 Heath Avenue, Mrs. Williams was of the opinion that a practical joke had been played on her husband and the police. At that moment Mr. Williams walked in bearing the visible proof of the story. He said that he was walking down Kingsbridge Road, which is the direct route to the subway and trolleys, when he suddenly realized that a lot of holes he saw along the sidewalk near Heath Avenue were filled with hornets. He covered up his head and ran.

WASSONS
"WHERE GOOD THINGS ARE SOLD"

title of a Royal Prince of Britain and Ireland.
The House of Cumberland assembled two valuable collections of treasures, one of which, the Guelph Fund, played a prominent role in the struggle between the Hohenzollern and Hanoverian dynasties, when Hanover died with Austria in the Austro-Prussian war of 1866. This collection comprises churchly possessions and is not involved in the present sale.
In the other collection, part of which now is going under the hammer, are works of art by English, French and German master silversmiths of the period from 1800 to 1880. The Austrian government protested against the sale on the ground that it is likely to involve a violation of the federal law prohibiting art treasures leaving the country. The duke thereupon explained that he was selling only articles of practical value, such as table services, cutlery, cups, vases and luxurious silver chairs and tables.
The articles to be sold have an estimated value of 2,000,000,000 Austrian kronen.

ANGORA SHORT ON HOUSES; U. S. CONSUL LIVES IN A BOX CAR
New York Girl, Recently Wed to Baltimore Man, Finds It Keeps Travels From Halting Housework.

Angora, July 11.—The only American representative in this far-off corner of Asia is Charles Imbrie, of Baltimore. His duties include that of consul, trade commissioner and counselor to thousands of non-Muslims who are not popular in Turkey at the moment and who believe any American can perform miracles for them.
Mr. Imbrie had been living a hand-to-mouth existence in this poverty stricken city for more than a year, but when he married Miss Katherine Gillespie of New York, director of the Near East Relief Orphanage, recently a thought it would be well to go home hunting.
Angora, however, has what probably is the most acute housing shortage of any city in the world, hence the young couple decided to set up housekeeping in the only box car to let in town, and now the American flag waves from its sliding door.
Although a bit cramped for room,
