OF THE SYNOD
OF THE
UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA.

I. SEDERUNT.

TORONTO, TUESDAY,
June 5, 1855, 7½ o'clock, P. M.

The Synod of the United Presbyterian Church in Canada, met, and, after sermon by the Rev. James Dick, the Moderator, from 2 Cor. iv. 1, 2, was constituted.

The Presbytery of London reported that they had inducted the Rev. Mr. Waddell, into the pastoral charge of the Congregation in Harwich, on October 31st, 1854; the Rev. Archibald Cross, to that of Ingersoll, on January 11th, 1855; the Rev. John Hogg, into that of Detroit, on March 14th; and the Rev. James Duncan into that of Bayfield, on May 9th. Further, that they had accepted Mr. Logie's demission of the pastoral charge of Bayfield, on October 13th, 1854, and Mr. Devine's demission of that of Goderich, on February 28th, 1855; and that they had organized the Congregation of Westminster, on August 2nd, 1854.

The Rev. Mr. Duncan's credentials were read and approved August 2nd, 1854, with the understanding that he should, by and bye, engage in ministerial labour. On January 30th, 1855, he was appointed, in compliance with the wishes of the people, to officiate in Bayfield, on the days when it would otherwise be vacant. At the earnest request of the people, this appointment was so extended, as that he should statedly supply it.
