The following Ladies held their regular manicure meetings in the Mission hall at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening last.

Thursday July 13th—New Brunswick Lodge, No. 75, 15th Street.

Friday July 14th—Union Lodge of Portland, No. 16.

A New Steamboat Route—It has been decided to have the steamer M. A. Starr put on the route between Charlottetown, St. John's, and Miramichi.

Confirmation—A confirmation will be held by Bishop Kingston in St. John's church, on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Parents of Mr. Alexander Lockhart who was seriously injured by a runaway team on Charlotte street about four weeks since, will be glad to know that the boy was on the street today, though suffering to some extent from his mishap.

No Stables—The rubber wrap which Mr. F. C. Jordan reported to have been stolen from his carriage on South Market street Saturday, has been found on Wentworth street, near his own home. It had dropped from his carriage on its way to town.

Crime in Halifax—Secretary Taylor says he will never be away with any crime at present. He has been in attendance at the police court nearly every day last week, and will be there nearly all day with people on P. C. list.

Charles Warren delivered his lecture on the Bible and Inspiration, in Charlottetown on Friday, and at its close a discussion with the Rev. S. G. Leveson, which had been arranged for on the previous evening took place.

Farewell Service—Rev. W. D. Brewer preached his farewell sermon in Trinity church last evening, selecting for his text, Philippians IV: 6. He was careful in his preaching to give prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to the Father. The attendance was large, and in conclusion Mr. Brewer asked for the benediction at his church at his new field of labor, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Intercommunal Visits—Attached to the Short Line express, Saturday afternoon, was the private car Saskatchewan containing President Van Horne, Hon. Edward Blake, Judge Clark, Sanford Fleming and Mr. Reed, all gentlemen well known in public and railway circles. Judge Clark and Hon. Mr. Blake are en route to Halifax, and the private car was on board the train.

A Fatal Fire—The house and store of Mr. F. A. East, Charlestown, near Halifax, was burned Saturday at midnight, the fire originating below and cutting off escape from the sleeping occupants. Bill jumped out of the window to get leader. Meanwhile Mrs. Bill came to the window with her two children in her arms. One she dropped out through the window and was caught by the neighbors. The other she failed, or was overcome by smoke. The child fell into the street and was fatally injured. Mrs. Bill was finally rescued, but terribly burned and will be likely survive. The house and store were destroyed.

Public Works Department—Some important changes have been made in the public works department which involve the abolition of the office of engineer in charge, filled by Mr. Henry Gray, who has been recalled to Ottawa. Assistant engineers will in future report direct to Ottawa.

The clerical staff dismissed with are: Andrew Danks, Thomas H. Adams and George A. Day.

Assistant engineers John C. Allison, G. A. Brown, James H. Hogan and F. G. Millidge will take charge of the four maritime provinces and districts: New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Cape Breton and P. E. Island.

Joseph Ewing will be retained as permanent engineer of the department for the maritime provinces.

How a Charity May be Divorced—In the Supreme Court at Yarmouth last week, the cause of Mrs. Janet M. Kane vs. L. E. Baker, and others was tried and judgment reserved. In 1877 a will was being filed in Yarmouth and Mr. Mann Kane was killed. A subscription amounting to upwards of $2,000 was raised for the widow and orphans. This was invested and the proceeds paid into a general fund and explained fully. Claiming that the money could not be diverted from the purpose for which it was subscribed, Mrs. Kane sued the trustees for the money—Yarmouth Transcript.

The Twelfth—The Oranges of St. John's district will celebrate the Twelfth at Gagetown on Friday. In addition to the contingent from St. John the ladies from Nepeska and Peterville will attend. There will also be delegations from four or five York county lodges and four lodges from Woodstock under command of Past Grand Master Merritt of Woodstock. Speeches will be delivered by Grand Master Armstrong of St. John, Past Grand Master Merritt of Woodstock, and others. As an additional attraction there will be a horse ball match between clubs from Gagetown and Fredericton.

The steamer David Weston has been chartered to convey the excursionists from St. John to Gagetown, and in order to give interesting visitors as much time as possible, the steamer will depart on the 11th inst.

Deaths—Mr. Thomas R. and Mrs. Jones left by train for Boston, last evening, to visit their daughter Ada, who was very ill in that city. This morning Mr. Fred A. Jones received a telegram from his father, at Bangor, informing him that the young lady had died on Sunday night. Miss Jones had a large circle of friends in St. John who will hear of her early death with the deepest regret. She was one of the most industrious workers in St. John's church, and also took a warm interest in amateur operas. She will be remembered as having taken part in the Sweeney and other plays produced by St. John amateurs. A few months ago Miss Jones attended herself to the school of nurses of the Massachusetts General hospital, and it was while performing her round of duty there that she died. A fortnight ago she was pronounced out of danger, but a relapse followed which proved fatal. Her husband and Mrs. Jones are on their way to look after the remains of their daughter, which will be followed by the condolence of their numerous friends.

The Summer Carnival.

At the carnival meeting held in Berryman's hall Saturday evening it was announced that Mr. E. L. Jevett had placed his big Dringo in the disposal of the managing committee.

Mr. S. T. King has kindly offered to pay the expenses of the Kingville band in connection with the carnival.

At a meeting of electrical exhibitors, Messrs. Andrew Hunter and J. P. Howe were asked to be members of the committee.

Constables, door keepers, etc. have been appointed.

Least Governor Tilley will open the electrical exhibition. Special invitations will be sent to the mayors of the various cities in Canada to be present.

The secretary of the reception committee has received a large number of applications from those having accommodation for guests.

The musical committee will hold a meeting next week.

Among the special features in the trades procession, carnival week, will be the display of E. F. Foster's, Son, mill and lack manufacturers. They intend to get into the parade six double teamsters, 75 men and boys in uniform. On one of the wagons there will be a tall machine in operation, a second will carry the first display of a tall machine in operation, a third a hand of 17 pieces, making this a first display of a tall machine in operation.
