The colleges yould be particularly separate them counted the counted them counted them counted them counted them counted the good of the cause; smother your emotions; onceal your disgust, and go to the polls 1871, in which Sir John declared that like a man in the new constituency of what's its name, made up of I-don't know- as far as possible county lines should be CHOICE TEA AT 40 CENTS what municipalities; go to the polls in your new associations, in your new arrangements, and vote for the man who did all these things in order that he might convert a minority of Tories in the coun
"ada should have the opportunity of convert a minority of Tories in the country, into a majority of Tories in the House." Why, sir, this proposal which, as I have told you before, you are mistaken in supposing will accomplish its ends, which I told you before I believe the people will revolt against, which I believe the people will revolt against, which I believe the honest sense of all the people in all the Provinces will revolt against, which I believe the members from the other provinces may do or say, or whatever retraints they may wish to impose, or whatever forters and shackles they may wish to place upon Ontario; this is a proposal, I say, which I believe their constituents, the people of their counties, will look upon as one they ought to be very jealous of. I believe they will say, "This comes close to our doors; we know not, if this rule is adopted on what principle it can be confined to the very service with that the people of Candad should have the opportunity of "choosing for political promotion the "men in whom they have most confidence and of whose abilities they are "fully assured. All that great advantage is lost by cutting off a portion of two separate counties and adding them "together for electoral purposes only." "Those portions which are cut off have "no common interests. They do not "work together, and they have no comtwork to be very jealous of. I believe they will say, "This comes close to our doors; we know not, if this rule is adopted on what principle it can be confined to the very service of the polls in their own townships to vote for a man who may be known in one section and not in another. Loss of Appetite.

After he had disposed of the redistribution clauses, Mr. Blake so we will be matter of the returning officers, and said:

One would have thought that the boasters and the braggarts who talk of going to the polls to increase their strength, who say that the constituents who sent them here would send them again with an enhanced majority. One would have thought that these boasters and braggarts would have been satisfied with catting these constituencies up. One would have thought that these boasters and braggarts would have been satisfied with catting these constituencies up. One would have supposed that their attempt by this audacious, this outrageous measure to smother the popular sentiment which is against them to day, as they boast it was for them in 1878, would have been sentiment which is against them to day, as they boast it was for them in 1878, would have been sentiment which is against them to day, as they boast it was for them in 1878, would have been sentiment which is against them to day, as they boast it was for them in 1878, would have been sentiment which is against them to day, as they boast it was for them in 1878, would have been sentiment which is against them to day, as they boast it was for them in 1878, would have been sentiment which is against them to day, as they boast it was for them in 1878, would have been sentiment which is against them to day, as they boast it was for them in 1878, would have been sentiment which is against the abuse of owner by the party in office to adjust the opposents.

SAMPLE ROOMS J. D. TURNER, For Commercial Men

THE demand for Sample Rooms to a commodate the commercial travellers being so great, and the supply being inadequate, causing the travellers in some instances to remain three or four days awaiting their turn, has induced the subscriber to build two Sample Rooms, well lighted, aired and warm. Commercial men can depend on obtaining just what they require, being situated in the contral part of the business community, namely, corner Main and Wesley Streets, they will be found to be far more suitable, comfortable and convenient.
Should a horse and sleigh be required it will be furnished without additional expense. Rooms se
