LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

THE FIRE ALARM.

To the Editor of the Star:—Sir, Saturday night, a still alarm was sent in (telephoned from Baxter's grocery on Pitt street) for a fire in Elliott Row, but why? Simply because there was no fire alarm key at Christie's on Pitt street, where one has always been kept and where it should have been, had it not wandered off somewhere after having been used in an endeavor to send in an alarm for a King street (east) fire some months ago.

An alarm was afterwards turned in from box 9 but box 31 was the proper one to have been used.

I was informed that several people who were aware of the fire were running around like hens with their heads cut off. On account of the key not being at Christie's they did not know what to do until someone suggested telephoning to one of the fire stations.

These sections of the city where the property owners are foolish enough to submit to the prehistoric nonsense of not having the key on the box, but in some porch and the fire department officials do not make it their business to see that the keys are where they should be, surely the above property owners might take enough interest in the welfare of themselves, if not in that of others to see that the keys are somewhere where they can be secured in case of need.

As I have pointed out on previous occasions it seems simply ridiculous that every fire alarm box should not have a key attached and that when a fire is discovered, much valuable time must be lost in enquiring where the owner of a name printed on a card on the box resides.

If several improvements are not made in the fire department and fire alarm system it seems quite probable that the fire department disgrace is the two-horse hitch still used on the ladder truck. On Saturday night the truck had to wait on King street (east) until a team of engine horses hauled their machine to the engine house and returned in order that it might get back to its house.

Now suppose another alarm had come in, just think of the tangle. Had the engine team assisted in hauling the truck the latter would probably have reached the scene of the fire but an engine would have been for a considerable time without a team to haul it; or, had the engine team taken care of the engine and landed it on the scene, the truck would have been absent.

Is it not time that the now famed cumbersome ladder truck was provided with enough horse flesh to haul it to any part of our city without waiting for horses which later might at any minute be needed to attend to the duties properly devolving upon them.

Many citizens may not now realize the need of these changes, but I fear that some day, and when it is too late, they may.

EQUITY.

POLICE COURT.

Boys Fined for Playing on the Street on Sunday Evening.

In the absence of Magistrate Ritchie, Mr. Henderson presided at the bench this morning and dealt with the offenders at the record rate of one and two-thirds to the minute. There were ten prisoners, and the bunch was disposed of in six minutes. But in spite of this speed there was time for the introduction of a sliding scale by which the drunks were fined different amounts according to the time at which they were arrested.

For being drunk before the saloons close on Saturday the fine is four dollars, after hours renders the offender liable to six, and should the arrest be made at any time on Sunday the penalty runs up to eight. In this way Joseph Irvine was fined four dollars, Henry Addison six, John C. Coney, Charles Patterson and James Price eight dollars each. David Hurley, who would have come under the six dollar rate left a deposit of eight, which was forfeited.

Sergt. Ross arrested Walter Campbell and Clay Clark for fighting on Market Place, West End. The young men pleaded guilty and were fined ten dollars each.

Three boys, John Walsh, William Golding and John Crawley had a game of French foot and a half on Smyth street just after church last evening. They rose to their feet this morning and with one accord pleaded guilty to the charge, their clear young voices rising in unison over the howling of the court, which they chanted "Yes sir, we done it." The boys were fined one dollar each, or three dollars for the crowd, a rate of two dollars per foot for the game they played. Officers Finley and Henry, who made the arrest, have reported Thomas Donovan, Harry Haker, Wm. McIntyre, John and Eddie Travis, William O'Brien, Albert and Fred Bain for being members of the same crowd.

THE MISSION QUESTION.

The Evangelical Alliance will meet in special session this afternoon to consider the revised report of the special committee on the boy question. Last Monday some exception was taken to the report as it then stood, especially the section relating to the board of management. The idea was expressed then that there should be something more definite concerning the personnel of the board. The special committee met Saturday afternoon and discussed the whole matter, going into the management of the Mill street mission in detail.

PROBATE COURT.

In the estate of John Frederickson on the application of A. A. Wilson, K. C., an executor, a citation has been granted returnable February 20th, 1903, to prove the will in solemn form. The estate is valued at $9,982. Bustin and Porter, proctors.

Accounts were being passed this morning in the estate of John W. Fisher.

PROVIDENCE R. I., Nov. 9.—Emma Goldman, who is widely known for her anarchist utterances, was stopped by the police this evening as she was on the point of entering a hall where she had advertised to speak. She was told that she could not address a public audience, and went away with little protest.

THE DOUKHOBORS.

Police Had to Club Them to Get Them on the Train.

(Special to the Star.)

WINNIPEG, Nov. 10.—Government officials have at length, by strategy, gained control of the wandering band of Doukhobor fanatics, and these latter are now enroute to their homes. The work of loading the Doukhobors on trains was of an exciting character. The Doukhobors left the rink quietly, but as soon as they were out they locked themselves together by every man hugging another, making a solid body. Then the excitement commenced. Citizens turned in and helped the police, but it was hard work for a while to get the Doukhobors apart and harder still to get them over a hundred yards to the station. One citizen had an ear nearly bitten off, a Doukhobor had an ankle broken and there were many other minor mishaps. The Doukhobor army again formed for battle, and here for the stiffest fighting occurred. The Doukhobors fought, kicked and clung to everything they could get hold of, and the police had to use clubs to get them on board the train. Finally all were got into coaches, when the train moved off.

A LIVELY MEETING. That Adjourned Without Having Formed a Union.

On Saturday night a meeting of the men employed in the Portland Rolling Mills, Maritime Mill Works and the Pender Mill Works was held in Carpenter's Hall, on Mill street. The meeting ended in what was almost a free fight and the Ironworkers' Union, which where in the future.

It appears that a number of the rolling mills employes have been in the habit of spending money at a certain saloon. The proprietor of this saloon had a dispute with one of these men a short time ago, over an amount due for liquor, and Elen Perkins, superintendent of the rolling mills took a hand in the game on the side of the employe. Since that time several of the employes of the mill, who were said to be negligent by reason of intemperate habits, have been discharged.

In order, it is said, to get square with Mr. Perkins and the other discharged men and the bartender conceived the idea of forming an ironworkers union, which, when all the rolling mills employes had joined it might declare a strike and demand among other things that the discharged men should be reinstated.

A canvass was made among the employes of the mills, and the Maritime and Pender Mill Works, with a view to calling a meeting, which was called for Saturday night.

Now it so happened that the majority of the mill employes are so well satisfied with their employers that they are ready to stand up for them. A detachment of fifteen or twenty of these men attended Saturday night's meeting for the purpose of doing several things to the bartender who, they said, was trying to get them into trouble. But he was not present. A solicitor, who was appointed chairman of the meeting, said, in addressing the assembly, that he had been invited to attend, but did not know what part he was to take.

Just when things were beginning to get interesting the meeting decided to put off the formation of a union until some future time, and adjourned without anyone being hurt.

THE LATE MRS. ROBINSON.

Mrs. Adeline E. Robinson, who died early Saturday morning, was a well-known resident of this city. Mrs. Robinson was born in Eastport, Me., in 1815. She resided here until the death of her husband, George M. Robinson, in 1845. Mr. Robinson was connected with the lumber trade in this city and they came here to reside. At the death of her husband in 1889, Mrs. Robinson went to live with her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Seely, Mt. Pleasant avenue, and she resided there until her death. She leaves five sons and a daughter, who are: James H., of Chicago; Dr. Fred M., of Boston; and Mrs. Alfred Seely, of this city. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon from Mr. Seely's residence to Fernhill. The services will be held at three o'clock.

DIED IN DORCHESTER, MASS.

Mrs. W. N. DeWitt, wife of a former St. John contractor and proprietor of a woodworking establishment, died at Dorchester, Mass., this morning after a lingering illness. Mrs. DeWitt was well known in this city, having been here for a number of years. She removed to the United States about seven years ago. She leaves three daughters and three sons. Mrs. A. H. Chipman, of this city, is one of the daughters. The others are Misses Lydie and Hattie, living in Dorchester. The sons are Kenneth, in Dorchester; Bernard S., in Jamaica Plain, and Walter, now in British Columbia.

Mrs. DeWitt's body will be brought to Berwick, N. S., for burial.

NEW CHORAL ASSOCIATION.

The Maple Leaf Club of Main Street Baptist church has formed a choral association for the primary purpose of studying music and later on of giving a concert or series of concerts. A Chip Ritchie, director of the Choman chorus, has consented to act as leader and the first practice will be held this evening. The association has already a membership of over sixty and is not confined to the Maple Leaf Society alone.

CARLETON BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. J. E. K. Whitney preached in the Carleton Baptist church yesterday morning, and the pastor, Rev. B. N. Nobles, in the evening. The ordinance of baptism was administered at the close of the evening service. It is expected that next Sunday morning Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, the well known writer, will preach there.

GETS THE BERTH.

A Place at the I. C. R. Wharf Given the Donaldson Line.

The Donaldson line will discharge at the I. C. R. pier this winter. Mayor White has received word that the matter has been settled by the two railroads and that a weekly service will be put on. The C. P. R. has agreed to pay ten cents a ton on all freight moved from the east to the west side. Twenty cents a ton was the former charge. Shunting and other rates have been fixed. There is to be no delay in forwarding the stuff, and every possible facility for speedy moving will be provided by the I. C. R., so that the warehouse will never be so congested as to impede the regular I. C. R. traffic. That road also agrees, in the event of there being no berth on the West Side available, to offer berth spaces to any of the regular liners on the same terms as those by which the Donaldson line obtains a berth.

METHODIST PREACHERS MEET.

The Methodist ministers met at the usual time and place, Rev. S. Howard presiding. After reading the Scripture by the secretary, Rev. G. M. Campbell led in prayer. There were present:—Dr. Sprague, G. M. Campbell, T. J. Deinstadt, S. Howard, H. Penna, O. W. Hamilton, Dr. Wilson, W. J. Kirby, J. A. Clark, C. Comben, H. D. Marr. A communication was received from the Book Room, and on motion each minister is made responsible for his own Wesleyan list. There were no changes in the preaching services yesterday, except that Rev. Mr. Marr and Rev. Mr. Deinstadt had exchange of pulpits in the morning, and Rev. Mr. White, of Main Street Baptist church, preached in Exmouth street at night.

On Sunday week Rev. G. M. Campbell received three members into the church.

Rev. T. J. Deinstadt read a most important and admirable paper on "The Best Methods Adopted for the leading of the members of our congregations to a decision for Christ, and into membership with our church."

Dr. Wilson moved and J. A. Clark seconded a resolution of thanks which was unanimously carried. On motion the discussion of the paper was postponed to Monday next. The benediction was pronounced by Bro. Comben.

LIVE DEER IN TOWN.

Sportsmen need no longer go on long trips up country nor spend large sums of money on shooting outfits. Deer are now coming to the city to be caught, and show a decided preference for being taken alive.

When Samuel Wilson, who owns a timber pond at Wiggins' slip, at the foot of King street, Carleton, went to his work this morning, he found a full grown deer quietly sleeping on one of the floats. Mr. Wilson requisitioned the assistance of Fred Macaulay, one of his men, and together they approached the sleeping deer. But the creature heard them and suddenly waking took to the water. There were many pieces of timber floating about in the water and among these the deer got bewildered, so that the men after some little difficulty caught it by the head and succeeded in hauling it out of the water.

The deer is now enjoying life in Mr. Wilson's office building and is attracting quite a lot of attention. The general opinion seems to be that it swam through the falls and, being carried by an eddy to the timber pond, stopped to rest.

CAN'T FIND THE CHILD.

The search for the child of the woman who died in the hospital a couple of weeks ago is still being kept up. Secretary Wetmore of the S. P. C. A. is working on the case, but so far his efforts have been unsuccessful. Several supposed clues were found, but when traced out, some other youngster was found. From the discoveries made there appear to be quite a number of children in the city who are not living at home. It is fairly certain that the baby looked for is staying in the city. Information to that effect has been received, but at present nothing more definite is known.

THE HERALD DUTIFULLY FLOPS.

(Fredericton Herald.)

The Sun takes no notice of Dr. Pugsley's suggestion that the next local election may be run on federal party lines. The Sun has been supporting Mr. Hazen in his appeal for liberal votes, and it does not want to advertise the fact that the attorney general believes there will be a general line up of liberals for the government, while Mr. Hazen will be left with ragged support of the remnants of the conservative party.

AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT.

Miss Hubert has secured a verdict of $500 against the Nova Scotia government for her expulsion from the house of assembly by the chief messenger last winter. She sued for $10,000. Miss Hubert is about 70 years old, and has for many years been pressing a claim against the government for property in Cape Breton which she says was wrongfully taken from her.
