BAPTISTS DEFER ACTION ON CANADIAN UNION FOR A YEAR

The Vote Stood 69 to 68, After a Warm Debate, in Which Hon. Geo. E. Foster Strongly Advocated Union—Foreign Mission Work Progressing—Convention Closed Last Night—373 Ministers in Attendance

WOLFVILLE, N. S., Aug. 27.—At a late session on Monday night the home mission report for New Brunswick was adopted without discussion.

On Tuesday morning the first order of business was the report on Baptist Union of Canada. Considerable difference of opinion developed. Rev. E. J. Grant was of the opinion that it would be unwise to vote for organic union at the present time. He believed in co-opcrative union.

Dr. Brown of Ontario did not come as a special advocate for union. He referred to the success that had attended the Canadian union of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Episcopalian bodies as an example of what union will accomplish. He referred to the national consciousness that had sprung up during the past few years. The call for union comes primarily from India and the northwest.

Dr. Norton of Ontario claimed that union would enable the Baptists of Canada to speak immediately and forcibly upon great public issues. It would strengthen the appeal on behalf of every denominational enterprise by giving it a national status and outlook. The Baptists of the provinces would have to face the issue of giving up the foreign mission boards.

Rev. C. P. Freeman was the next speaker. He claimed there were 1,000 places in the Northwest where Baptists ought to enter.

Hon. Geo. E. Foster introduced the following resolution: "Resolved, that this convention heartily affirms its belief in the principle of organic union in Canada, and to that end forthwith proceed to take up section by section the report of the committee on the basis of union."

Mr. Foster said he believed that if the convention was in favor of the principle of union, they should launch out and he believed the plan of organization would take care of itself. He appealed for union by illustration drawn from confederation. He said the same argument that had been brought against confederation that he had heard here today. It was a case of history repeating itself.

Dr. Cohoon was afraid that union would have a disastrous effect upon the convention. He favored a union for publishing Baptist literature.

Rev. R. J. Colpitts said he was a representative of the man who was on the fence. He was in favor of union, but believed that action should be deferred for another year in order that they might have time to think it over. He moved as an amendment the following resolution: "That this convention would affirm the principle of organic union of Canadian Baptists, but would defer the consideration of details until the next convention."

After Revs. D. Price, Dr. McLeod, Principal DeWolfe and Mr. Gullison had spoken on the subject, the amendment was put to defer action until another year, and was carried by a vote of 69 to 68.

At the afternoon session the resignation of Dr. E. M. Saunders from the position of secretary of the ministers' annuity board was accepted.

The report of the S. S. board was adopted.

The reports of the treasurer of denominational funds for N. S., N. B. and P. E. I. were adopted.

The thanks of the convention was tendered Rev. J. W. Manning for his faithful services on these boards.

The rest of the afternoon was spent in listening to the report of the foreign mission board. (See page 6).

T. S. Simms of St. John gave an excellent address, describing conditions in India as he saw them.

Rev. Dr. W. J. Wright, president of the American Christian Association, spoke on the proposed union of the two bodies. He made a magnificent address, showing what might be accomplished in the Christian church of the West in co-operating with the Baptists of the West. On their part they were ready to supply evangelists. They did not wish to enter into competition with the Baptists of the West.

Rev. A. McLean, president of the Foreign Christian Association, was the next speaker. He spoke of his pleasure at being present. He was a Canadian, and he always rejoiced in being under the British flag. He believed there was no question of doctrine keeping us apart. We both believe in regenerate church membership and believe in baptism. Why should we be apart? The speaker made a deep impression on all who heard him.

At eight o'clock in the evening a public missionary meeting was held. Seated on the platform were the following missionaries: Mr. and Mrs. Gullison, Rev. Rufus Sanford, Miss Lottie Sanford, Miss Newcomb, Miss Elliot and Dr. Boggs.

The first speaker was Dr. Boggs who spoke of the India National Missionary Society, the three watchwords of which were India men; India money and Indian management.

Dr. Brown, secretary of the Foreign Missionary board of Ontario and Quebec, spoke in a very interesting way of his eight years' work among the Telegus of India.

Rev. R. E. Gullison expressed his great happiness in going back to India. He was glad to go for three reasons, first because of the great work to be done, second because a great work has already been done, third because of those who are doing the work.

Miss Gullison also expressed her pleasure in returning.

Miss Maude Harrison also rejoiced in going back. Her heart was among the Telegus and she was counting the days.

Miss Ida Newcombe also spoke.

At the close of the platform meeting the committee on resolutions submitted the following, that thanks be given: First to the Wolfville church and choir and to the people of Wolfville. Second, to Rev. S. W. Cummings for the convention sermon and request that a copy of it be published in the Maritime Baptist. Third, that the committee express its deep regret that failing health has made it imperative for Dr. E. M. Saunders and Dr. S. B. Kempton to retire from their positions on the boards of the convention. Fourth, that thanks be given to railways and steamship compunies for courtesies. Fifth, that this convention recognize its obligation to the Maritime Baptist and hereby express its high appreciation of the work it is doing and commend it to the hearty support of all our people and urge our pastors to give it their generous support. That the convention express its very hearty appreciation of Rev. Prof. Keirstead for his very beautiful, tender and inspiring address at the memorial service held in College Hall on Sunday afternoon. An expression of appreciation was also placed on record of the work of Prof. L. W. Sawyer, who has accepted the principalship of Okanagan College at Summerland, B. C.

It was also decided that whereas the Baptist convention of the west and the Disciples have decided upon a basis of local co-operation in their work, we hereby express our gratification that they have found such an issue to be practical and trusting the wisdom and Christian spirit of our brethren wish them Godspeed in their united work. Also resolved that a committee consisting of Bros. E. D. King, K.C., Rev. J. W. Porter, B. H. Eaton, K.C., Rev. G. M. Wilson and Rev. Dr. Crowell be appointed to attend to the legislation necessary to change the name of the Home Missionary Society to the United Baptist Home Mission Society and to provide a form for the due incorporation of united churches and others seeking incorporation under the United Baptist name. It was announced that 373 delegates were in attendance at the convention. The following resolution was carried by the convention: "Resolved that the convention of the United Baptists reaffirm its conviction that the liquor traffic is the greatest curse that rests upon our provinces and that we shall have as soon as possible a law that will as completely as possible prohibit the traffic."

Rev. J. W. Manning was appointed treasurer of Denominational funds for Nova Scotia.

At 12.20 a. m. the convention closed its 62nd annual meeting with prayer by Rev. O. N. Chipman to meet next year at Sussex, N. B.

The foreign mission report at the Baptist convention was submitted by Rev. W. V. Higgins and in part was as follows:

Your Board is pleased to be able to report a remarkable year in the history of our foreign mission work. "In the providence of God we were able to send to the field last autumn the largest party of missionaries ever sent out in any one year by our denomination in these provinces. There were nine the party, and they brought to our band of workers in India a strong re-enforcement. The party sailed from New York at the end of September and landed in India early in November. Mr. and Mrs. Tedford, on arrival in India, were advised to make their residence for the first year at Bobbili, where they could learn the language and render assistance to Mr. Churchill while awaiting for the completion of the mission house in Ravagedda, to which new station they feel especially called. Mr. Hardy, with his bride, proceeded to his old field, and, without delay, took up the work that he had left nine months before, while Mrs. Hardy very bravely began the trying experiences of an Indian housekeeping and the study of the strange tongue. Miss Archibald, who had been seriously missed from the Chicacole work, was warmly welcomed, and she immediately plunged into the busy life with which she was so familiar.

"The present prospect is that there will be at least six in the outgoing party, which is boked to sail from New York in October. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Guillison, Miss Newcombe, Miss Harrison and Mr. Sanford, there will be Miss Cora Elliott, of Clarence, N. S., who goes out as a new worker. It will be remembered that this sister was appointed to our staff a year ago, but was not sent to the field, as she desired to take a special course of training before going out. She spent last winter in the Gordon Training School, Boston. We feel sure that we have secured in Miss Elliott a lady worker of fine promise, who will prove a most valuable addition to our staff in India. It was the hope of your Board that at least two new men could have been ready to go to India this year. It is our deep conviction that two new families should be sent at once, in order that we may hasten to occupy the new fields that have long waited for a missionary. Up to the present we have failed to secure these new workers, and the time is rapidly passing. We suggest that the convention issue a call to the pastors, and churches to unite in more earnest and persistent prayer to the 'Lord of the harvest,' that He send forth more laborers into His harvest. Your Board is pleased to learn that Miss Lottie Sanford has decided to devote her life to work for the Master on the foreign field. She sent in a formal application to the U. W. B. M. Union some months ago, but the matter has not yet come before the Board. We understand that our sister desires to remain a year in this land in order to fit herself more fully for her work.

"It has long been the desire of our Board to have some of its members visit our Mission-field and see the work at first hand. Heretofore this has not been practical. But we rejoice that recently Bro. Simms, who is now the senior member of the Board, found it possible to visit our missions. While on a business trip to China, he stopped in India for a few weeks visiting places of note in the north, and finally reached our own mission in the south, where ten days or more were spent.

"Attention was called to our report last year to the movement in behalf of a Canadian Baptist Union, which would unite all our Baptist church in their missionary operations as well as in other matters. We note that the joint committee which recently met in Montreal, has outlined a basis of union, which is to come before the conventions for final action. We earnestly pray that God may guide us in this important matter.

Appointment of New Secretary

"After it became known that Dr. Manning wished to retire from the work, your Board decided to appoint some man as Field and Corresponding Secretary and made some other arrangements for the work of Treasurer. In making the appointment of Secretary, we have felt that, other things being equal a man who has been upon the foreign field and knows all the details of the work would be the best man to conduct the correspondence of the Board with the field and the churches, and would also be the best man to present the needs of the work to the churches as Field Secretary. This fact is in line with the policy of many other missionary societies. Our choice fell upon Rev. W. V. Higgins as the man whom we wanted for the place, and he was accordingly asked to return to Canada as soon as possible to take up the work here. The fact that his furlough was already overdue, and that in any event he would soon be coming home, confirmed our choice, and made it easier for our brother to consider the call favorably. He accepted the appointment upon the understanding that he was not expected to permanently relinquish his work in India, and that he be free to return to it when he feels that he should do so. In all this your Board heartly concurs. We have made the appointment believing that our brother can, for a time at least, do more for the work in India by laboring here than by laboring there. Our prayer is that God may geatly use him while he lingers among us, and clearly lead as to the length of time that he should be retained in the home department of the work. In view of our brother's long term of service without furlough, your Board asked him to rest as much as possible after Convention. We believe this appointment will receive the hearty sanction of the Convention, and we bespeak for our brother a warm welcome and a noble response on the part of the pastors and churches without whose hearty co-operation his work cannot be the success we desire.

Finances

It will be remembered that last year we asked for $30,000.00 as our requirements for the year now closing. It was more than had even been given to this department of our denominational work. It was not more than ought to be expected from our greatly enlarged constituency. We shall need all that and more for the work of the year upon which we have just entered.

The total amount received from all sources was $27,882.63, including cash in hand at the close of last year, of which there were received from the treasurers of Denominational Funds from Nova Scotia $4,157.33; from New Brunswick, $2,063.00; and from Prince Edward Island $334.62. Under the head of donations there were received $2,814.37; from the Twentieth Century Fund, $248.68; from legacies, $1,225.80; for the support of Rev. J. A. Glendinning and S. C. Freeman, $612.50; and from debenture bonds and Bradshaw, $300.00.

The U. B. W. M. U. has paid into the treasury the handsome sum of $12,875.00, of which amount $2,000.00 was sent to pay the travelling expenses of the large party of missionaries which went from us last October. The receipts from the Bradshaw trusts, Nos. 1 and 2, were $1,022.43.

These are our sources of income. Your Board is grateful to pastors and churches for their continued interest in this great cause.

Our expenditures were $27,546.55, which, deducted from the total receipts, leaves a balance of $336.08 to the credit of the Board. This is better than we feared a few months ago; and we rejoice, yea, and will rejoice, that the good hand of our God has been upon us for good in that income has been equal to the outgo.

AMHERST WELCOMED BRITISH JOURNALISTS

AMHERST, Aug. 28.—The party of English journalists who are touring Canada arrived in Amherst this afternoon on the Ocean Limited. They were met by a large number of representative citizens and then taken on an automobile trip to the different parts of the town. This evening they were entertained at a banquet at the Terrace Hotel, which was presided over by C. A. Lusby, president of the Board of Trade. In a few appropriate remarks Mr. Lusby welcomed them to Amherst.

During the evening addresses were made by George H. Ham of the C. P. R. staff, J. B. Lamkin of the I. C. R. and H. J. Logan, M. P.

Mr. Logan took occasion to point out that farm laborers were in great demand in the provinces. He referred to the important part that Nova Scotia had played in Canada since confederation and made a strong plea for the visiting journalists to do their utmost to send desirable immigrants to these lower provinces.

The banquet was attended by nearly all of the leading citizens of the town, and was a decidad success. The visitors expressed themselves as delighted with the reception that they received and greatly impressed with the wonderful development of Amherst.

AGENT-GENERAL VISITS CLOSE FARM

Mr. Duff-Miller Delighted With Success of Experiment, and Thinks Province Will Benefit

C. A. Duff Miller, the agent general for New Brunswick, visited the Close farm at Nauwigewauk yesterday and expressed great pleasure in the advantages offered there for training young children and placing them in a position to become worthy citizens of Canada.

Mr. Miller made the trip yesterday with Percy Thompson in the latter's motor car, in company with Mrs. Robert Thompson, who takes a great interest in the farm, and Mr. Blair of the Royal Bank.

Mr. Miller first directed the attention of Mrs. Close to New Brunswick, and easily persuaded her that she would find conditions here more closely allied to the old country than in Australia, South Africa or more distant parts of the Dominion, with furthermore the great advantage of being within a week's sail of England. Having the money on hand for the first home from a generous donor, said Mr. Miller, Mrs. Close proceeded to New Brunswick, where she found her expectations much more than realized, not only in regard to the possibilities of obtaining good farms with suitable accommodations for the purpose, but a generous and hearty reception from the members of the government and the people of the province.

The farm has now been established one year, and it has proved Mrs. Close's argument that the money required per capita of the children to be taken care of would only amount to one-fourth of the same actually spent in England to maintain poor children on the rates; and instead of providing them with cold and dreary stone buildings in the heart of a great city with a little asphalt paved playground, she can provide them with a comfortable home farm with 185 acres of beautiful pasture and farm land, bountifully watered with surroundings not to be surpassed in South or North Britain for beauty of hill and dale.

The annual outlay to keep up the farm and the children is well within one-third of what the cost would be for the same number of children in England.

Mrs. Close has as president of the association His Grace the Duke of Argyle, who is ever ready to help in anything calculated to help advance the interests of Canada, which he holds so dear. Mrs. Close has the good will of the agent general of New Brunswick, which he has expressed both personally and by letter.

Continuing, Mr. Miller said the people of New Brunswick cannot advance by their encouragement a better scheme to populate the province with young persons who by attending her excellent school and mixing with others, will become good Canadians. Mr. Miller said that he was convinced that the children would become good citizens through the kindly training they would receive more especially as it commences at such an early period of their existence. Mr. Miller pointed out that there was plenty of new material in the old country which only required such moulding to produce a class of immigrants that is most required in Canada.

Mr. Miller was assured by what he saw yesterday that the children will never forget their good and kindly foster-mother, the province of New Brunswick, to whom Mrs. Close has brought them by her tireless and matchless energy, overcoming, as she did, a great deal of unfounded prejudice, some of which is still existing on the other side of the Atlantic, although rapidly disappearing.

DEATHS

WM. P. ROURKE.

William P. Rourke, widely known as an anti-tobacconist, died at 11 o'clock last night. He was stricken with paralysis while at work at the residence of Mrs. E. C. Skinner, 223 King street. He was conveyed to his home at 322 Princess street, where he passed away. Mr. Rourke was 77 years of age and was a carpenter by trade. He was born in Dublin and came to St. John when he was a young lad. Mr. Rourke was a member of the Orange order, and was respected by all members. He made a crusade against the tobacco habit and organized an anti-tobacco Society. He was remarkably smart for a man of his age, and his cheery disposition won for him the respect of a large number of friends. He is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters. The sons are George, William and Thomas, all in the Western States. Miss Elizabeth Rourke and Mrs. Peter Stirling are the daughters. The funeral will be held tomorrow from the late residence of deceased.

MRS. SAMUEL TIBBITTS.

The sudden death of Mrs. Samuel Tibbitts, Fairville, which took place yesterday morning, deprives Fairville of one of its oldest and most respected residents. Mrs. Tibbitts was a native of England, having been born in the county of Cornwall in 1824. She was thus in her eighty-third year. In the year of the cholera, 1854, she came to this country with her husband and for the remainder of her life, with the exception of three years spent in Carleton, she has lived in Fairville. Her husband died ten years ago. For some time Mrs. Tibbitts had suffered from the infirmities of old age, but her death was unexpected. She was found dead in bed at six o'clock, having expired during the night. Mrs. Tibbitts was the mother of a large family, numbering fifteen in all, thirteen of whom were boys and two girls. Those who survive are John Tibbitts of Boston, Thomas of Boston, Isaac of New York, Mrs. Alexander Cobb of Cincinnati, Mrs. George Cleveland of Bangor, George Tibbits of Fairville, Fred Tibbitt of Boston. The funeral will take place from the residence of her son, Geo. Tibbitts.

MISS JANE MARSHALL.

The death took place of Miss Jane Marshall, daughter of the late Alexander Marshall of Chatham, yesterday at the residence of C. S. Hanington. The funeral will take place at Chatham from the railway station this afternoon on the arrival of the train from St. John.
