The book of this most tedows and disagreeable dis-case. There who have emigrated to that rich and pro-mising portion of our country-men who went out full of hope, and confident of winning a compe-tion of the invariance of the soil; or who car-ried to the outposts of our settlements the mercan-tile or mechanical experience won in the crowded cities and towns of the elder states, have either re-turned with shutterd constitutions and depressed on a wary life; at late to sink, under soine disease to which they are precise by that terror of the West, the Fever and Ague. Their hopes are blas-ter-hoir business energies destroyed—their El Donado becomes a descri, and the would say— "Ty the Life Medicines, and you will yet antici-prot to sear is broken to the hope. "To these individuals, Mr. Moffat would say— "Ty the Life Medicines, and you will yet antici-proto your most sanguine expectations, for they will certainly restors you to health." There is flat approach, and coundited at every sage. Seldom fut of tiself, irreduces the strength, and impairs the functions of the organs, so that ap-on the manifestation of disease. Nature is unable, unasisted, to resist the introad. The Life Medicines, when taken strictly according to directons will cure it, and give to the weak and strength. A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR

st. Andrews, 21st. March, 1830. U NOTICE.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD' OF HARR, Is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance, and premstarely brings on the ap-paratrice of old age, which causes many to recoil at being uncerted, and sometimes even shun society to avoid the jests and snoets of their acquaintance: the remainder of their lives is generationally spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of pro-perty fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his bair. To avert all these unpleasant circumsfinces, OL-DRIMCE'S BALM OF COLLWIA stops the from sourd. Multication cardinates of the first resp-perty fills the studies are application, and a few bottes roatores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from throm sourf. Numerous certificates of the first res-petability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balan are shown by the proprietors. DRL CLIDDER'S AUL Persons indebided to the late Firm of W. A. H.
