

"A LITTLE CHILD SHALL LEAD THEM."

BY MATTIE R. SPIDELL. It is night. The city clock has solemnly struck the midnight hour. Calmly the pale moon looks down on London's silent homes. Welcome night! Thou art heaven's appointed time of rest. To many a throbbing brain and aching heart dost thou bring forgetfulness and peace.

Tenderly the mother wheeled her cot back from the window, and the child soon fell into a light slumber. The mother, no longer able to restrain her grief, wept silently so as not to disturb her child. And well it was that tears did come to relieve the great grief she bore. While she should have been at rest in this sad hour, whose loving words and tender sympathy could prove a balm to her tried and troubled heart, lay in heavy drunken slumber.

blameless and the husband of ten years." Considering what is expected of her, and the demand is upon her, these needs to be at least, ten of her. I spent several days in a paragonous and a woman who has been so qualified. I thought a minister's wife needed.

old days, who would say to their husbands when they thought of the farm and the boys, and wonder how they could possibly answer the "Maconian cry." "I've never failed, you go, we will get along all right." "You're their memories. They were themselves out as bravely as the martyrs of old died for Jesus. The faithful minister shall shine in glory, but as one star differs from another star in glory, so shall the minister's faithful wife shine brighter than the minister. "She hath done what she could," which is a great deal more than most people appreciate, and more, even than they themselves realize. THADDEUS. Woodstock, N. B.

THE CHILDREN OF A KING. One cold, wet day our city missionary climbed the steps of a house he had never visited before. He had heard of some little ones up in the garret room, and his visit was for them. The steps were very steep and very dark, and the missionary had to climb about a good while to find the handle of the door. He knocked, but there was no answer; so he opened the creaking door and walked in.

THE GIRL AT CHURCH. You ride yourself on your politeness. You count yourself well-mannered, and you would be very indignant if you were told that you were lacking in ordinary politeness. When you are invited out you are careful not only to be prompt, but to be considerate of your hostess. What consideration do you show God when you go to his house? To often you come in late, seat yourself with a little noise, and do not hesitate to turn and twist until you feel that your shirt is arranged exactly right, and you are quite comfortable. Then you give a sigh as you look at the preacher. He is one whose sermons you do not admire, so while he is trying to do his duty you coolly read your prayer book or hymnal, or look around the congregation, and catching the eye of a friend give a shrug of disgust. When the sermon is over, you give vent to a sigh of thankfulness, and you never seem to realize that this had behaviour on your part is bad and behaviour, not only to the clergyman, but to that God whose representative he is.

A Narrow Escape

Took Poison by Mistake. Had Effects Entirely Eliminated by Hood's Sarsaparilla. "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "Gentlemen—In April last, through the effects of a dose of strychnine taken in mistake for another drug, I was laid up in St. John, N. B., for ten days. After this I never seemed to regain my former health, and continually suffered from indigestion and heart palpitation, for which I could get no relief. I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking one bottle, I felt a little better, so continued with the remedy until I had consumed six bottles. I found myself gaining strength and fresh every day, and am now as healthy as I was before taking the poison." Y. V. WAMOLU, representing the Seely Perfumery, 20 Melbourne Avenue, Toronto, Ontario. Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, indigestion.
