were once more settling down, was broken by another charming little dance, given this time by Mrs. C. J. Butcher. There were between thirty and thirty-five guests present, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. I don't know when I saw so many fresh and lovely dresses at one small party. I will try to describe a few of the most noticeable.

Mrs. C. F. Hamilton, looked most charming in a dress of cream colored India silk, trimmed with gold embroidery, gold ornaments, and natural flowers.

Mrs. Joseph Kilmer, wore a dress of pale pink cashmere, with silk draperies, made in a statuesque style, that admirably suited her tall, and stately figure.

Mrs. R. W. Hewson, wore a very beautiful, and fresh looking dress, of cream colored China silk and lace, and except a few natural flowers, she wore no ornament beyond her own fairness.

Mrs. J. J. Taylor looked bewitching in a dress of pale blue cashmere, cut low, and with short sleeves, and I believe the honor of being the belle, was generally conceded to her.

Miss Shaw, of St. John, looked very lovely in cream colored cashmere embroidered in pink silk.

Miss Weldon, wore a piquante little gown, which suited her bright brunette beauty to perfection. It was of old rose cashmere, trimmed with moss green silk.

Miss Harris, wore a very effective dress of black silk gauze, and looked, as she always does, lovely.

The third of our "Three Fair Maids" "Isabel of Ireland," looked like a sweet snow maiden in pure white embroidered muslin.

Miss Moore, of Amherst, who is petite and fair, looked charming in a dress of Geranium colored India silk, cut décolleté and with short sleeves.

Miss Annie Cooke, wore a debutante's dress of cream colored India mull, with ribbons of the same color, and looked very fair and sweet.

Miss Adèle McKean, wore one of the prettiest dresses in the room, it was of maize colored India silk, with black lace draperies, low neck and short sleeves, and proved a most becoming costume to its charming wearer.

I think I remember complaining a few weeks ago, that weddings in town seemed to be things of the past? Well, we have had one very lately, and the congregation of St. George's church which can ill afford to part with any of its young ladies, has been called upon to deliver over one of its maidens to the keeping of a knight from Windsor, N.S., who triumphantly bore his liege lady away by yesterday morning's early train. I refer to Miss Jennie Crowhurst, for a long time one of the teachers in St. George's Sunday-school, and a member of the choir who was married early yesterday morning, to Mr. J. D. McKinnon, of Windsor.

The bride wore a very pretty dress of heliotrope silk, trimmed with cream color; veil and orange blossoms. After partaking of breakfast, at the bride's home, the wedding party drove to the station, and saw the couple off by the eight o'clock train.

Mrs. William Smith, of Sussex, is in town spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Borden.

The many friends of Miss Hallett, formerly of Moncton, but now of Sussex, were very glad to welcome her back again, though for such a brief visit. Miss Hallett spent Saturday and Sunday in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Stevens.

I am sorry to say that Mr. C. B. Record, one of Moncton's oldest and most valued citizens who has been in failing health for some months is not improving, and his condition is such as to cause his friends great anxiety. His son, Mr. E. A. Record, of Boston, and Mrs. Record are expected in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dixon, of Sackville, spent a few days in town last week, visiting Mrs. Weldon.

Mrs. T. V. Cooke, who has been paying a long visit to relatives in the United States, is expected home this week.

The sale of the late Judge Botsford's household furniture and place, which was to have taken place tomorrow, has been postponed till Friday next. It will cause a pang to many Moncton people to see that ever hospitable home dismantled, and the household gods sold to strangers. There are few amongst us who have not partaken at some time or other of Judge and Mrs. Botsford's hospitality, and for many of us the house is filled with pleasant associations. Only last Thursday, strolling up town, I witnessed the felling of the last of the grand old willows dividing the Botsford estate from the Main street, which have been landmarks for years, and as each one shivered and tottered, and finally fell, I almost felt as if I had lost so many old friends.

Dr. A. A. Stockton, of St. John, paid a short visit to Moncton on Saturday.

Mr. H. A. Powell, of Sackville, spent a short time in town on Monday.

Hon. D. L. Hamilton and Attorney General Blair passed through Moncton on Monday.

ST. STEPHEN.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen at the book stores of C. H. Smith & Co. and G. S. Wall.]

MAY 28.—The Queen's birthday was spent very gaily here. The excursion from St. John in the morning, and the fine playing of the 62nd band brought out crowds of citizens, to see the strangers, and enjoy the music. The streets were filled with carriages all day. I saw several handsome carriages, that I had not before seen. A stylish Victoria owned by Mrs. A. E. Niell, of Calais, and an elegant double phaeton belonging to Mrs. Irving Todd, of Milltown, were very noticeable and handsome. In the afternoon, the Trotting Park, where the game of lacrosse was played, was bright with the gay dresses of the ladies, who were loud in their praise of the game, and the beauty and grace of the young men who played. The town was hung with flags, and the noise of cannon and fire crackers filled the air. The day was so delightful that altogether it was the liveliest, jolliest 24th St. Stephen has seen for some years.

Sir Leonard and Lady Tilley, accompanied by their son, Mr. Leonard Tilley, spent Sunday in town, the guests of Mrs. Chipman, Lady Tilley's mother.

Mrs. Henry Graham entertained a small party of her daughters, Miss Alice Graham's, friends, on Saturday evening.

Hon. A. B. Sumner and Mrs. Sumner were in Calais, visiting Dr. A. T. Clarke, during last week.

Letters have been received from Mr. and Mrs. Henry Todd, containing news of their safe arrival in England, and of great improvement in Mr. Todd's health.

Captain Nelson Clarke was in town during the past week.

Mr. John Haley with his family are now occupying his handsome new home in Milltown which he recently purchased from Mr. Charles H. Eaton.

Mr. C. N. Vroom is visiting Hampton for a few days.

Mrs. Thomas Nickerson, of Athens, Georgia, has arrived in Calais where she will visit friends during the summer.

Messrs. Harry McAvity and Vernon McLellan, of St. John, are guests of Mr. C. H. Clarke, during this week.

Miss Eva Laughlin, of New York, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. K. Laughlin.

Mr. John D. Chipman has returned from Boston.

Mrs. Kelly, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Julia Kelly, have returned to their home in Calais, after a winter spent in Washington and other cities.

Mr. Harold Moran spent a few days in town last week.

Mrs. Packard and Mrs. Redcliffe, of Lowell, Mass. are visiting friends in Milltown.

Mrs. W. H. Todd, Mrs. John D. Chipman and Miss Jessie Whitlock left on Monday for Montreal, to attend the convention of the Dominion W. C. T. U.

Mr. Fred E. Murchie has returned from college and will remain in St. Stephen and assist his father in his business during the summer.

There are rumors of weddings early next month. The 11th seems to be a favorite date, for I hear there are no less than three weddings on that day.

Mrs. C. H. Clarke entertained a few young people at her residence last evening.

A number of young people from St. Stephen enjoyed a very jolly dance in Eaton's hall, Calais, on Monday evening.

DORCHESTER.

[Progress is for sale in Dorchester at George M. Fairweather's store.]

MAY 28.—Dorchester people enjoyed the Queen's birthday in the usual way, a flag flying from the Court House, as usual, and all the stores being kept open in the customary manner. There is considered before patriotism invariably in Dorchester. A good many fishing parties spent the day at the various lakes and ponds in the neighborhood, and some fine catches are said to have been made.

Messrs. J. H. Hickman and George Wallace reached home on Wednesday from their sojourn on P. E. Island. They brought some beautiful horse flesh with them, a pair of matched blacks being notably fine.

Edmunds, "the world famous magician," etc., billed the town for three nights last week, announcing that ticketholders would be presented with costly gold watches and many other expensive trifles. On the opening night, a number of silverware (?) articles were given away, serving to attract an immense audience on the next night. But the want was not. Fewer napkin rings and brooches were distributed at all, to a badly sold crowd, who had punished themselves all the evening in listening to the vulgar wit of the troupe, for the sake of the prize drawing that was to follow. On the third evening the company had disappeared, to the disappointment of those who meditated revenge.

Miss Forsyth, of Toronto, who spent last summer in Dorchester with her aunt, Mrs. Joshua Chandler, will return for another visit this summer, and is expected to arrive in June. It is a high compliment to Dorchester that anyone should prefer it to Toronto, and an undesired one it seems to us. Hon. D. L. Hamilton spent Friday in Moncton, and went on Monday to St. John, where he still remains.

Mr. H. R. Emmerson was in St. John on Friday on professional business.

list, succeeded in a few hours last Tuesday in collecting more than $400 toward the re-seating of Trinity church, and a large amount will still be subscribed when more definite arrangements shall have been made. With new seats, a $400 brass pulpit, stage font, and stained windows (for they are to follow) Trinity church, or its interior at least, will be one of the handsomest in the province. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hewson, of Moncton, spent Sunday here, the guests of Mrs. Hewson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Chandler.

Dorchester has been shaken to its foundations by the report that Mr. W. W. Wells has decided to pull up his stakes from our soil, and seek them permanently in Moncton, and the Transcript is authority for the statement that he is furnishing offices in Moncton with that intention. This, if true, is a greater loss to the town than the goal would have been, and a correspondingly greater gain to Moncton. Our population is diminishing rapidly enough without our prominent and prosperous citizens moving away, and leaving behind them a vacuum which will not be so easily filled.

Mr. H. C. Hamilton reached here Friday evening, having come to spend the Queen's birthday, and Sunday following. He returned to Moncton on Monday.

Miss Church, of Westmorland, is in Dorchester, visiting her brother, Dr. Church.

It is easy to find one who took advantage of the fine day on Monday (observed here as a holiday instead of Saturday) to visit the lakes and rivers, by the close acquaintance they made with the mosquitoes.

The tea meeting held at Tusket, in aid of the band, was very well patronized.
