PITTSBURG WINS THIRD GAME

How English GOLF TITLE. Detailed Account of Saturday's Match at Philadelphia, which Resulted in a Win for Miss Campbell.

Philadelphia, Oct. 11.—Miss Dorothy Campbell of North Berwick, Scotland, defeated Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow of Philadelphia, today three up and two down in the final round of the women's national golf championship over the course of the Merion Cricket Club at Haverford.

Both Players of Nerve. Miss Campbell has won all her matches in more or less easy fashion and when in tight places proved to be cool and did not lose her good judgment.

Before the championship match began the three players tied for low score in the qualifying round on the play off. They were Mrs. Caleb F. Fox, Philadelphia, Miss Margaret Curtis, Boston, and Miss Anita Phillips, Springfield, Mass.

The eighth was another half in 5 to bogey 4. Miss Campbell was twice in sand traps and Mrs. Barlow was twice in sand traps and Mrs. Barlow was twice in sand traps.

Miss Campbell won the eleventh in 5 to 7, approximated. She fubbed her second and got bogey in the third but Mrs. Barlow was twice short, got into the ravine and then tipped the cup. Match all square.

Miss Campbell won the thirteenth 4 to 5, against bogey 3, after Mrs. Barlow had driven in the ditch. Campbell 1 up.

Pittsburg Wins From Detroit Stubborn Fight Game

Pirates Score Five Runs in First Inning, But Tigers Respond and Come Within An Ace of Tying the Score—Hans Wagner the Star of the Contest.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 11.—Pittsburg defeated Detroit by the score of 8 to 6 here today in one of the most sensational and fiercely contested games ever played in a world's championship series.

While Crawford starred in the field, his work at the bat was feeble and he missed two excellent chances to swing the tide of victory towards his team. He ended the rally in the seventh inning by a puny pop fly to Abstein with men on bases.

The ground rules brought about a long conference between Umpire O'Loughlin and Johnstone and the members of the National Commission. Then an innovation was made by sending Umpire Klem, who was not scheduled to work today, out along the right field foul line to watch the hits into the crowd and act in an advisory capacity to the other two umpires.

The first inning was a sad spectacle for the local enthusiasts and when it was over, hope of a Detroit victory was nearly dead. Byrne opened by beating out a hit along the third base line and went to third when Leach singled to centre. Clarke sent a grounder to Summers and Byrne was caught between third and home. Summers to Moriarty to Schmidt to Bush. Leachy went to third and Clarke singled to centre. Clarke sent a grounder to Summers and Byrne was caught between third and home.

Pittsburg scored another run in the second, when Leachy singled to left field and Clarke rolled to left field while Bush and Clarke scored. Wagner stole second, went to third on Schmidt's bat and scored. Moriarty drew a base on balls and Abstein singled to centre. Miller scoring when Crawford made the out. Jones batted for Leachy and scored the third run. Moriarty and Tom Jones scored the fourth and fifth runs. Deleahanty opened the inning with a two bagger to centre and Moriarty was safe when Miller fumbled his grounder. Deleahanty went to second, Jones singled to right, scoring Deleahanty and putting Moriarty on second. Schmidt fouled to Byrne and McIntyre, who batted for Leachy, struck out. Bush filled the bases. Bush singled just beyond the reach of Wagner and Moriarty and Tom Jones scored. Jones batted for Leachy and scored the fourth and fifth runs. Deleahanty opened the inning with a two bagger to centre and Moriarty was safe when Miller fumbled his grounder.

position is denied admission and a rejection is deemed snub. D. Jones' rejection is further proof of his unpopularity with the British aristocracy. The complaint against him is that he is over-conscious of his millions and cannot as a parvenu, be tolerated among "gentlemen."

WHERE WOMEN PROPOSE TWELVE MONTHS IN YEAR

In the remote island of New Guinea it is leap year all the time in one important sense. For out there all the proposals of marriage are made by the women. It is considered beneath the dignity of the male inhabitants of New Guinea to even notice a woman, and if they do notice her, they must start an idea of weddings, etc. So when the belle of New Guinea becomes in love she promptly sends a piece of string to the sister of the man she has chosen. If she has no sister she sends it to her mother, or anyhow to some female relative. This because the man and his male relatives are assumed to be above taking any steps toward acquiring a wife. Then the sister says to the man involved: "Brother, I have seen a girl who is in love with you. If inclined to matrimony, the man makes an engagement to meet the enamored lady. When they meet it is alone and they either decide to wed or drop the entire proposition at once. There is no courtship, for the man is now allowed, theoretically at least, to waste any time on a woman—not even enough to allow her to make love to him. The betrothal is announced and the engaged man in New Guinea is branded on the back with charcoal, but the woman's mark of engagement to wed is actually cut into her skin, and is never allowed to completely vanish. If either one decides to break the engagement nothing can be done by the offended party. If the girl decides that after all she sent the little piece of string by mistake the man is apt, however, to catch her someplace alone and beat her. If the man hit the woman her relatives often hunt him up and administer a sound drubbing.

MISS ELKINS MET ABRUZZI WHILE ABROAD

Washington, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, wife of Senator Elkins of West Virginia, and her daughter, Miss Katharine Elkins, have returned to Washington. Since then it has been authoritatively known that during their recent visit abroad Miss Elkins met her former fiancé, the Duke of the Abruzzi, in London. Rumors to this effect have been circulating during the summer, coupled usually with hints that the engagement was to be renewed, but such publications were purely conjectural.

VIOLENT END OF NOTORIOUS COUNTRESS

Berlin, Oct. 11.—Countess von Strachwitz, who is stated induced to marry a man, was naturally prompted to conjecture whether the way may not have been paved for an ultimate renewal of the engagement, even though that has not yet been done.
