LUNCHEON AT CLIFF CLUB.

General McLean gave a luncheon at the Cliff Club yesterday to Mr. J. S. Dennis and to members of the Royal Standard Chapter, I. O. D. E. The guests included Lady Ashburnham, Colonel Guthrie and several members of the Cliff Club. The decorations were of red geraniums and white narcissi. The list of toasts included the King and Mr. Dennis, the guest. Mrs. E. Atherton Smith moved a vote of thanks to General McLean and this was seconded by the Countess of Ashburnham in a graceful speech. Mr. Dennis gave a fine address on women's work and position in the west, voicing his approval of women's suffrage.

Loyalist Chapter, I. O. D. E.

The Loyalist Chapter, I. O. D. E., held their annual meeting in their rooms on Monday evening. A report of the proceeds of the Revue held lately was given, and it was announced that the splendid sum of $1,500 had been made. The following officers were elected:—Regent, Mrs. Hugh Mackay; vice-regent, Miss C. Schofield; 2nd vice-regent, Mrs. Maurice Blizard; secretary, Mrs. Maurice Blizard; treasurer, Miss Gladys Heslin; standard bearer, Mrs. Gordon Sane; echoes secretary, Mrs. W. J. Crosby. A beautiful concert, donated by Mrs. Crosby, is to be held for the benefit of the playgrounds' association.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF CENTENARY CHURCH.

On Monday afternoon the Women's Missionary Society of Centenary Church met in the schoolhouse. Mrs. C. Sanford, the president, was in the chair and led the opening service. The devotional exercises were given by Mrs. Clarke had for their subject, "Christ the Healer," and two appropriate poems were read by Mrs. Horton.

The Watch Tower reports were given by Mrs. Tennant, Mrs. Seely and Miss Seely.

A letter was read from a missionary in Japan, a domestic science teacher in a school in Tokyo. This letter was written on Japanese paper and in Japanese style gave interesting facts about the work there. An enjoyable solo was sung by Miss Bertie Turner accompanied by Eddy Sherwood, on India's Awakening, showing how that land is awakening politically, socially, industrially and religiously. Touching on all these points a paper full of instruction was written.

VALCARTIER CHAPTER I.O.D.E. CONCERT.

Though there were many other attractions a large audience gathered last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Sayre for a drawing room concert given by the Valcartier Chapter, I. O. D. E.

A very delightful programme was carried out by our local talent, including songs by Capt. Pidgeon, Miss Louise Anderson, Miss Ermine Climo, Miss Valde Penton, Mr. Arch. Mason and a quartette including Misses Climo, Brown, Carmichael and Thomson. Piano selections by Miss Dorothy Bayard, Miss Marion Cruikshank; French recitations by Miss Mary White and a violin solo by Mrs. T. Gunn.

The evening was a great success and the audience most appreciative. Supper was served to the performers and members of the Valcartier Chapter.

MR. DENNIS' LECTURE.

Under Auspices of Royal Standard Chapter, I. O. D. E.

"If men had done their share in Canada today as the women have, there would be no need to ask for recruits." Such were the words of the tribute paid by Mr. J. S. Dennis to the women of the Empire and the share they have taken in the war relief work. There was a magnificent audience at the Knights of Columbus hall to hear the lecture delivered by Mr. Dennis under the auspices of the Royal Standard Chapter, I. O. D. E.

On the platform, seated the Countess of Ashburnham, General McLean, Colonel Guthrie and His Worship Mayor Hayes.

After Mrs. Smith had welcomed the assemblage, Captain Pidgeon sang Rule Britannia, D. Arnold Fox accompanied. Later in the evening Capt. Pidgeon sang Glorious England. He was loudly applauded for both songs.

General McLean in introducing Mr. Dennis made a fine appeal for more men to help end the war and fill up the ranks of those who have gone. He spoke of Col. Dennis' right to that title on account of his work in the west, where he was in command of Dennis' Scouts and eloquently pleaded for men to go to the front where they are needed.

Two selections were then played by two of the pipers of the 236th where pipes had been presented to them by citizens of St. John.

Colonel Dennis on rising to speak was greeted with applause. In his opening address he spoke of the magnificent response which the women of the Empire have made. "We men of Canada should thank God for the women and resolve to start out with a fuller determination to do more for their country and be worthy of the sacrifice women have made for the Empire. This was the first time Mr. Dennis had spoken under the auspices of a women's organization and he took this opportunity of expressing his admiration of their efforts and earnest work. He referred to the fact of the meeting taking place in the Knights of Columbus rooms and the unity of purpose which pervaded all Canadians.

After speaking briefly of some of Canada's problems in the days before the war and the era of prosperity followed by a period of unemployment in the west, the conditions of the present prosperity were pointed out and it was shown that the present prosperity is fictitious in a country whose very existence is at stake.

The war has brought to Canada her nationhood, her position as a senior partner in the firm of the British Empire," said Mr. Dennis. "St. John should bend every effort to keep for the Empire their great harbor, the harbor of Canada as the C. P. R. has shown in their opinion by the amount of money they have spent here."

The greatest problem of today is the problem of the returned soldier. When the man who has been risking his life comes home he will say, and he will have a right to say, to the men who stayed at home. "You stayed at home, now it is my turn, make room for me. Did you give to the Patriotic Fund to help my family while I was away? What are you doing now?"

It is proposed to put some of the men on the land, but the percentage of men who will go on the land is a small one and will consist of the farming population who went from the country with a small additional number and every advantage will be offered. Even now demands have come from the trenches to the C. P. R. for land upon which to settle.

Mr. Dennis offers his plan a central camp where soldiers will be kept until suitable employment is found for them. These camps will be maintained by the government, but all provincial and municipal governments have to have their part in this arrangement. A labor survey should also be made and a labor bureau established through which labor could be supplied upon demand.

Mrs. Smith then called upon Mrs. Daniel Mullin, who, in a charming speech, voiced the sentiments of the audience and a labor bureau established through which labor could be supplied upon demand.

Col. Guthrie was then called upon by Mrs. Smith and he heartily endorsed the sentiments of Mr. Dennis and Gen. McLean in regard both to recruiting and to work and sacrifice of the women. The mayor made a few remarks of congratulation to the lecturer. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Mrs. Williams Says Use
Dodd's Kidney Pills.

She Suffered for Two Years, but Three Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills Made Her a New Woman.

Adamsville, Kent Co., N. B. Feb. 6.—(Special).—"I can recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to every woman who suffers." So says Mrs. Williams, a well-known and highly respected lady residing here. Mrs. Williams was a sufferer for two years till she used Dodd's Kidney Pills. She found in them quick relief and complete cure. That is why she is so enthusiastic in her praise of them.

"My trouble started with a cold," Mrs. Williams states. "I never seemed to get over the effects of it. I had cramps in my muscles and my joints were stiff. There were dark circles under my eyes which were puffed and swollen. I had a bitter taste in my mouth and I suffered from severe headaches."

"I felt heavy and sleepy after meals and had attacks of neuralgia. Heart flutterings and rheumatism were soon added to my troubles. I took just three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills. I cannot be too glad that I did so."

Every one of Mrs. Williams' symptoms was a symptom of kidney trouble. That is why Dodd's Kidney Pills cured her.

OPERA HOUSE.

A scene of transformation has been effected in the Opera House and Saturday of this week comes visitors will be more than surprised to see what has taken place there. Workmen have been busy since Jan. 27 working both day and night. Last evening I was permitted to view the progress made so far and to tell what I saw.

Well, the whole interior has been so torn up and changed that it is hard to know where to begin to describe it. I think the first thing which impressed me as I stepped upon it was the fine new hardwood floor. The side boxes have been removed and a whole slanting floor put in. Next I realized the beauty of the new curtain. It is of a soft shade of green, edged with a fringe of gold tassels. In the centre is an oval with a scene of local beauty, a view of the Martello Tower. The drop is of the same shade of green with ornaments of gold fringed with tassels. The smiling maiden of former days has walked down her roadway and disappeared.

The whole color scheme is of terra cotta but not the very bright shade, remember, and a restful green. All extra ornamentation has been eliminated and the browns of the old work tones in very well with the other colors. The electric light shades are particularly lovely and so arranged that they can burn all through the performance. All the scenery is new also and in fact the whole Opera House has been renovated. J. M. Franklin, who has renovated the way the work has been done said: "I felt St. John could do it in the short time and they have done it well."

Saturday the house will open with a bill which Mr. Franklin thinks will give every satisfaction.

Mr. McKay has been superintending the arrangements these days and the result justifies all the efforts. The work was done by the following local men:

Scenic painting by J. T. Brennan. General contractor and floor laying, Wm. Munro and Son. Plumbing and heating, W. J. Crawford & Co.

Painting and decorating, A. G. Staples and Wm. Vincent. Electrical work, Jones Electric Co.

Mr. W. H. Golding, manager of the Imperial Theatre, returned from the States. While there Mr. Golding booked the super-Vitaphone serial, The Secret Kingdom, featuring Charles Richman and Dorothy Kelly.

We have come to know now what Vitaphone means and this is said by all who have seen it to come up to Mr. J. Beaman of Halifax, in the city.

A meeting of the executive of the Motion Picture League of the Maritime Provinces will be held at the Hotel St. John on Saturday. Messrs. R. J. Macdonald, N. Gustavson and G. Metzler, of St. John, and F. Winter of Moncton will attend.

W. H. Golding is the president; S. Hurley the secretary, and F. Spencer a vice-president.

Anna Little Plays Lead With Robert Warwick

An engagement of unusual interest to all exhibitors is that of Anna Little, the former American and Universal star, to play opposite Robert Warwick in the Selznick-Pictures' stirring novel, "The Court of St. Simon."

Although only on the screen four years, Miss Little numbers her followers by the millions and has achieved a reputation as one of the prettiest and most talented of the younger leading women of the screen.

Miss Little is a typical product of California's balmy climate although many of her early years were spent in Chicago. Four years ago she travelled to the coast with a traveling opera stock company and visited the studios of Hollywood. It happened that Thomas Ince was looking for a girl whose type of beauty would lend itself to the presentation of a lovely Indian maiden and Miss Little is passing through the noted director's offices attracted attention.

For the next year she played leading roles in Ince's famous Indian productions after which she played the leads in other western pictures under the direction of Charles Giblyn, now producing Clara Kimball Young features for Selznick-Pictures.

Miss Little's next engagement was in the Universal's serial, "The Black Box," after which she starred for the American company in a number of western features as "Immediate Leo" and "Land of Lizards."

Harry Rapf, president of the Robert Warwick Film Corporation, was attracted by Miss Little's work on the screen and engaged her by telegram to play the role of the French "Apache" girl in "The Court of St. Simon." It is Miss Little's first picture in the east and although she finds the indoor studio work rather irksome, she expresses herself as "delighted" with New York and is ambitious to remain here and become a star for one of the big east producing companies. Her work in "The Court of St. Simon" has so delighted Messrs. Warwick, Rapf and Selznick that it is more than possible that Miss Little will find her ambitious realised sooner than she expects.

The Fat Man's Burden.

By Hughie Mack
(Hughie Mack of Vitaphone appears in short length pictures released through General Film Service.)
Copyrighted, 1916, by General Film (Inc.)

Fat is like a love affair. It's funny to everyone except the man who's in it; and to him it's a darn serious affair.

It reminds me of a story that O. Henry, I believe it was, wrote, about two girls. Both of them were fat; but one had the soul of a fat girl, and was happy and comfortable in her fatness; the other had the soul of a slender, beautiful girl, and to her, fat was a curse and a lifelong tragedy.

Upon that basis, I believe that all fat people may be divided into two classes; those who have fat souls, and those who have slender ones.

For myself, I confess that though I may sound odd coming from a man whose adiposities has a distinct market value, I would give almost anything in the world I possess if I could only be thin again. For I was thin once; not a human skeleton, but thin, nevertheless. That is to say, I didn't tip the scales at a pound over two hundred.

I love to be active, yet I am forced to be slothful. Mentally, I am by nature wide awake; yet I amuse myself because I am continually falling sound asleep, while sitting waist deep in a sofa.

For a scene, I would that I had the wings of a swallow, to fly—and I am forced to trundle along like a moving van. It is funny to look at, yes; but it is not far from a tragedy, after all, to be fat.

No one takes a fat man seriously. Imagine a fat "Hamlet." He would be absurdity to the tenth degree. One always has to get used to Caruso in his tragic parts. To the novice at the opera, nothing is funnier than a fat "Caruso" in his harlequin costume, puffing and strutting across the stage, and ultimately weeping fatly when his bride is false. The average person sympathizes with the bride for being inconstant, and the whole of Paganini loses its power. As "Don Jose," a fat tenor is insufferable. Caruso has gotten so that he sings most of it three quarters turned away from the audience. And imagine me, as Romeo weeping under Juliet's balcony. Yet it was the ambition of my young life to play Romeo.

Well, c'est la vie, as the French say. I wanted to be a tragedian, but Nature cast me for a clown, and I make the best of it.

"In 'A Modern Monte Cristo,' a Pathe Gold Hunter Play featuring Vincent Serrano, little Helen Badgley, the famous 'Thanshouer Kidlet,' comes back to pictures again. The 'Kidlet' has had an enforced vacation of several months. She was 'waiting for her teeth to come,' she says.

Miss Pearl White recommends the movie treatment for neurotic patients. She says that one hour before the cameras, trying to follow the script of an over imaginative writer, will surely work a cure.

Here is Miss Pearl White's elixir of youth: Two heaping spoonfuls of adventure, a large dash of Peril, a goodly portion of Mystery, flavored with Romance.

"A woman's talking capacity is in direct relation to the number of illnesses that her family has had," Glen White, the William Fox actor, contends.

Virginia Pearson, the William Fox star, was talking about the spacious excuses some persons make for coming late to an appointment.

"Reminds me of the young negro lad who didn't want to join the army. 'Strong fellows like you ought to go and fight for their country,' said the recruiting sergeant, trying to induce him to enlist.

"Dat's all right talk to farmers," the boy answered. "Let 'em fight for dey country. But I ain't."

"Why not?" asked the sergeant.

"Ain't got no country. Ah was raised in the city."

ALICE FAIRWEATHER.

DO YOUR EARS RING.

HAVE YOU CATARRH?

A buzzing noise in the head is the beginning of chronic Catarrh. If not checked the result is deafness. A simple remedy that many physicians advise is to slowly inhale Catarrhazone a few times each day. The soothing vapor of Catarrhazone cures Catarrhal condition, and hearing is restored. Head noises, buzzing, noise, throat, nose and lung Catarrh, there is probably no remedy so efficient. The large one dollar outfit lasts two months and is guaranteed to cure; smaller sizes 25c. and 50c., sold everywhere.

DOORKEEPERS' CIRCLE OF THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

The annual meeting of the Doorkeepers' Circle of the King's Daughters was held at the residence of Mrs. Geo. Polly, Riverside last night. The members went to Riverside on the moon train and spent the afternoon sewing for the poor, fourteen finished garments being the result of the afternoon's work. At five o'clock several guests came in for tea and a pleasant social time was spent.

In the evening the annual meeting was held and a fine year's report of many charitable enterprises carried out was given by the secretary, Mrs. A. Pierce Crockett.

Officers for this year were elected as follows: President, Miss Gertie Campbell; vice-president, Mrs. George Polly; secretary, Mrs. Byron Lingley; assistant secretary, Mrs. Frank Lilly; treasurer, Mrs. Max McCarty.

The members returned by the evening train voting it an unusually pleasant annual meeting.

This circle meets every other week and does Red Cross work as well as sewing for the poor.

Horse Racing Today.

The track at Moospath has been cleared and put in good condition for horse racing this afternoon. The big event is a match between Dr. Clarke, owned by L. Dryden, and Pearl Peck, owned by W. J. Alexander, and this race is for $200 aside. In addition to the match, there is a named race with the following horses entered: P. K., Ed. Sprague, Priscilla, A. Kindred, Greenwood Prince, A. Cook, Annie Ross, W. Brinkley. The first heat will be started at 2.30 o'clock.

Miss Mildred Akers, Bridge street, who a short time ago returned from the Dr. Grenfell Mission in Labrador, has been appointed assistant superintendent at the General Public Hospital.

Thomas Peeney, G. T. Peeney and Miss Marie Peeney of Fredericton are in the city.

SYRUP OF FIGS

FOR CROSS, SICK

FEVERISH CHILD

If Little Stomach is Sour,
Liver is Torpid or Bowels Clogged.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see it comes is costed, then give this delicious "Fruit Laxative." Children love it, and it can't cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—It's full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomachache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Pull directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.
