

THE WEATHER.

Toronto, June 10.—Pressure is low over the Pacific States; also in Alberta and the Lower St. Lawrence Valley, and nowhere much above the normal. A few scattered thunderstorms have occurred over Lake Superior and rain has fallen along the British Columbia Coast, otherwise the weather has been fair throughout the Dominion, and very warm in a portion of Ontario.

The meeting of the I. L. A. District Council which was to have been held last evening was postponed until next Thursday evening. Lack of attendance of delegates was the reason for the postponement.

R. constables have been instructed to enforce the law prohibiting people trespassing in any of the yards.

Common Council Met In Committee

Recommended to Council the Purchase of Two Pieces of Fire Apparatus—Cloth for Uniforms.

"We will and we won't" seems to be the game the city council is playing so far as buying of the much needed fire apparatus is concerned. Twice already the committee has passed a recommendation to the council for the purchase of two pieces of aerial truck and a combination engine only to have the matter turned down because of the fact that a unanimous vote is required for a bond issue. At the meeting of the committee yesterday morning the matter was again brought up and a recommendation for the purchase adopted which is likely to meet the same fate when brought before the council.

Great Raid On Lemon Extract

Inspectors Took Intoxicated Man in Custody Who Had Extract in His Pocket, Then Raided Travis Store on Smythe Street and Got Wagon Load.

The inspectors were certainly on the job last night when two men were arrested by inspectors McAlain and Duncan on Water Street and the vicinity of Reed's Point. Inspectors Moore, Saunders and Merryfield were working with results on the Long Wharf district. It was while the three officers were walking on the wharf that they met a man intoxicated and on making a search they found a bottle of lemon extract in one of his pockets. The man asked if they would let him go if he told where he procured the lemon extract and Inspector Saunders said he would. The man then stated that he procured the bottle in the Travis store on the corner of Smythe and North streets. The officers accompanied by the man made their way to the store which they raided about 11.30 o'clock, and while making the raid the man who gave the information made a bolt and ran away. He was followed by Merryfield and was captured on the Long Wharf and placed under arrest, this time to be locked up. The officers made a thorough search of the Travis store and found many bottles of lemon extract behind the shop counter and in the cellar. In fact so much was found that it was found necessary to call the patrol wagon to convey the extract to police headquarters and the wagon was pretty well filled with its load. In all it is estimated by one of the inspectors that somewhere in the vicinity of eight hundred dollars worth of lemon was seized. It could not be learned last night just what form the case will take.

The inspectors were out for business last night. Messrs. Saunders, Moore and Duncan having come to the city to assist McAlain, Merryfield and Kerr.

The Business In New Brunswick

Local Banker Says No Cause for Complaint About Banking Accommodation—Interesting Facts Regarding the Banks.

"Legitimate business in New Brunswick has no cause of complaint about banking accommodation," said a local banker yesterday. "We are not loaning money for speculative purposes, and I don't think any banks here are giving credit to speculators. But the real business man is not being subjected to any restrictions of credit that is going to hurt him. As present we have to make pretty heavy loans to finance lumber operations, but I don't think anybody is being kept short of legitimate credit. In general business, conditions appear to be very good; collections are excellent, and the ordinary wholesaler and retailer does not need much credit."

Enquiries made by The Standard at the Dominion Savings Bank elicited the information that deposits were about the same as last year. Officials of the bank said, however, that the deposits there were only roughly an index of general conditions. The Dominion Savings Bank has no branches in the city like other banks. It pays the same rate of interest on deposits as other banks, but it imposes restrictions that are unknown in other banks. Nobody can deposit more than $1,500 in one year, or have an account of more than $5,000 at the Dominion Savings Bank. Also there are red tape restrictions as to withdrawals which are not known in other banks. In view of the restrictions, the amount of deposits at the Dominion Savings Bank is a sufficient indication that the people of the city have a lot of money they are not in a hurry to use.

"Deposits at the chartered banks are not as great as usual at this time of the year," said the manager of one of the local banks yesterday. "This is not hard to understand. People are still applying on their subscriptions to the Victory loan, and they are more interested in stocks and bonds that they used to be. When they get some money now they invest it in stocks or bonds which pay a higher rate of interest than they would get on saving deposits. This money, of course, helps business, and tends to relieve the demand for credit on the banks."

"What has been the effect of the absorption of banks once more or less provincial in their operations by banks doing a nation-wide business?" asked the reporter.

"I think legitimate local business is getting as good accommodation as ever it did. Possibly in some cases better," said the local banker. "We are not collecting the savings of the east for the benefit of the west as some people profess to believe. One factor we consider is the stable character of business in the Maritime Province. We are bound to do our best for our clients in the east."

"I don't think the average business man in St. John or the province has any real cause of complaint against the banks. What restrictions there are on credit are designed to enforce caution, and prevent speculation; that is all. For essential business operations there is no scarcity of money yet."

Children's Aid Society Meeting

Interesting Reports Received Last Evening—Agent Reports Past Month Quiet So Far as New Cases Were Concerned.

The monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society was held in the board room of the Children's Home last night with the president, A. M. Belding, in the chair. A number of very interesting reports were presented and the usual committees were appointed to take care of the buying in connection with the institution.

The monthly report of the agent, Rev. George Scott, noted among other things that the past month had been a very quiet one so far as new cases were concerned. Thirty-nine visits had been made, forty-two letters and post cards were written. Six children had been taken out of the home by their parents leaving twenty-one now there. One set of adoption papers had been drawn up and signed and are now on file. Two more letters have been received from foster homes in which the wards of the Society were placed.

Both little Cora and a happy Among the communications read was a letter from the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Orphan Children asking the Society to cooperate on getting at the facts in the case of a little girl now living in Boston and supposed to have been adopted here.

ALARM OF FIRE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Small Boy Playing With Matches Set Fire to St. James Street House, Causing Considerable Damage.

An alarm from Box 41 about 4.45 o'clock yesterday afternoon called out the fire department to extinguish a fire in the rear portion on the ground floor of a tenement house on St. James street. The house is owned by the Sterling Realty Co., and the flat occupied by Mrs. McManis, a widow woman with five children.

The blaze was quickly put out, but considerable damage was done to the side of the building. The rear room was somewhat damaged as considerable chopping had to be done to get at the blaze.

The fire said to have been set by a small boy between three and four years old who lives nearby. He was playing with some other children in the yard at the rear of the house and

Reception To Supreme Templar

Hon. David I. Robinson Was Warmly Welcomed Last Evening by Alexandra Temple—Excellent Address Delivered by Visitor.

The reception tendered by Alexandra Temple No. 6 T. of H. and T. to Hon. David I. Robinson, Supreme Templar, last evening proved a grand success, the members and their friends turning out in large numbers to greet the distinguished visitor.

Hon. Mr. Robinson, who is paying an official visit to the New Brunswick jurisdiction, has been over forty years connected with the order and for a number of years has occupied the position of Supreme Templar.

The chair was occupied by Past Grand Templar G. T. G. Blewett. The meeting opened with the National Anthem after which the chairman introduced the guest of the evening.

In introducing Mr. Robinson the chairman told a little story to illustrate the kind of temperance man he had always been. Some forty years ago the citizens of the city of Gloucester, Mass., Mr. Robinson's home city, elected him to the highest civic office they could give him, that of mayor. At the same election the city which had been dry, went wet and Brother Robinson rather than place his name on a document which entitled the holder to sell "liquid damnation" to his fellow men, resigned the high office to which he had been elected and retired to private life.

Hon. Mr. Robinson thanked the audience for the hearty welcome accorded him and expressed his pleasure at being able to once more visit St. John and New Brunswick.

He referred to the unrest and turmoil now prevailing in the world and voiced his belief that out of it all would emerge a better and purer world in God's good time, for he did not believe the sacrifice of the four years of war on European battlefields would be allowed to come to naught.

Dealing more particularly with the temperance cause the speaker expressed his pleasure that the fight had been won in the United States when the Supreme Court had upheld the prohibition Act and made it part of the constitution of his country.

In the fight which had ended in so glorious a victory the Temple of Hon. Robinson had played no mean part and he expressed his pleasure at having won the victory. He also commended a note of warning to the Templars who might be inclined to think their work was all done. There was still a work for Templars and they must continue their activities. For one thing there must be something to take the place of the moon which had been legislated out of business and the Temple could supply that need.

Short addresses were also given by Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, A. E. Logan, B. Eagles, first chief temple of Alexandra Temple and Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts.

Solos by Miss Olive Rankine and R. G. Carson were much enjoyed by those present. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by a committee of Alexandra Temple Auxiliary.

Tonight Hon. Mr. Robinson will attend a meeting of the Grand Temple.

St. Stephen's Corps Wins McLean Torphy

Inspection Last Evening of St. Stephen's and St. Andrew's Was Very Closely Contested—The Standing of All Local Cadet Corps.

As the result of the inspection of the St. Stephen's and St. Andrew's cadet corps which was held on the High School grounds last evening, the St. Stephen's corps have become the proud possessors of the McLean cup for the year 1920. The cup is awarded the corps which won the inspection in the city at each annual inspection. West St. John had won it in an official visit to the New Brunswick jurisdiction, has been over forty years connected with the order and for a number of years has occupied the position of Supreme Templar.

The two corps looked sharp in their Highland uniforms last evening and their drill was quite in keeping with their appearance on parade. To the large number who watched the two corps manoeuvre it seemed very hard to determine which was the more proficient. How nearly equal they were was readily seen by their respective scores which follow:

Ceremonial drill and march past, St. Stephen 10, St. Andrew 5.
Extended order, St. Stephen 6, St. Andrew 5.
Signals, St. Stephen 9, St. Andrew 9.
Physical drill, St. Stephen 9, St. Andrew 10.
Total—St. Stephen 52, St. Andrew 51.

The highest possible score in any drill was ten points, the highest total sixty.

It is perhaps fortunate that the St. Stephen's boys were the winners this year for had the St. Andrew's corps won for the third time they would have become owners of the trophy and thus ended all further competition.

Both corps have reason to be proud of themselves. For general training St. Stephen corps leads the province in the inspection to date, with the Rothery Collegiate the only remaining corps to be inspected.

In physical drill the St. Andrew boys lead all corps. Under Sergeant Major Oliver they have taken up advanced work, known as the trained soldier's table, and were highly complimented by Col. Snow on the way they carried on.

The two corps were under the command of Major Magee and Inspector of Col. Snow and Sergeant Major Oliver, instructor of physical training in the city schools.

The standing of the city cadet corps for the year is as follows:

St. Stephen . . . . . 62
St. Andrew . . . . . 61
