POOR DOCUMENT

The Semi-Weekly Telegraph.

VOL. XXXVIII.

THERE WILL BE HEAVY

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, JUNE 9, 1900.

The Boxers are Becoming Stronger and More Aggressive and the Foreign Powers are Assembling More Troops--No Change in Twenty-four Hours.

London, June 8-The situation in China as measured by abundant unofficial telegrams, continues full of interesting possibilities, but apparently it has not the value of the railway between Tien Tsin and Pekin have been frustrated by the Boxers, who, thousand, strong, hold the line against grown worse druing the last 24 hours, al- the engineer's gangs, attacking the trains though the favorite adjectives of London arriving.

though the layorite adjectives of London and continental commentators are "peril-ouis," "grave," and "dangecous." The naval commanders in Chinese waters have received identical instructions as to received interfuted instructions as to precude, the question of an emergency being left to their discretion. No fear is entertained for the safety of the legations. They number hundreds and the stations are isolated. Concerted action is impossible." London, June 8, 3 a. m.—The executive action is a railway car, which is shunted on a switch at Machadorp station. President Kruger caused the interior of the coach dermany has officially declared her readcording to a despatch to the Morning Post, dated yesterday, but in a very ex-powers, but having no interests outside voluntarily, and the townspeople of Prenow coming indicates that there was umph. "We rejoice that the conflict, now tween Pekin and Tien Tsin since Tues-day, although one miserable half-hearted the end of the war. The burghers are fully determined- to fight to the last. They will never surrender so long as 550 armed men remain in the country. I feel deeply encouraged by the fine work Stepre." State." toria are described as showing consider day, although one miserable half-hearted attempt has been made by Chinese soldiers to reach the capital. The troops were fired upon and the train had to come back. Another station has been burned on the lines." this result will be owing to the despatch from Tien news Tsin, dated yesterday, says: "The Boxers are still raiding and pilof harm The National Zeitung, which expresses Value of a Capital. trol them and prevent an outbreak. Nev-crtheless they began their removal. Afings which flow from a wise and bene-ficient administration of just and equid tis views in similar terms, says it hopes that until the present troubles are over, Russia, Great Britain and Japan w.ll FRENCH PRAISE FOR laging over a wide area. They have wrecked and burned the stations at Long-The correspondent suggested that the The correspondent suggested that the war was over, inasmuch as the capital had been taken British shells struck a train that was loading and the BOTH SIDES. Fong and Langoo. It has been definitely ascertained that Mme. Astier and Messrs. had been taken. "The capital," exclaimed Mr. Kruger, "We pray, for your people's sake, that bury their differences. London, June 8—The Pekin correspond-ent of the Times, telegraphing yesterday, Boers desisted and retired. Former French War Minister Has a Good the blessings of your majesty's reign may long be prolonged." with energy, "what is a capital? It does not consist of any particular collec-tion of bricks and mortar. The capital ed to leave their or Ossent and Cades have been murdered. General Nieh claims to have defeated the save: London, June 7-A special despatch om Shanghai, dated 7.30 p. m. today, tys the Dowager Empress has ordered o protect the railroad at Pekin. A severe fight, it is added, has oc- A severe fight, it is added bela severe removed. Af- A severe fight is prisoners were remov Opinion of Both Briton and Boer. Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Boxers, killing 500.' Paris, June 7-In the Senate today, during the discussion of the bill provid-ing for the formation of a colonial army, General Billot, the former minister of from Shanghai, dated 7.30 p. m. today, says the Dowager Empress has ordered General Neih-Si-Chong, with 3,000 men to protect the railroad at Pekin. ing for the formation of a colonial army, Career Dillect the formation of a colonial army, Speaker, seems to me to be sufficiently explicit, and I have but few observations A severe fight, it is added, has oc-curred with the Boxers whose ranks in-A severe fight, it is added, has oc-curred with the Boxers whose ranks in-clude many soldiers of the other generais commands. When the battle ended 200 dead were left on the field. The despatch goes on to say: "One hundred and eighty British marinee with a machine gun are about General Billot, the former minister of war, eulogized the attitude of Great Bcit-ain, which, he said, at the time her troops were suffering reverses in the Transvaal, supported her generals and which de de de de generals and dred British prisoners were removed. Af-Referring to the reasons why he left ter the government had taken away most Pretoria, Mr. Kruger said: "I" was not so foolish as to be taken prisoner. I provided this means of lo-comotion precisely for the same reason of the stores the Burghers were given a British found was a few hundred bags of coffee and sugar." Transvaal, supported her generals and rendered possible the present victories. At the same time General Billot praised the brave Boers, who with a rife in one hand and a Bible in the other, were ighting for their independence.

 CANADIANS CHAFING UNDER DELAY.
 Object to Confinement in the Hospital as Convalescents and Want to go Home or to Africa.
 Montreal, June 7-The Star's special cable from London says: Already reprint to Africa.
 Montreal, June 7-The Star's special cable from London says: Already reprint to use the solution for the colonial troops now in South Africa to retur via tronghant march through the capital of the Empire. The war office states noth-ing has yet been settled concerning the matter.
 The Emblem of Liberty.
 Mr. Bourassa.
 Mr. "One hundred and eighty British marines, with a machine gun, are about to force a passage from Tien Tsin to Pekin. Altogether about 900 British have been landed from the fleet, a greater num-the officials, orders that the lawless shall as our burghers supply themselves with horses when they take the field. Pekin. Altogether about 500 British have been landed from the fleet, a greater num-ber than have landed from the com-bined vessels of the other powers. This evidence of Great Britain's intention to be unshed and condemns the Chi-Li soldiers for assisting the disturbances. It banks soldiers for assisting the disturbances. It banks soldiers for assisting the disturbances. Nevertheless its character on the whole is nevertheless its character on the whole is nevertheless its character on the whole is be unshed and condemns the Chi-Li soldiers for assisting the disturbances. Nevertheless its character on the whole is the me hade to Perturbate the protocol of the nevertheless is the nevertheles is the neverth take me back to Pretoria. For the pres-ent it enables me to keep away from ''. Cape Town, June 7-It is reported quite unsatisfactory. "The Tsung Li Yamen undertake that assert her position strongly gives great London, June 8-The Daily Express has the following despatch from Shanghai, dated June 7: Pretoria, where I could be of no service and where I should only play into the hands of the enemy." Transvaal from Southampton on Satur-day. Cannot a public notification be issued Money, Wife and Refuge. "They say, Mr. Krugèr," remarked the correspondent, "that you have brought with you gold to the value of  $\pounds 2,000$ ,-"One" of these news in the solary and Natal can the pople against premature re-turn here. They will be delayed at Cape ports and will only increase the numbers supported by charity. It must be a couple of months at least before the bulk Money, Wife and Refuge. MINING TOWN BURNED, ANOTHER CHINESE QUESTION it if he can." "They also say in England, Mr. Kruger, that you contemplate taking refuge on a Dutch man-of-war at Lorenzo Marquez." "That again is a lie," retorted the pres-ident with emphasis. "I know of no Dutch war vessel. I am not contemplat-ing taking refuge anywhere. I shall not need for me to do anything of the kind." The correspondent—"Then, sir, them" "The correspondent—"Then, sir, them" "The correspondent—"Then, sir, them" "The same for the source of the source for the source fo "It is not true," replied the president. "Whatever monetary resources I may Protest Against the Quarran- The Fire Licked it Up Very tine in Force Clean. The Emblem of Liberty. IN SAN FRANCISCO.DRIVEN BY THE WINDDutch man-of-war at Lorenzo Marquez.""That again is a lie," retorted the pres-ident with emphasis. "I know of no-Dutch war vessel. I am not contemplationin taking refuge anywhere. I shall notis taken on the Miners With StartlingBubonic Plague -- Chinese Min-is taken on Disete to the Manner inDutch man-of-war at Lorenzo Marquez.""That again is a lie," retorted the pres-ing taking refuge anywhere. I shall notis taken on the Miners With StartlingBubonic Plague -- Chinese Min-is taken on Disete to the Manner inDutch man-of-war at Lorenzo Marquez.""That again is a lie," retorted the pres-ing taking refuge anywhere. I shall notis taken on the war to deal with what iseave my country. There will be noneed for me to do anything of the kind."The correspondent—"Then, sir, thereis much surprise at your having left Mrs.Kruger behind."Dutch man-of-war at Lorenzo Marquez.""That again is a lie," retorted the pres-to contemplationto anything of the kind."Thirty-two Canadian troopers are nowrecovering from wounds at Shorneliffeto meet contemplationto anything of the kind."The correspondent—"Then, sir, thereis much surprise at your having left Mrs.Kruger—"But why? Mrs.Dutch man-of-war at Lorenzo Marquez.""That again is a lie," retorted the pres-to anything of the kind."The correspondent—"Then, sir, thereis much surprise at your having left Mrs.African affairs still demanded intensewith fried interest.Thirty-two Canadian troopers are nowrecovering from wounds at Shorneliffeto and the absence of comfortwith the good homes they left behind. Thecanadian they wound at Shorneliffeto any relieved them from anxiety, SouthAfrican affairs still demanded intensewither friends in England who would gladlytake t IN SAN FRANCISCO DRIVEN BY THE WIND is floating over the public buildings in that far-famed city. (Cheers.) This happy result is due above all to that fine soldier who has proved himself a great meneral and who on this occasion has, this occasion has, this occasion has, power of England? The British gover ment had sent to South Africa an army with the good homes they left behind in Canada. They contend they should be grant-ted furloughs in order that they might visit their friends in England who would gladly take them in. The authorities at Shorn-cliffe deny there is any lack of necessaries. With regard to delays in granting furloughs the matters rests with the war office, which has not yet decided whether they are to return to the front of will be sent back to Canada. A strong protest from Canada would doubtless lead the war office to overcome its rigid adherence to red the Empire had maintained of him, (Chers.) Lord Roberts is a great leader, of whom each soldier can suy, as the soldiers of Napoleon said at Austerlitz. 'He won battles, not so much by mak-ing use of our weapons as by making use of our legs.' The recent British victor-ies are due to the fine character of the solid qualities of the troops, who under the command of the victorious general have proved themselves ready for every emergency, ready to do everything that this we may, perhaps, remark with par-donable pride that on more that one oc-casion, when the fate of battle was termbling in the scales of destiny, the scales were turned in favor of the Brit scales were turned in favor of the Brit scales were turned in favor of the Brit was proved themselves ready for every emergency, ready to do everything that this we may, perhaps, remark with par-donable pride that on more that one oc-casion, when the fate of battle was scales were turned in favor of the Brit scales were turned in favor of the Brit was proved themselves ready for every emergency, ready to do everything that this we may, perhaps, remark with par-donable pride that on more that one co-casion, when the fate of battle was scales were turned in favor of the Brit this were and the battle was the batt Kruger behind." President Kruger—"But why? Mrs. Kruger is quite safe in Pretoria. She would only be put to personal inconveni-ence here. All communication between us is stopped, of course; but she will awrit w return with calumore and court. Was Also Wiped Cleanly Out-isters Objects to the Manner in Which They Are Doing It. In the Iron Region. fore, so that the people might experience await my return with calmness and courawait my return with calmness and cour-age. She is a brave woman and I am here awaiting further information. We are surrounded by faithful burghers and are quite safe." Washington, June 7-The Chinese min- Duluth, Minn., June 7 .- The entire busiof the day at the state department, but he the town of Virginia on the Mesaba Iron are guite safe." of the day at the state department, but he had no news respecting the Boxer move-ment from his government. He was con-cerned entirely with the unfortunate plight of the Chinese within the quyan-ting lines et San Francisco. He made party is strong enough to apply these liberal principles from which the power Reitz Says Fight. of the Empire sprang. The two republics must be given those rights of self-govern-ment which give life and vigor, as well as contentment and loyalty to the colon-ies. It would be impossible to find an States Secretary Reitz remarked: Hay in criticism of the action of the health officers who are administering the quaran-time. Secretary Hay has received a reply from the governor of California, in answer to of the Chinese minister of discrimination against the Chinese. The governor's answer is an explanation of the grave conditions which confront the state officers in their panied by an intimation that every effort time lines at San Francisco. He made some strong representations to Secretary Hay in criticism of the action of the health "You may depend upon it that the war is not yet over. Guerilla warfare will Cruiser. dash of our Canadian soldiers, who prov-ed that though many years have passed since last they were called upon to take the field against the foe, they are yet worthy of the zears for an arms against the British crown as Mr. Wallace h done. He was only voicing the London, June 8-The Lorenzo Marquez correspondent of the Times, telegraphing vesterday, says: "United States Consul Hollis returned worthy of the races from which they have sprung, and that the blood which today from the Transvaal by a special train. The object of his unexpected visit arouses curiosity. "One hundred Dutch refugees have found accommodations on board the Netherland's cruiser Friesland." Happily, as I said, the end of the war whene controls the state orders in control of the state o We have done plenty of it, but it has done us no good. There is now nothing accommodations on board the Netherland's ment has not directed the reported visit to Pretoria of Mr. Hollis, United States consul at Lorenzo Marquez, and if he has gone into the Transvaal, he has done so without instructions and presumably upon his own private business.
Mr. Hollis is an earnest sympathizer with the Boer cause; in fact it has been necessary to admonish him to be strictly impartial in the discharge of his duties, so it is presumed that his personal sympathies have led him into the Transvaal.
Burying a Canadian.
Toronto, June 7—The Telegram's special cable from London says: "In a special whenever this can be done in safety.
 a two story trame building, was in training a two story traine building was in training a traine at building was in training a tree state and a two provide two trained to two was only patiently built up. The baser of the chief of the trained train the disc a two story frame building, was in ruins ten minutes after the flames reached it. The territory over which the fire travelled left for us to do but to keep on fighting, gone into the Transvaal, he has done so "The authorities are displaying palpably guilty supineness in detting with the Box-ers, and the powers are more and more the base of the powers are more and more and more the base of the powers are more and more the base of the powers that Great Britain stands hand in glove with Japan. Berlin, June 7-The foreign office reavers that Great Britain stands hand in ped for the interview by cables from London.

of the matter. The Vossische Zeitung Pretoria. This, however, does not mean

He Says That He Does Not Intend to Surrender His Army or His Person-The Loss of His Capital, He Says, Amounts to Nothing-No News from the British Side.

London, June 8, 3 a. m.-The executive ned in a barbed wire enclosure of four scribes a pathetic scene witnessed there. dieers of the Transvaal government are acres on the open veldt. officers of the Transvaal government are acres on the open veldt.

According to a despatch from Lorenzo Marquez, dated yesterday, Lord Rob- bearers. All the troops turned out and to be reconstructed some time ago with erts is reported to have intercepted two a view to contingencies that have now trains full leaving the vicinity of Pretoria. Telegrams from the British side purely fictitious. The National Zeitung ayers that Great Britain in the stands hand in the Boer pipe. He looked worried, but his bear-ing was quiet and dignified. He did not make the least objection to being inter-viewed. The correspondent was cquip-banks.

Boers Broke Faith.

ers, and the powers at taking matters into their own hands. The Boxer revolt is spreading and is rapidly changing its character. The Boxers are getting arms, preparing to meet force ith force "Yes," said President Kruger, "it is Some of the Boers are surrendering quite true that the British have occupied

A member of the strathcona horse did, despite every attention skill could provide, in the Green Point hospital. The City Imperial Volunteers, instead of providing a burial party, furnished a squad of pall a two d two Pre-n side ones of the Strathcona Horse.

Hay Steamer on Fire.

Mahn which arrived at that port April the approaching termination of the war in South Africa, was adopted. There is but one opinion on the extraordinary and ridiculous position which Mr. Bour-Sir ( Sir Charles Tupper-"It gives me pleasure to second the address and well deserved the castigation administered to him by Mr. Charlton and ed, desire to offer to your majesty our heart felt congratulations on the ap-proaching termination of the war in London, June 7-Advices from Port Élizabeth, Cape Colony, state that the British steamer Masconoma, Captain Uche mbich exrived at thet port April 30th, from St. John, N. B., via Cape Town, had deck cargo fired. The fire was extinguished and part of cargo jet-ticenced. The yearded in the which we had every the strength of the British En-tionced on the pres-ent occasion by the proud consciousness just been moved by the right hone leader of the House and of the gover When the House met Sir Wilfrid rose ner with the eloquent terms in has moved that address. I do has moved that address. I do and to associate myself in the warmes When the House met Sh that has moved that address: o move the following address: To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, that the war has taken place. It has that the war has taken place. It has Most Gracious Sovereign: "We, your majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Senate and House of Com-mons of Canada, in parliament assemblnever been surpassed by any soverei the world, either in regard to the q of the sovereign or the great events have occurred or the great expans the Empire over which she has been tisoned. The vessel sustained no damage. Fought Before Surrendering. London, June 7-The list of casualties and the source of the

NO. 78.

be a happy, united South Africa, which all races, all creeds, all classes w happily drawing to a close, will result in the removal of those disabilities under and a united and happy population, Majesty the Queen and British arms South Africa have visited that cour never to return to Canada, we feel that The Sacrifice Had Not Been in Vain Sir Charles continuing, pointed to fact that the effective strength of a first contingent under Lt. Col. Otter only 450 today whereas it left our she in the raising of his own splendid He took his seat amidst loud cheers.

Ottawa, June 7-In the House of Com- | We hope and pray that when the en Ottawa, June 7-In the House of Con-mons today, on motion of Sir Wilfrad Laurier, an address to Her Majesty the Queen, congratulating Her Majesty on the approaching termination of the war Sir Chrales Tupper

All of the Members of the Canadian House of Comm

Except Mr. Bourassa Congratulated the Queen on the Approaching Termination of a Righteous War.

VOICE RAISED IN DISSE

ssa took in the debate. 'He stood alone

THERE WAS ONLY ONE

South Afwica, as foreshadowed by the recent successes, culminating in the fall of Pretoria, which have attended the British arms. The feelings of pride and satisfaction with which we hail every for the transmission of the British pire was the confederation of Can That was a measure that was regarded is for the stand of the same but a side of the same and a

) is a line way of the same of such as in

Mr. Bourassa

were unjust and success does not ma them just. Mr. Bourassa went on say that the war would prove to be one ish arms and the victory decided by the dash of our Canadian soldiers, who prov-ed that though many years have

Opinion that Was Held in England.

