QUESTION IV.

What Ministers have died since last Conference ?

ANSWER.

WILLIAM TEMPLE, who was born in London, March 29th, 1790. He was the child of pious parents, and from his earliest days was trained in the way that he should go.

To this fact, under God's blessing, he attributed his preservation from gross offences, and his inclination, while yet a youth, to serve the Lord. His mother's death, which occurred during his fourteenth year, deepened his impressions of eternal things, and stimulated his purpose to lead a godly life; but it was not till four years later that he obtained a knowledge of salvation by the remission of sins. This joyous event took place while he was reading Mr. Charles Wesley's Sermon on "Awake thou that sleepest." The words "Son be of good cheer; thy sins are forgiven thee," were applied with such energy to his soul that he was constrained to praise God for his pardoning mercy. He immediately united with the Methodist church, and under a strong persuasion that the Lord had a special work for him to do, he applied himself diligently to the acquisition of useful knowledge.
