Fraternally submitted,

S. GOUGH, TREASURER.

Nanaimo, B.C., 28th September, 1899.

On motion referred to Finance Committee.

Bro. J. G. Brown presented his report as G.S. of J.T.:

GRAND SUPT. JUVENILES' REPORT.

Victoria,

1898.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of B.C., I.O.G.T.:

1. Your Grand Supt. of Juveniles' Temples, Sis. Jenkins, having removed to another jurisdiction, during the month of April, 1899, the Grand Chief Templar requested me to take over Sister Jenkins' work until the end of the term.

Just before Sis. Jenkins left Victoria she sent me a box of papers and supplies but no statement, money or books, showing the state of her department. By instructions from the G.C.T., I wrote Sister Jenkins at Seattle, asking for a report of her work, and statement of finances, and received a reply stating that the funds on hand amounted to about $7.00, but have not received any money statement or books up to the present time. I have repeatedly written to Sis. Jenkins since assuming charge, but without effect. My report, therefore, will only deal with the work as I found it, and since my appointment.

2. According to Sis. Jenkins' report last Grand Lodge Session there were Five Temples in good standing, viz.; Advance No. 2; True Blue No. 12; Rising Star No. 19; Fidelity No. 25, and Queen Victoria, No. 26. I wrote the Superintendents of these Temples at once, receiving answers from Queen Victoria, Fidelity and Rising Star, and lately from True Blue. Advance No. 2, never responded to my requests for information, and I concluded the Temple had ceased to work. Rising Star, No. 19, had ceased to work, owing to the removal of the Supt., Sis. Savage, who was unable to find a successor.

Queen Victoria Temple, No. 26, is still doing good work under Sis. Newbigging, the Asst. Superintendent. Fidelity Temple, No. 25, is still the banner Temple in B.C., if not in Canada, both for numbers and effectiveness of the work done. Sis. Hall, having been relieved of the charge of Queen Victoria Temple, undertook to organize a Senior Temple, with the result that a strong Temple, with a membership of 28 is now in good working order, bearing the name of Maple Leaf Senior Temple, No. 1—the first of the kind in the Dominion. True Blue Temple, No. 12
