BORROWS often come through the gateway of selfishness and depart through the gateway of sacrifice. Little minds are tamed and subdued by misfortune, but great minds rise above it.

"Best Thing in the World For Delicate Girls"

Mrs. John Bennett, Boggy Creek, Mass., writes: "My little girl had organic nervous trouble, could not sleep, had severe headaches and fainting spells. This went on for three years, and three doctors helped her very little. After reading of what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food had done for others, I got some for her. She is now so well that she is like a different child. She is fourteen years old and looks the picture of health."

"We have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for different members of the family, when recovering from 'flu' and scarlet fever, and it has always helped them."

NIGHTMARE CALLED
(Crowded out last week.)
Jan. 20—We are decidedly on the cold side of the weather man in 1925, but the good roads make teaming and travelling a pleasure.
Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wentzell of Hornby, Ont. have been the guests of Mrs. E. Bartheaux, Mrs. Wentzell's mother, left for Bridgewater, where they will visit Mr. Wentzell's relatives before returning to Ontario. Our school teacher, Mr. Purdy, after spending the holidays in Brookline, Mass., returned to his duties and the school is going on satisfactorily.
Mrs. H. H. Foster visited friends here quite recently.
Mrs. A. B. Bartheaux spent a few days in Tremont last week and attended the reception of her niece, Mrs. George Woodbury.
Miss Marguerite Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Smith of this place and a former teacher in our school. After teaching several years in the west very successfully, she decided to make her home there, and on December 31, 1924, was married to Harold Scheraga of Brathurst, Alberta. Congratulations and good wishes to the happy couple.
Fraser Munroe of Burlington, N. S. preached a very acceptable sermon to the Methodist congregation of this place on Sunday last.

GREENWOOD GLEANINGS
January 22nd—Mr. Everett Nelly lost a valuable horse one day recently. Fortune seems to frown at him as he lost a fine cow a short time ago.
Quite a number have been sick with "Flu" but are improving.
A number of friends attended the shower party given for Miss Olive Marshall on the 19th. A very enjoyable time was spent by all.
Miss Mariel Spinney is spending a few days with her grandmother at Nicholsonville.
Mrs. Irene Potter of So. Fannington is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. H. Nelly.
Miss Zelda Spinney is attending Business College at Halifax.
Conating and skating is proving a very pleasant winter sport for our young people.

New Lamp Burns 94% Air
BEATS ELECTRIC OR GAS

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 36 leading universities and found to be superior to ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. M. Johnson, 246 Craig St., W. Montreal is offering to send a lamp on 10 days FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

Here and There

Up to the end of May, 1924, over 770,000,000 fry of different kinds were distributed throughout Canada from the fish hatcheries operated by the Department of Marine and Fisheries in recent despatch from Ottawa despatch.

A surplus of $363,011 is shown in the annual report of the Vancouver Board of Harbor Commissioners for the year 1923. Receipts totalled $725,886. There was an increase of $413,797 in the value of all exports and imports. The actual value of all freights was $40,693,924.

Among the passengers sailing for England on the Canadian Pacific steamship "Marloch," July 3rd from Montreal was a party of all teachers, who will join the tour of the Overseas Educational League, which this year is covering Great Britain, France and Belgium.

A set of 12 beautiful colored pictorial menu cards illustrative of the history and romance of Canada has just been placed in service by the Canadian Pacific Railway on its crack transcontinental express, the Trans-Canada Limited and the Mountaineer. Especially interesting are four reproducing authentic photographs of prairie Indians, accompanied by descriptive text.

The newspaper production in May this year both for Canadian and United States mills was greater than the previous months. Canadian mills made a new high record, the total for the month being 117,838 tons, compared with a previous high figure of 115,572 tons and their production for the first five months of the year exceeded that of 1923 by 56,087 tons or approximately 11 per cent.

"Canada is the country for the Scotman and I am going to bring every opportunity that Canada can offer, especially in farming, before my compatriots," declared the Rev. William Dunlop, M. A., F. S. A., of Buckhaven, Fifeshire, when in Montreal recently, on a tour of the Dominion investigating agricultural possibilities. "But you are ready in need of more people and we can supply them."

Through the generosity of the British Museum, the Fine Arts School of the City of Quebec has been enriched by the donation of a precious collection of books on art, which contain over 3,000 reproductions of masterpieces. Among historic actors represented are the English of the 14th Century, the Italian of the 15th Century, the man of the 15th Century and the French and Danish of the 18th and 17th Centuries respectively.

NINE SONGS AT UPPER GRANVILLE

The Christmas entertainment recently given by pupils of Chesley School under the direction of Miss Clara E. Armstrong, of Middleton, was pronounced the best ever held at Upper Granville. A very large audience greeted the performers. The room was most attractive with colors and greenery, bells and gaily decorated Christmas trees. The program made up of choruses, duets, solos, drills, monologues, dialogues, pageants, etc. were finely rendered and each of the thirty-six numbers was vigorously applauded. Those taking leading parts in the playlets showed great acting ability, and the one reading by Miss Evelyn Phinney was excellent. The musical numbers were most delightfully given showing great talent in that direction. Mrs. H. E. Phinney was organist. After the last splendid chorus Christmas Bells, Santa arrived and distributed from off the generously filled tree, candy, fruits and peanuts to each scholar.

Miss Armstrong was the recipient of a beautiful Mithras Set. It was moved that Miss Armstrong be given a vote of thanks, which was respectfully accepted. After which God Save the King was sung and all returned home well pleased with their teacher and the way in which she had trained the children. We wish her every success.

HUMOR
Humor is the pensiveness of wit. Humor is the harmony of the heart. Whenever you find humor, you find paths close by its side. True humor is as closely allied to pity as it is abhorrent to derision.—H. Giles.
Man has always humour enough to make merry with what he cannot help.—Goethe.
What an ornament and safeguard is humour! Far better than wit for a fool, and wiser than wit for a genius, and so defends from the insanities.—Walter Scott.

OPTIMISM
As I passed the bridge day, along the city street, I ran into old Bidad Shea, a man I like to meet; we took each other by the hand and shook them with a will and I remarked: "The day is grand, how are things yesterday?" I climbed upon my roof and on one nail my pants were torn, another pierced my hoof, the shingles that I meant to lay, fell on my eldest son and skinned his spinal vertebra; my wife came on the run to see what caused the awful row; she tripped on Baby Ruth and fell on her angelic brow and sprained a wisdom tooth. I hastened down to render aid; the ancient ladder split and dropped me on our Swedish maid who promptly threw a fit. This morn my banker, whom I trust, with visage long and sad, informed me that the bank was bust. I haven't got a scad to purchase provander and cheese for wife and kids of mine, but apart from little things like these, why, everything is fine!

MAKING LIFE SUCCESSFUL
It is not the opportunity to do just what we like that makes life successful but the resolve will to like what we have to do and get out of it the best that is possible. There have been wondrously beautiful lives made out of the seemingly poor material; they are being made all the time and all around us. The good fortune of being able to do as we please is as nothing compared to being able to find pleasure in what we do.

Little Bill

Little Bill is a source of annoyance and anxiety as well as expense to us. This should not be. It is you that should really be responsible for Little Bill. We refer to the Little Bill you forgot to pay. Perhaps when in town you wanted something else and forgot us altogether. Or again you did not want to leave your work, so phoned us and had the work or ad. charged, promising to send the money on first mail. Yet, though you may not have had an account with us, we charged it to oblige you. Remember we charged it to oblige you. Suppose the bill was only $1. If it was not paid in six months we lost 3c in interest. Also it cost us 5c to enter on our books. Now if we have to make out a bill it means another cost of 5c so you see where our profit goes. Some of our accounts are three years old.

We are always ready to oblige our customers, but we want them to do their part. We not only have a right to the money, but we certainly need it. Please do not forget again. Send or bring it to us today. Thank you.
