SASKATCHEWAN

DAVIDSON, Sask., Jan. 9.—Gus is a sturdy son of Sweden, homesteading about twelve miles from town. This winter, looking after the farm of an Ontario man who is away from home, he has the use of a fine pony and two great wolf hounds, and he is having some sport hunting wolves which are quite plentiful in that district.

Now he proudly displays among his many trophies a beautiful wolf skin measuring over six feet from tip to tip, and a little cut on the lower side shows where the animal received the death blow.

The wolf was strong and swift, and the chase was the most exciting of the season. The two dogs found more than a match in their wild brother, and he beat them off again and again. At last he came to bay in a little clump of bushes and defied the dogs.

Gus rode up and took in the situation at a glance. His only weapon was a pocket knife, but he didn't intend to let the wolf escape. Dismounting he left the pony to watch the fight, and opening the back-knife he prepared to take a hand in the game.

The wolf was watching every move of the dogs and gave no heed to the man creeping up behind him. One of the hounds leaped for the shaggy throat, and the wolf jumped to meet him. Just the chance the man was waiting for, and quick as a flash he drove the sharp blade home to the very heart of the wolf. The dogs gave every expression of delight and even the pony showed that he was interested, as Gus threw the heavy body on his back and started for home.

He is having the skin made into a rug for a friend of his in Regina but the story may not go with the rug as Gus is not likely to let it.

PRINCE ALBERT, Jan. 9.—Alphonse Turgeon was unanimously chosen Liberal candidate in the forthcoming election. Mr. Turgeon said it was a great personal sacrifice for him to stand for election, but he was willing to make it for the sake of the Liberal Association, and the country.

Mr. Turgeon is a partner of Mr. Lamont, and is crown prosecutor.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The Daily Mail correspondent at Tehran, in a telegram sent last night, says the Shah of Persia is dead, though no public announcement will be made until tomorrow.

ROSTER, Jan. 9.—Thursday evening's murder continues to be the main topic of discussion in the town. Inspector Penfether, of the R.N.W.M.P., is conducting an investigation. The police are not making very rapid progress.

The girl, Marie Wauzy, now admits being with Michael Kaminsky when he was murdered. She said they were walking together when someone struck Kaminsky from behind. Only one blow was struck, she says, when she ran away. She saw but one man and didn't know him. The police are unable to get much information from her.

Flora Malone, who was walking through the alley, met two men in a hurry. A short distance from them she met the girl, whom she recognized as Marie Wauzy. He couldn't recognize the man again. It is expected that more arrests will follow in the next day or two.

INDIAN TREATY, Jan. 10.—The Royal Grain Commission was in session here yesterday, and some rather sensational evidence was brought out. Several important witnesses were heard. O. J. Godfrey stated, under oath, that in October last an offer had been made to him by an elevator operator to the effect that if he being in charge of the public scales, would make a uniform deduction of 5 per cent from the weight of the grain of farmers passing over the scales, a sum of $100 per month would be guaranteed to the witness during the winter. The witness said that he had refused the offer, and that he had since left the neighborhood. Witness believed that the offer had been made without the knowledge of the company which he represented.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 9.—William Dallas, a boxer artist, who claims Seattle as his home, tried to do the bad-man act with his gun at Ashcroft a day or two ago, with the result that he will spend a few days in jail. He made his way from Vancouver up the C.P.R. to the Caribou gateway town, and then he pulled the weapon. For a time he was the entire fireworks at Ashcroft, but when he measured his strength with Constable Burr it was seen that there must be stronger men remaining in Seattle. Dallas was quickly taken before a magistrate and was quickly convicted. He found Canadian justice so speedy that within a few minutes of his arrest he was well on his way to the prison at Kamloops.

Dallas was in the collection in the little shackhouse at Ashcroft. It will be thirty days before Dallas can see Seattle again.

MANITOBA

WINNIPEG, Jan. 9.—This morning, steamfitters, machinists, boiler-makers and boilerfitters employed by the C. P. R. went out on a strike. The men went to work this morning as usual, between 7 and 8 o'clock, but about thirty minutes afterwards they decided it was too cold to work in the shops, and the men left in a body, declaring that when the shops were heated they would return to work. There was no disturbance of any kind, the strikers leaving quietly after plainly stating their grievances to the officials.

C. P. R. workmen stated that the place was not fit to work in, owing to the intense cold. They all claim they cannot be blamed, and it is hoped that matters will be speedily remedied. C. P. R. officials, interviewed with reference to the report, stated that a considerable number of employees had left the workshops this morning owing to the extreme cold, but that no statement of any difficulty had been made to them.

Morden, Jan. 10.—Judge Locke yesterday sentenced Ernest Clisbey, a young Englishman, to three years in the penitentiary for uttering a cheque which he knew to be a forgery.

A youth named Thomas Dickens was found guilty of stealing fourteen dollars and appropriating articles not belonging to him, and was remanded for sentence.

All the roads leading to the town are blocked by the heavy snow, and the farmers are having great difficulty in coming in for supplies. The C.P.R. train on the branch was snowed up near here, and was compelled to put back to town.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 10.—The Winnipeg Telegram has been dropped tonight in the snow. The League of Nations, which was the subject of the article, was the subject of the article.

KENORA, Jan. 11.—John Stannard, a French Canadian, was shot and killed by a man named Wm. Roughley, got into an altercation this afternoon in the Ottawa House, and during the fight Stannard was shot and killed.

PRINCE ALBERT, Jan. 11.—Jan. 11.—Morton, of Shellbrook, dropped dead this afternoon in the Queen's Hotel. He had been in the city on business, and was in a chair in the sitting-room, when he suddenly fell forward and expired. Apoplexy was the cause of death. Mr. Morton leaves a widow and large family.

ALBERTA

EDMONTON, Jan. 8.—Col. T. D. Evans, of Winnipeg, today concluded the purchase of some 140 acres of land here to be used for a rifle range and barracks site. The building to be erected as a barracks will cost somewhere in the neighborhood of $100,000, and the maintenance of grounds, etc., will cost about $50,000 annually. It is proposed to establish a permanent quarters here in the near future.

MEDICINE HAT, Jan. 11.—The worst storm of the year has been raging all day at Medicine Hat, and that the blizzard extends as far east as Saskatchewan is evidenced by the fact that no trains have been running from that direction for the past sixteen hours. The west end of the Crow's Nest line is in bad shape.

The situation in regard to the company had not changed on hand to do the transportation of the cattle and horses in the vicinity of Frank's stalled, and the trains sent to the assistance have also become blocked.

ONTARIO

St. Thomas, Jan. 10.—An electrical storm broke over this city this morning. A bolt of lightning struck a flag pole on the Young Women's Christian Association building, going through the roof.

UNITED STATES

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—Dr. Ernest Laplace, of the staff of the Medico Chirurgical hospital, today performed a remarkable operation upon Richard Wiggins, who was crushed between a wagon and a gate. His back was broken in two places, causing paralysis. The operation consisted in removing fifteen particles of splintered bone which pressed against the spinal cord. It is proposed to insert in the vertebral structure a number of silver plates to take the place of the fractured and splintered vertebrae.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 8.—Delayed reports from Auzas, State of Veracruz, where rioting has attended a strike of textile workers, indicate that trouble is now in full control. To gain the upper hand it was necessary for the troops to fire on the rioters. Thirty persons are reported to be dead and eighty injured.

BOONE, Ia., Jan. 9.—After running wild for several miles at a high speed with the engine out of control, by the blowing out of a "stud" in its boiler, the Chicago & Northwestern fast mail No. 10, was barely saved from destruction near here last night by the heroism of Engineer Louis Shull. Shull was driven from his cab by the scalding vapor and boiling water, and realizing that he couldn't reach the throttle, he climbed over the tender to the express car and hammered on the door. The express messenger, fearing robbers, refused him admission at first, but when he finally opened the door, he aimed two revolvers at Shull's head. The engineer, bleeding and exhausted, refused himself into the car, and with his remaining strength pulled the rope connecting the air brake and stopped the train.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Although she stole five stories and struck on the stone sidewalk, Lena Kopp, five years old, escaped with a few slight contusions. The child lives on the top floor of a five-story tenement house. She was playing in the front room, when her mother missed her, and, looking out of the window, saw her daughter lying on the sidewalk. Her injuries were trivial.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Dr. Julius A. Gottlieb, with an office in 100th St., was arrested on the charge of having sent an inflexible machine to his father-in-law, Morris Gluckman, a retired broker. The machine, which Inspector Wolf of the Bureau of Combustibles, says was made by an expert, failed to explode when operated by one of Gluckman's daughters, because the battery "was weak." The machine was sent by express on New Year's Day. Gottlieb is said to have acknowledged to the police that he sent the machine, but only as a joke. Gluckman says Gottlieb has threatened him and his family for years past.

FOREIGN

PARIS, Jan. 11.—Count Leo Tolstol has written letters to Paul Sabatier, apropos of the latter's recent book on the Disestablishment of the Church in France, in which the famous Russian author predicts the possible reduction of all the Christian countries of the west to a state of vassalage to the Japanese and other Oriental peoples. He bases his prediction upon the ground that it is only in the Orient that religion and patriotism are synonymous. Count Tolstol says in part:

"Religion is truth and goodness, the Church falsehood and evil. I tell the Church falsehood and evil, I tell you frankly I cannot agree with those who believe the Church is an organization indispensable to religion."

TOKIO, Jan. 9.—The Official Gazette states that copies of the Japanese Societies organ, Kakumei (Revolution), issued at Berkeley, Cal., have been confiscated, and that its circulation in Japan is prohibited. The paper urged the assassination of the Japanese Emperor and President Roosevelt.

MURDERER'S LAST DAYS.—Maori Is on the Verge of Utter Exhaustion.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 11.—With absolutely no hope of a commutation of the death sentence, Salvatore Maori, the Italian now confined in the provincial jail, awaits the fatal morning of Tuesday, Jan. 15, when he will know how it feels to drop from a gibbet.

The official notification that the law must take its course in the case of the condemned man, was received this week from Ottawa by Sheriff Inkster. Preparations have been commenced in the erection of the scaffold for the execution of the condemned man, which was to be used for the execution of the two Gallian murderers, Wasyl Gusevsk and Simon Crunk on the morning of Saturday, May 27, 1899.

J. H. Radcliffe, who has practically been the official hangman in Canada for over twenty years, has refused to pull the fatal lever and Governor Lindsay will choose another man to do the gruesome task. The scaffold will be located in the agitation formed by the two wings of the gallows to the door. It is enclosed on three sides, the fourth being open toward the jail door through which the prisoner will be marched.

Almost on the verge of utter exhaustion, Maori himself is now awaiting the execution of his crime, and as the fatal morning approaches his condition seems to become more serious.

Rev. Father Kunkle, assistant to Rev. Father Cordes, of St. Joseph's parish, visited the prisoner yesterday afternoon when the latter stated that he had resigned himself to his fate. He was not directly informed that his chance for life was hopeless, but when the priest begged of him to make his peace with God, he intuitively understood the fate that was awaiting him. In a half reclining posture on his prison couch he repeatedly offered up brief prayers in muttered Italian.

Once in speaking to the priest he murmured in his native tongue: "I cannot understand that I killed one of my friends; I can't remember anything about it."

Unable to read or write the condemned man seemed devoid of anything to distract his attention and the nervous future look in his eyes and the frightened expression of his countenance showed with what awful significance his position forced itself upon him. Just before darkness crept down upon the cell his brother said a brief visit and in the presence of the guard was allowed to speak a few words in English. The interview lasted only two or three minutes. Once Maori made reference to his wife and children, a boy and a girl, the latter of whom has been born since his arrival in Canada, and all of whom are now residing in California, in Southern Italy.

The condemned man is said to have arrived in Canada some eighteen months ago, and during that time has been employed as a laborer. He is said to be the first Italian ever sentenced to death in America on wholly Italian evidence.

AGITATION HURTS RAILROAD BUILDING

Unreasonable Opposition Makes Capital Timid, Says J. J. Hill, in a Newspaper Article.

Unreasonable and unintelligent agitation against all corporate property, especially against railroad corporations, is a reason assigned by James J. Hill in the Brooklyn Eagle as a reason why railroad building has been reduced to 2 per cent increase over the previous year.

"Capital is timid," says Mr. Hill. "Men do not want to put their money or more money than they have already in the enterprises that are condemned or opposed."

After Mr. Hill had repeated the substance of what he said on the subject at the St. Paul people's hearing on why railroad building has been reduced to 2 per cent increase over the previous year.
