

Q. On religion, and on his mission with reference to the North-West Territories ?—
A. I have never spoken to him on either.

Q. Mr. OSLER.—We may, Your Honor, be able to shorten our evidence in reply, if it would be convenient to adjourn now (Five P. M.) It is impossible to close the case to night, and it would be a matter of convenience if your Honor would adjourn now.

Mr. Lemieux. We agree if your Honor consents to it. We don't want to be responsible.

Court here adjourned till 10 A. M.

Regina, Friday and Saturday, July the 31st. and August 1st. 1885.

CAPTAIN HOLMES YOUNG, (recalled) examined by Mr. Robinson.

Q. We have heard from you as to the part you took in this rebellion and I need not go over that again. The prisoner was in your charge for a certain time ?—A. Yes.

Q. When was he given in your charge ?—A. On the evening of the 15th may.

Q. By whom ?—A. By Major-General Middleton, commanding the forces.

Q. What were your instructions ? what were you to do with him ?—A. I was responsible for the prisoner to hold him. On sunday afternoon I received instruction to leave with him for Regina.

Q. Was it on sunday afternoon that he was given into your charge ?—A. He was given into my charge on friday and remained in my charge till sunday, when I received the order I have mentioned. We left on monday at eleven and thirty minutes.

Q. When did you deliver him out of your charge ?—A. I delivered him here on the 23rd of May.

Q. From the time he first came under your charge till the 23rd of May, he was constantly in your charge ?—A. Yes.

Q. Day and night ?—A. Yes.

Q. Had you much conversation with him ?—A. About himself and his conduct and the part he took in the rebellion. We conversed almost constantly and very freely.

Q. Upon what subject ?—A. We conversed on almost every subject connected with the rebellion.

Q. Well then, will you tell us what you think material and of importance in his conversation regarding the rebellion, and his own conduct and the part he took in it ?—A. During the term of eight or nine days that I was living with him entirely there was an immense amount of conversation. I have no notes to help me in speaking and my remarks may be a good deal rambling.

Q. Well, tell us ?—A. He did not speak in reference to Fish Creek, he spoke in reference to Duck Lake, as I said the other day.

Q. Did he speak in reference to his general view and the conduct of the campaign ?—A. In reference to his general view, as to the conduct of the campaign, he expressed himself in this way, that he was not so foolish as to imagine that he could wage war against Canada and Great Britain. But he hoped by the first success to compel the Canadian Government to consider the situation or accede to his demands. He placed it in this way, he hoped to surround and capture Major Crozier's forces and with them as hostages to compel the Canadian Government to consider the situation, but they failed in that.

Q. Did he say how he failed to capture Crozier ?—A. A battle occurred and the
