

The Missionary Outlook

"The Field is" "The World" "is my Parish."

A Monthly Advocate, Record and Review.

VOL. XIII.—No. 10.]

OCTOBER, 1893.

[NEW SERIES.

Field Notes.

THE Annual Report is in a forward state, and will be issued almost immediately after the rising of the General Board. Over 17,000 copies are published, and it takes time to get all these packed and shipped

2. How a Poor Mission may become Independent.
3. Giving to the Lord.
4. Brother Brown and His Gifts.
5. Campaign Series for 1893-94. This is a reprint of the articles that appeared in the OUTLOOK and Guardian.

WE have been favored with calls recently from Revs. Leo. Gaetz, John McDougall and D. Jennings. The

THE KANAZAWA MISSION BUILDING, JAPAN.

to their destination. However, it is hoped that most of them will be in time for missionary meetings.

WE have a number of Missionary Tracts on hand suitable for distribution in advance of missionary meetings. These are supplied free in such quantities as brethren may need, and can make good use of. The following is a list of Tracts now ready :

1. Information for the People. Facts and figures concerning our own missions.

former is enthusiastic about our great North-West, and the latter two are equally enthusiastic about the mission work among the Indians. We wish for all of them length of days and plenty to do.

BROS. SAUNBY and CASSIDY, from Japan, and Bro. D. Jennings, from the Pacific Coast, will be available for work at missionary anniversaries during the season. Many applications have been received, and as soon as the work of the General Board is over a