

HUMOUR

Fly on the Wall

I was walking along the walkway beside the Business building which overlooks the courtyard between Business and the Tory building when I was stopped by two lost students. One of them said to me "Hey where's the Business building?" "Right there" I said, pointing to the big brick building to our left. "Where," said the other, "right there?" I looked at him to see if he was okay, and he was, so I said "yea, right there." "Well how do you get in?" said the first. "Did you try the doors?" I asked. "Yea," he said, "but they weren't open." This news surprised me. Classes were in, I didn't know why all the doors would be locked. "At least I couldn't open them," he continued. Ahhhh, I thought, this is different. "Did you try them all?" his friend asked him. "No. You didn't think we had the right building." "Well," I said, "that's Business." "Do you know where B2 is?" one of them asked. I shrugged my shoulders. The only piece of information that I could provide regarding the Business building was its location. I had never had a class there and I did not know where any of the classes were. "No" I said. "No?" he asked. "No," I said. Then he checked with his friend, "B2 eh?" "Yep," said his friend, "B2?" "B2?" I asked. They looked at me as if I was invading their privacy. "Yea" said one of them, "B2?" "Well that's in the basement of Tory" I said. "Tory?" he

Letters to the Editor are encouraged and always welcome.

If you have a comment which would be of interest to the students of the University, please do not hesitate to send it in. All we require is your name, address, and phone number, and student ID if you are a student. We will not print letters missing any of these.

Letters should be no longer than three hundred words.

Mail or deliver your letters to Room 202 SLIB, or drop at any SU information booth.

asked. "Where's that?" "Right there," I said, pointing to my right. "Are you sure?" he asked. "Yep" I said. Then they quickened their pace along the walkway, leaving me behind. I heard one of them say "small campus, eh?" and the other nodded in agreement. Wait until they get to the basement of Tory.

J. Dylan

Witchcraft, Magic, Secret Societies

an interview with some modern day 'witches' coming Thursday

SPORTS EQUIPMENT NEW & USED

HOCKEY
SKIING
RACQUETS
SKATES
BUY, TRADE, CONSIGN
SPORTIN' POST

FAST SERVICE on
SKIS • SKATES • RACQUETS

433-1502
8239 - 104 ST.
OLD STRATHCONA

The Robert and Mary Stanfield Foundation Undergraduate Bilingual Exchange Scholarships in Canadian Studies

Value: $5000.00 plus a $1000.00 allowance

Number: The U of A may nominate one candidate to Ottawa; Ottawa in turn will select two recipients

Field of Study: Canadian Studies as relate to Northern Studies, Plains Area Studies, French Canadian Studies, Native Studies, Politics, History, Foreign Policy, Economics, Urban Studies, Literatures

Conditions: Candidates must be Canadian Citizens. Offered to students currently enrolled in their second or third year of university studies. Preference will be given to those planning to attend a university in another province. The language of study shall be French in the case of English-speaking recipients and English in the case of French-speaking recipients. In addition to superior academic achievement, consideration will be given to extracurricular activities and letters of reference.

Apply: by January 25, 1988. Applications available at the Office of Student Awards, 252 Athabasca Hall

University of Alberta Liberals present the Right Honorable

JOHN TURNER

Thursday January 21
2:30 p.m. Physics 126