 tinction - like all others - which you merit. And I should greatly have liked to have been in the gallery, & heard you make a speech. I hope perhaps you may have time to write me about it - how much I wish you could have come from Mem. Hall to Slady Hill, & that we could have talked instead. There is so much I want to hear of - your life now as Cabinet Minister; its interests;

dear Mr. King.
 Thank you so much for finding time in which to write to me, & your letter was full of very real interest. I had heard from my aunts of your visits to them - it was very nice of you to make time for those. I wonder if you strolled inside of Slady Hill for old affection's & associations sake?
