I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th instant in reference to repairs to the school building purchased by the Department from the Methodist Church at Skidegate.

In reply I beg to say that it is hoped that these repairs will be undertaken and carried to completion as soon as possible.

The closets and woodshed should be erected as soon as possible as the Department desires to make payment ^{out} of the appropriation for the current year.

Your obedient servant,
