

person who is the unmarried wife of a person as described in sub-sections 1, 2 and 3, and now has a child or children dependent upon her, subject to the approval of the Board, after full and absolute investigation only. Where an award is granted, the same shall be governed by the provisions contained in sub-sections 4 and 5 hereof, and shall be deemed beneficiaries with prior claim to Re-establishment over the man, should he still be living. (8) Any persons who are the dependent mother and father of a deceased person as described in sub-sections 1, 2 and 3, shall be qualified as joint beneficiaries, provided always that Financial Aid has not been rendered to widow, child or children of such deceased person as prior beneficiaries, in which case no claim by parent or parents shall lie. If one parent is deceased, the surviving parent, if dependent, shall be deemed sole beneficiary, provided always that Financial Aid has not been rendered to widow, child or children of such deceased person as prior beneficiaries, in which case no claim by sole surviving parent shall lie. (9) Any person or persons who are the dependent sister or sisters, brother or brothers, of a deceased person as described in sub-sections 1, 2 and 3, provided always that Financial Aid has not been rendered to widow, child or children, parent or parents of such deceased person as prior beneficiaries, in which case no claim by sister or sisters, brother or brothers, shall lie. One dependent sister or one dependent brother shall be sole beneficiary when no prior claim exists, but when more than one dependent sister or sisters, brother or brothers, exist, the Financial Aid shall be distributed in equal proportions. Financial Aid for any such beneficiaries in this sub-section who are under the age of 21 years shall be held by an official trustee for such sister or sisters, brother or brothers, until the age of 21 years is reached, when Financial Aid or the proportionate share thereof shall be payable, and in the interim shall bear interest at the rate of 5%, which shall be paid by the official trustee quarterly to the guardian of such beneficiary or beneficiaries for their maintenance and benefit. (10) Any person, male or female, who was a bona-fide citizen of Canada prior to August 4, 1914, and did serve under the Mercantile Marine Flag of any nation upon any vessel engaged in the transportation of Military, Naval or Air Forces, or Munitions of War for Canada, Great Britain or her Allies, within the Sea Danger Zone as defined by the British Admiralty, such service to be defined as from the year in which the applicant first entered the above Sea Danger Zone, and the award to be governed by the Basic Table of Re-establishment for service in France only as a Combatant. In the event of death having occurred to such person whilst engaged in the previously described service, his dependent next-of-kin as described in sub-sections 4, 5 and 8, shall be deemed a qualified applicant in the same measure and by the same rules laid down in such sub-sections. (11) Only one application shall be qualified in respect to Financial Aid for one beneficiary, except in the case of aged or totally dependent parent or parents, and then only at the discretion of the Board. (12) Financial Aid rendered to any person coming within the scope of sub-section 2 shall be reduced by the amount of corresponding grant, which has been or shall be at any future date paid to them by the respective Governments in whose service they were engaged. (13) There shall be no distinction of rank; private and officer shall be equally eligible to qualify for Financial Aid as provided in the Basic Table of Re-establishment. (14) All qualified applicant shall establish their claims to Financial Aid, which in no case will be awarded unless the regulations governing the plan of Re-establishment have been complied with. (15) No person, male or female, who is not resident in Canada, shall be considered a quali-
