
23rd Infantry Brigade

Headquarters—Vancouver.

Brigade Commander—Lieut.-Colonel J. Duff Stuart.

Lieut.-Colonel J. Duff Stuart has been associated with local militia corps for upwards of twenty years. He was formerly in the Seymour Artillery, which was afterwards changed to Infantry, as the 6th D. C. O. R., of which regiment he became Commanding Officer. He was appointed Brigade Commander in 1913. He holds the Officers' Decoration Medal.

Brigade Major—Major H. S. Tobin. Major Tobin went through the South African war in Strathcona's Horse, and holds the Queen's Medal with four clasps.

Brigade Sergeant-Major H. Heritage.

Brigade Quartermaster Sergeant L. A. Elliott.

Brigade Police Sergeant J. Sperring.

Brigade Pay Clerks J. Gilpin, E. S. Jephson.

31st British Columbia Horse

This cavalry regiment was organized in April, 1911, with regimental headquarters at Merritt, B. C. The regiment comprises four squadrons, located respectively at Kamloops, Vancouver, Wallachin and Merritt.

The Commanding Officer is Lieut.-Colonel C. L. Flick, who saw considerable active service in the South African war, and was mentioned in despatches by Gen. Buller. He holds the Queen's Medal with six clasps. He was present at the relief of Ladysmith, and went through the famous actions of Tugela, Spion Kop and Laings Nek.

The Overseas Contingent which has gone forward from this regiment is as follows:

Lieut.-Colonel Flick.

Majors Matthews, H. H., Pragnell, G. S. T., Rothnie, G.

Captains Prower, J. M., Nash, J. F. P., Allen, R. A. S., Paget, R. E., Turner, F. C., D. S. O.

Lieutenants Mandel, E. F., Morris, H. C., Wood, W. W., Tennant, W. G., Grell, N., Tudor, L. P. O., Paget, L. G., Endacott, G. M., Bostock, A. H., Schofield, H. U., Clarke, J. C., Rose, Macpherson, Bowie.

Medical Officer G. H. Tutill, Lieut. A. M. C.

(Lieut.-Colonel Flick's record is above. Major Pragnell went through the South African war, and holds the Queen's Medal with four clasps. Major Rothnie saw the same service and holds the Queen's Medal with three clasps. Captain Nash also saw considerable fighting in South Africa and holds the Queen's Medal with three clasps. Captains Allen and Paget hold the same record and have the Queen's Medal with three clasps. Captain Turner, formerly of the Chester Regiment, has a brilliant record in