

THE

St. John Daily Telegraph

AND MORNING JOURNAL

Is issued every morning from the "TELEGRAPH" Publishing Rooms, 94 Prince Wm. Street. Subscription Price, $5.00 per annum, invariably in advance; or $6.20, and postage paid to any part of the Dominion. This journal circulates in the Maritime Provinces to an extent greater than any of its contemporaries.

The Weekly Telegraph,

(in which is now also embraced the WEEKLY JOURNAL,) has the largest country circulation of any paper in the Dominion, east of Montreal. Price, $1.00 per annum in advance; or $1.20 and Postage Paid.

The Presbyterian Advocate,

(in which the COLONIAL PRESBYTERIAN has been merged,) circulates very generally in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. Price, $1.50 per annum in advance; or $1.70 Postpaid.

The combined circulation of the three papers represents an issue of about 20,000 COPIES PER WEEK!

and offers an advertising medium such as has never before been presented in these Provinces to merchants, manufacturers, and buyers and sellers of all descriptions.

Address,

JOHN LIVINGSTON,
Proprietor.
