

have been submitted to the Waterworks Board for extension of waterworks system. Plan No. 1 proposes an independent fire system from the south branch of the river, at cost of $223,000. Plan No. 2 suggests a second 20-inch main from Springbank, and plan No. 3 is an independent fire system from the north branch of the Thames river, cost $238,000.

WINNIPEG, MAN.—H. P. Grundy intends building a residence on River ave., for which Herbert Matthews has prepared plans.—William Fingland, architect, is this week taking tenders on a store and dwelling on Pembina street.—The congregation of the Swedish Mission, corner of Logan ave. and Ellen street, have decided to build a parsonage.—Foundations are being laid for a warehouse on Young street, near Notre Dame, for Banfield & Co., 3 stories, frame, iron sheeted.—A committee of the City Council has recommended the erection of a boiler house at the waterworks, at cost of $8,500.—St. Peter's church, of which Rev. S. Fea is rector, will be enlarged and improved, at a cost of $7,000.—Frank R. Evans, architect, is taking tenders up to May 11th for erection of a four-roomed brick school at Elm Creek.—A. & W. Melville, architects, want tenders by Thursday, 4th inst., for erection of a five-story brick and stone hotel on corner of Main and Hubert streets for George Wright & Co., and by Saturday, 8th inst., for erection of a 2½ storey frame residence, stone foundation, on Balmoral street for James Grant. Same architects will let contracts this week for a brick veneered residence on Broadway for Dr. R. Mackenzie.—C. J. Brown, City Clerk, will receive tenders up to May 8th for roofing No. 2 fire station.—The congregation of the First Lutheran church are taking steps to install an organ, to cost about $4,000.—The directors of the Winnipeg Children's Aid Society are considering the advisability of erecting a new building to meet the requirements of the society.—J. H. G. Russell, architect, is taking tenders up to May 6th on a block on corner of Sargent and Young streets for A. Johnson.—S. F. & W. A. Peters have taken tenders on three additional stories to the brick warehouse of the Consolidated Plate Glass Co., Fort street.—Darling, Pearson & Over, architects, have taken tenders on a brick residence on Spence street for A. Matheson.—It is stated that the Canadian Northern Railway will extend their line from Rosburn to Kam-sac.—Bulman Bros. will probably erect a store and office building, corner Albert and Bannatyne streets.—Plans prepared by John M. Lyle have been accepted for the Caven Memorial library, to be 160 x 38 feet, 50 ft. tower, white brick, cost $30,000.—H. S. Griffith, architect, is taking tenders up to 5th inst. for frame house on Sherbrooke street for W. H. Woods.—Gordeau & Robbins intend building a large tannery in Lincoln Park, on banks of the Red river.—The Board of shareholders of the Masonic Temple have decided to erect a building at the corner of Ellice ave. and Hargraves street.—Herbert B. Rugh, architect, will receive tenders up to May 6th for construction of cement apartment building on Spence street, near Broadway.—Tenders for a 4-storey brick warehouse, mill construction, on May street, for the Thomas Davidson Manufacturing Co. will be received by J. Woodman up to 6th inst.—Charles Plaxton will build a 3-storey business block on Donald street, near the Clarendon Hotel.

TORONTO, ONT.—A. E. Tomlin, 234 Broadview ave., wants tenders for all trades for erection of store and dwelling.—Plans of two breakwaters to be constructed at Rondeau, Ont., may be seen at the office of H. A. Gray, C. E., Confederation Life Building, this city. Tenders close May 20th.—K. L. Aitken, electrical engineer, has prepared specifications for the two 1000 horse power induction motors and other electrical apparatus for the new high pressure pumping system for this city.—The Canadian Bank of Commerce have completed arrangements to erect a bank and office building on the north-west corner of Spadina ave. and College street, to cost $30,000.—The graduates of Victoria University will hold a meeting shortly to discuss plans for the general extension of the University. Among the things contemplated is a new library building, a men's residence and a gymnasium.—It is understood that the Mail Job Printing Co. have purchased a site in the old Upper Canada College grounds on which to build a large printing establishment.—The trustees of Wesley church, corner Ossington ave. and Dundas street, contemplate erecting a Sunday school building, to cost about $20,000.—The Board of Commissioners of the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway decided, at a meeting held last week, to inaugurate a Government-owned telephone system for the entire length of the road. For the present the telephone line will be built from North Bay to New Liskeard, a distance of 113 miles.—Plans of manhole covers and flap valves required for the Regina sewerage system may be seen at the office of John Galt, C.E., this city. Tenders close May 8.—The Council have given notice of their intention to construct a macadam roadway on Crocker ave., at cost of $1,939, also a number of cement concrete sidewalks.—J. F. Brown, architect, is this week taking tenders on a house on Langley ave.—The Toronto and Hamilton Railway Co. have extended for a month the time for the reception of tenders for the construction of their road from Niagara Falls to this city.—The D. Conboy Carriage Top Manufacturing Co. intend building a new factory on the Esplanade, near Queen street, 400 x 600 ft., 3 stories, cost $60,000.—The Board of Control are asking for tenders up to Tuesday, June 6th, for construction of a tunnel and shafts under Toronto bay between the main pumping station at the foot of John street and Toronto Island.—Building permits have been granted as follows: Board of Education, 3-storey public school, brick, stone, iron, and felt and gravel roof, east side Broadview ave., cost $80,000; Mrs. Barrett, 2-storey and attic brick dwelling, west side Beatrice street, near College, cost $2,500; Phippen Bros., pair 2-storey roughcast dwellings, brick fronts, west side Bolton ave., near Gerrard street, cost $3,000; D. W. Saunders, 2-storey and attic brick dwelling, north-east corner Poplar Plains road and Clarendon ave., cost $8,500; J. Hunt Stanford, three pairs 2 story and attic stone and brick dwellings, west side Markham street, near Herrick, cost $12,000; G. Melhuish, 3-storey brick and stone store and dwelling, north-east corner Yonge and Dundonald streets, cost $7,000; W. E. Redway, 2-storey and attic brick and stone dwelling, north-east corner Smith street and Broadview ave., cost $4,800; C. M. Essery, pair 2 story brick and stone residences, Pembroke street, near Gerrard, cost $9,000; Fred S. Duff, two pairs 2-storey stone and brick dwellings, east side Beatrice street, near College, cost $8,000; Mrs. Jean Grafton, 2½-storey brick and stone dwelling, south-east corner Cottingham street and Rathnally ave., cost $2,800; James Pearson, 2½-storey brick veneered dwelling, west side West ave., near First ave., cost $2,500; Mrs. Jean Grafton, two pairs 2½-storey brick and stone dwellings, south-east corner Cottingham street and Rathnally ave., cost $9,000; J. A. Paterson, 2-storey and attic brick residence, corner St. George and Bernard ave., cost $8,500; R. T. Brown, 3 pair 2-storey brick dwellings, west side Shaw street, near Bloor, cost $12,000; J. V. Hunter, two pair 2-storey stone and brick dwellings, east side Havelock street, near Hepburne, cost $7,000; Parisian Laundry Co., one-storey driving shed and two storey brick stable, north-west corner King and Portland streets, cost $4,000;

- - - MACHINE BANDED WOOD STAVE WATER PIPE - - -

High pressure pipe for Water Works Systems, irrigation power plants, etc. Sizes 2" to 24", half the cost of cast iron. Write for Catalogue.

PACIFIC COAST PIPE CO., LTD. Box 563, Vancouver, B.C.

RAVEN LAKE PORTLAND CEMENT CO.

Limited

16 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO, ONT.

GET OUR PRICES WHEN YOU WANT CEMENT

Long Distance Telephone Main 711