

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted on the cover on the following terms

Six lines and under, first insertion	2s. 6d.
each insertion after	7 1/2
Ten lines and under, first insertion	3s. 4d.
each insertion after	10d.
Above ten lines, per line	4d.
each insertion after	1d.

To subscribers, 25 per cent will be deducted

COMMUNICATIONS, ORDERS & ADVERTISEMENTS, will be thankfully received, and are requested to be directed post-paid, to the editor, LEWIS LUKE MACCULLOH, Post Office, MONTREAL, or left at the Scribbler Office, No. 4 St. Jean Baptiste St. MONTREAL; they may likewise be addressed, post-paid, to Mr. S. H. WILCOCKE, the proprietor, at Rouse's Point, Champlain, N. Y.

ADOLPHUS BOURNE,
ENGRAVER,

St. Charles Baromee-Street, St. Laurent Suburbs, Montreal.
N. B. Brass Coffin and door-plates furnished and engraved at the shortest notice.

DRAWING ACADEMY,

By Mr. W. W. Andrews, at Mr. Andrews' Ladies' Seminary,
NEXT DOOR TO THE CUSTOMHOUSE, PLACE D'ARMES, MONTREAL.
THE Academical hours for gentlemen, extend from 6 o'clock, A. M. to 8 o'clock, P. M. exclusive of the hours devoted to Ladies, who attend on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, from 10 to 12 o'clock.

Terms may be known at the Academy.

WANTED.

A PARTNER, either active or dormant, to embark about one thousand dollars, in an established printing-office, and newspaper, in the northern part of the State of New-York. The concern promises considerable advantage and extension, for which only some additional funds and assistance are necessary. Application to be made to the printer of this paper; or by letter, addressed to L. L. M. Scribbler-Office, Montreal, L.C.