

ment.

above the top of the from one-half to three-inch. Then the contents are "pressed" so that the inserted and the barrel shipment. When this has d if the barrel has been filled and pressed, it will long distances without it.

are packed in boxes, and prescribed that all apples ada for sale in Canada by packed in boxes, of which are the inside dimensions: ches; width, 11½ inches; inches, and containing as sible 2,174 cubic inches, quite different from barrel uch as each apple is placed ately, and sometimes every ped with thin, absorbent are also carefully graded box packing, and only the s are used because very oles are retained at so much ating out of hand. There- is so carefully done that ain size, and packed in a always have exactly the n each box.

es.
and two ends of the box are ut the top and bottom are er wood, so that when the ples is put on it is exactly top of the box at the ends, ntre of the box it "bulges", three-quarters of an inch. he top is nailed on some of distributed to the bottom of l both together hold the y in place without exerting essure to bruise it. are interested in the packing barrels or boxes can get a useful information by writing o Department of Agriculture, Bulletin 216, entitled "Box Apples," and also to the Branch, Department of Agri- tawa, for a circular entitled, Fruit Packages, 1920," and 34, Dairy and Cold Storage r's Series, entitled "Modern Packing Apples and Pears."

Market.

SPECIAL NOTICE

To Regular Subscribers to

The Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine

For the name of each New Subscriber to the Farmer's Advocate that you send, accompanied by the sum of $1.50, to pay the subscription for one year, we will advance the date to which your own subscription is paid.

Six Months Free of Charge

If you send us the names of Two New Subscribers, with the sum of $3.00, pay- ing their subscriptions for one year, we will advance the date to which your own subscription is paid.

One Year Free of Charge

The number of farmers who read and support The Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine is increasing every year, and our old friends who have been read- ing the paper for years, and appreciate the work "The Farmer's Advocate" has done, and is doing for the farmers of the country, steadily send in the names of new readers, and we take this opportunity of thanking them for their support, and we want every reader to take the same interest in the paper. We make the above offer to our subscribers in appreciation of the assistance they have given The Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine in its work, and we want every Canadian farmer to become a subscriber.

Publishing The Farmer's Advocate costs double what it used to do, but you old friends of the paper will agree that in every way it has been better this year than ever before. We have tried to make it so, and no expense has been spared to accomplish that purpose.

WHEN SENDING NEW NAMES, USE THIS COUPON

The Wm. Weld Co., Limited, London, Ontario

Gentlemen:—

Enclosed is..... value $..... to pay for one year's subscription to The Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine for the following new subscribers: Please advance the date on my label..... months in accordance with your advertisement.

Name of Sender.....

Name of New Subscriber.....

Name of New Subscriber.....

Address.....

Address.....