Cloth 5s; Paper 75c. Of all the living writers of English fiction, no one better understands the art of story telling than Wilkie Collins. He has a faculty of coloring the mystery of a plot, exciting terror, pity, curiosity and other passions, such as belong to few, if any of his countrymen. However much they may excel him in other respects—his style, too, is singularly appropriate—less forced and artificial than the average modern novelist.—Boston Transcript.
