

MOTHERS TO BE

Should Read Mrs. Monahan's Letter Published by Her Permission.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, some days I suffered with neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia, I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my housework. My baby when seven months old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."—Mrs. PEARL MONAHAN, Mitchell, Ind.

Good health during maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of how restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

A portable oil stove is a handy thing when it comes to heating an imperfectly warmed bathroom.

If tan shoes are soiled, moisten a cloth, rub it across a piece of pure white soap and clean the shoes.

Lemon juice and cayenne are excellent used in French dressing instead of black pepper and vinegar.

Stale pieces of bread can be put through the meat grinder and added to any muffins you are planning to make.

If a small lump of alum is put into the paste for putting paper on the wall, the mice will never gnaw the paper.

The secret of saving meat is to extend the meat favor by gravies, or combinations of the meat with vegetables.

After roasting a piece of meat which is to be served cold wrap it in cheesecloth white hot. This preserves the flavor.

While the dishes are being washed the silver cleaning bottle can stand on the table and any silver that is dark can be polished.

Long sausage-shaped bags of cotton cloth can be filled with sand and serve to keep the cold out when there are cracks beneath doors and windows.

HE WAS SHORT OF MONEY.

Negro who had an injured head entered a doctor's office. "Hello, Sam! Got cut again, I see." "Yes, sah! I don't got carved up with a razor, doc." "Why don't you keep out of bad company?" said the physician, after he had dressed the wound. "Deed, I'd like to, doc, but I ain't got nuff money to git a divorce.

Minard's Liment Cures Dan-druff.

CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE.

A special constable in a suburb of London relieved his mate at midnight, and, to his astonishment found him in a most honorable condition. Both his eyes were in mourning, his nose was flattered, his mouth was askew, and his clothing showed further testimony of a terrific combat.

"My Gawd!" said the relieving officer of the law "You're in a 'orrible state. You're beaten up sumptin' terrible an' no mistake. Wot 'appened?"

"Yer knows that pretty little widdar as lives down at the end of the street—'usband was killed at Gallipoli?"

"Yes."

"Well, 'e ain't."

SPLENDID GIFT TO DALHOUSIE 'VARSITY.

Senator Wm. Dennis, president of the Halifax Herald Co. has given Dalhousie University $60,000 for the purpose of founding a chair of government and political science in memory of his son, Captain Eric Dennis, who was killed in action. The gift provides also that prizes shall be given and that the student taking the class who stands highest at graduating shall receive a prize of $250 with the Eric Dennis gold medal.

HIS TALE OF WOE

Scotsman, recently arrived, was chatting with a friend over conditions overseas.

The new arrival told feelingly of the terrible toll of war upon the fair land of Scotia, the sad tale of young men killed and maimed, the sufferings of the families left behind.

"Why, mom, we're just plum abstract wi' it all," he concluded.

"And, I suppose, the war has caused the price of provisions to go up in Scotland as well as everywhere else?" commented the questioner with sympathy.

"Aye, mom, ye're richt," agreed the visitor. "Provisions has gone up in price four shillings a bottle the one sort and saxpence quart the 'ither."

TO A HERO.

We may not know how fared your soul before Occasion came to try it by this test

Perchance, it used on lofty wings to soar;

Again it may have dwelt in lowly nest.

We do not know it bygone knightly strain

Impelled you then, or blood of humble clod

Defined the dread adventure to attain

The cross of honor or the peace of God.

We see but this, that when the moment came

You raised on high, then drained, the solemn cup—

The grail of death, that, touched by valor's flame,

The kindled spirit burned the body up.
