

TO PROTECT THE MINERS

Sec. 14.—When in or about any mine... (a) Loss of life or any other personal injury to any person employed in or about the mine occurs by reason of an explosion of gas, powder or other explosive, or of any steam boiler... (b) Loss of life or any serious personal injury to any person employed in or about the mine occurs by reason of any accident whatever, the owner, agent or manager of the mine, shall within twenty-four hours next after the explosion or accident, send notice in writing of the explosion or accident, of the loss of life or personal injury occasioned thereby to the commissioner and to the inspector for the district, and shall specify the nature of the accident, and the number of persons killed or injured, and as soon after as possible, and before the end of each year, a return of facts relating to such accident or explosion in the form given in the schedule, to this ordinance.

Sec. 15.—In any case... (a) Whenever any change occurs in the name of the owner, agent or manager of any mine or in the office of any incorporated company which is the owner of any such mine, or... (b) Where any working is commenced for the purpose of opening any such mine, or... (c) Where any mine is abandoned or the working thereof discontinued, or... (d) Where the working of a mine is recommended after the abandonment or discontinuance for a period not exceeding two months, the owner, agent or manager of such mine shall give notice thereof to the commissioner within two months after such commencement, abandonment, discontinuance, recommencement or change, and if such notice is not given the owner, agent or manager shall be guilty of an offense against this ordinance, provided that this sub-section shall not apply to placer mines.

Sec. 16.—Where any mine is abandoned or the working thereof discontinued, at whatever time such abandonment or discontinuance occurs the owner thereof any other person interested in the mineral of such mine shall cause the top of the shaft and any side entrance from the surface to be and to be kept securely fenced for the prevention of accidents, provided that... (a) Subject to any contract to the contrary the owner of the mine shall, as between himself and any other person interested in the minerals of the mine, be liable to carry into effect this section and to pay the costs incurred by any other person interested in the minerals of the mine in carrying this section into effect; and... (b) Nothing in this section shall exempt any person from any liability under any other ordinance, act, law or otherwise.

Sec. 17.—Every person shall wilfully damage or without proper authority remove or render useless any fence, fencing, casing, lining, guide, means of signalling, signal, cover, chain, flange, horn, brake, indicator, ladder, platform, steam gauge, water gauge, safety valve or other appliance or thing provided for any mine in compliance with this ordinance. Rule 21.—Every person shall observe such directions with respect to working as are given to him with a view to comply with this ordinance or any special rules in force under this ordinance in the mine. Rule 22.—A competent person or persons who shall be appointed for the purpose shall once at least in every twenty-four hours examine the state of the external parts of the machinery and the state of the headgear working places, levels, planes, ropes, chains and other works of the mine which are in actual use and once at least in every week shall examine the state of the shafts by which persons ascend or descend and the guides and conductors therein. Rule 23.—Persons employed in a mine may from time to time appoint two of their number to inspect the mine at their own cost, and the persons so appointed shall be allowed once at least in every month, accompanied if the owner, agent or manager sees fit, by himself or one or more of the officers of the mine to go to every part of the mine and to inspect the shafts, levels, planes, working places, return air-ways, ventilating apparatus, old workings and machinery, and shall be afforded by the owner, agent or manager, and all persons in the mine every facility for the purposes of such inspection, and shall make a true report of the result of such inspection and such report shall be recorded in the book to be kept at the mine for the purpose, and shall be signed by the person who makes the same. Rule 24.—The majority of the workmen at any mine may appoint a person to examine the seat of any accident resulting in the death or injury of any person. (a) Every person who does not comply with or contravenes any of the general rules of this section shall be guilty of an offense against this ordinance, and in the event of any non-compliance with or contravention of such general rules in the case of any mine by any person whomsoever being proved the owner, agent or manager, shall each be guilty of an offense against this ordinance unless he proves that he had taken all reasonable means to prevent such compliance or contravention by publishing and to the best of his power enforcing the said rules and regulations for the working of the mine. (b) The commissioner may from time to time make such additional rules as in his opinion may appear necessary to better secure the safety of persons engaged in or about any mine, and non-compliance with or contravention of any rule so made shall be deemed non-compliance with or contravention of a general rule under this section, provided that rules 6, 13, 15, 16, 18, 22, and 23 shall not apply to placer mines.

(3) Every person other than an agent, owner or manager, who is guilty of an offense against this ordinance shall be liable to a penalty of $50. (4) No prosecution shall be instituted against any owner, agent or manager for an offense against this ordinance except: (a) By the inspector; or (b) With the consent in writing of the commissioner; or (c) By some person appointed by the commissioner; or (d) By some person employed in or about the mine in respect to which the offense was committed appointed in writing to institute such prosecution by not less than ten persons so employed. (5) If it appears that a boy was employed on the representation of his parent or guardian that he was of the age at which his employment would not be a contravention of this ordinance, and under the belief in good faith that he was of such age, the owner, agent or manager, of the mine shall, notwithstanding that the boy was not of such age, be exempt from any penalty in respect to such employment; and the parent or guardian shall for the misrepresentation be deemed guilty of an offense against this ordinance. (6) If any prosecution or other procedure against an owner, agent or manager for an offense against this ordinance such owner, agent or manager shall be discharged if he proved to the satisfaction of the tribunal before which the same is tried that he took all reasonable means to prevent the commission of such offense. (7) Any complaint or suit made or brought in pursuance of this ordinance or made or brought within six months from the time when the matter of such complaint or suit came to the knowledge of the prosecutor. (8) The procedure and other provisions of the criminal code of Canada, 1892, and amendments relating to summary conviction shall apply to every case in which any person commits or is suspected of having committed any offense for which a penalty is provided by this ordinance. (9) Where a penalty is imposed under this ordinance for neglecting to send a notice of any explosion or accident or for any offense against this ordinance which has occasioned loss of life or personal injury, the commissioner may, if he thinks fit, direct such penalty to be paid to or distributed among the persons injured and the relatives of any person whose death has been occasioned by such explosion, accident or offense, or among some of them. Provided, that such person did not in his opinion occasion or contribute to occasion the explosion or accident, and did not commit and were not parties to the commission of the offense. Except as in this ordinance otherwise provided, all penalties imposed in pursuance of this ordinance shall be paid on receipt of the same into the territorial treasury.

Sec. 18.—A ladder permanently used for the ascent and descent of persons into the mine shall not be fixed in a vertical or overhanging position, but shall be inclined at the most convenient angle which the space in which the ladder is fixed allows; and every such ladder shall have substantial platforms at intervals of not more than twenty yards. Rule 19.—If more than twelve persons are ordinarily employed in the mine below ground sufficient accommodation shall be provided above ground near the principal entrance of the mine and not in the engine room or boiler room for enabling the persons employed in the mine to conveniently and with comfort dry and change their dresses.

Sec. 19.—If more than twelve persons are ordinarily employed in the mine below ground sufficient accommodation shall be provided above ground near the principal entrance of the mine and not in the engine room or boiler room for enabling the persons employed in the mine to conveniently and with comfort dry and change their dresses.

Sec. 20.—No person shall wilfully damage or without proper authority remove or render useless any fence, fencing, casing, lining, guide, means of signalling, signal, cover, chain, flange, horn, brake, indicator, ladder, platform, steam gauge, water gauge, safety valve or other appliance or thing provided for any mine in compliance with this ordinance.

Sec. 21.—Every person shall observe such directions with respect to working as are given to him with a view to comply with this ordinance or any special rules in force under this ordinance in the mine.

Sec. 22.—A competent person or persons who shall be appointed for the purpose shall once at least in every twenty-four hours examine the state of the external parts of the machinery and the state of the headgear working places, levels, planes, ropes, chains and other works of the mine which are in actual use and once at least in every week shall examine the state of the shafts by which persons ascend or descend and the guides and conductors therein.

Sec. 23.—Persons employed in a mine may from time to time appoint two of their number to inspect the mine at their own cost, and the persons so appointed shall be allowed once at least in every month, accompanied if the owner, agent or manager sees fit, by himself or one or more of the officers of the mine to go to every part of the mine and to inspect the shafts, levels, planes, working places, return air-ways, ventilating apparatus, old workings and machinery, and shall be afforded by the owner, agent or manager, and all persons in the mine every facility for the purposes of such inspection, and shall make a true report of the result of such inspection and such report shall be recorded in the book to be kept at the mine for the purpose, and shall be signed by the person who makes the same.

Sec. 24.—The majority of the workmen at any mine may appoint a person to examine the seat of any accident resulting in the death or injury of any person.

Sec. 25.—Every person who does not comply with or contravenes any of the general rules of this section shall be guilty of an offense against this ordinance, and in the event of any non-compliance with or contravention of such general rules in the case of any mine by any person whomsoever being proved the owner, agent or manager, shall each be guilty of an offense against this ordinance unless he proves that he had taken all reasonable means to prevent such compliance or contravention by publishing and to the best of his power enforcing the said rules and regulations for the working of the mine.

Sec. 26.—The commissioner may from time to time make such additional rules as in his opinion may appear necessary to better secure the safety of persons engaged in or about any mine, and non-compliance with or contravention of any rule so made shall be deemed non-compliance with or contravention of a general rule under this section, provided that rules 6, 13, 15, 16, 18, 22, and 23 shall not apply to placer mines.

Sec. 27.—Every person other than an agent, owner or manager, who is guilty of an offense against this ordinance shall be liable to a penalty of $50.

Sec. 28.—No prosecution shall be instituted against any owner, agent or manager for an offense against this ordinance except: (a) By the inspector; or (b) With the consent in writing of the commissioner; or (c) By some person appointed by the commissioner; or (d) By some person employed in or about the mine in respect to which the offense was committed appointed in writing to institute such prosecution by not less than ten persons so employed.

Sec. 29.—If it appears that a boy was employed on the representation of his parent or guardian that he was of the age at which his employment would not be a contravention of this ordinance, and under the belief in good faith that he was of such age, the owner, agent or manager, of the mine shall, notwithstanding that the boy was not of such age, be exempt from any penalty in respect to such employment; and the parent or guardian shall for the misrepresentation be deemed guilty of an offense against this ordinance.

Sec. 30.—If any prosecution or other procedure against an owner, agent or manager for an offense against this ordinance such owner, agent or manager shall be discharged if he proved to the satisfaction of the tribunal before which the same is tried that he took all reasonable means to prevent the commission of such offense.

Sec. 31.—Any complaint or suit made or brought in pursuance of this ordinance or made or brought within six months from the time when the matter of such complaint or suit came to the knowledge of the prosecutor.

Sec. 32.—The procedure and other provisions of the criminal code of Canada, 1892, and amendments relating to summary conviction shall apply to every case in which any person commits or is suspected of having committed any offense for which a penalty is provided by this ordinance.

Sec. 33.—Where a penalty is imposed under this ordinance for neglecting to send a notice of any explosion or accident or for any offense against this ordinance which has occasioned loss of life or personal injury, the commissioner may, if he thinks fit, direct such penalty to be paid to or distributed among the persons injured and the relatives of any person whose death has been occasioned by such explosion, accident or offense, or among some of them.

Sec. 34.—Provided, that such person did not in his opinion occasion or contribute to occasion the explosion or accident, and did not commit and were not parties to the commission of the offense. Except as in this ordinance otherwise provided, all penalties imposed in pursuance of this ordinance shall be paid on receipt of the same into the territorial treasury.
