more in the year than our Lieutenant-Governor. He moved in amendment to the amendment that the following words be added to the amendment: That the change proposed is not intended to take effect for three years or more; that this being the last session of the present Legislature, there will be ample opportunity before the expiry of the term of his Honor the present Lieutenant-Governor for the new Legislature to deal with the question as it may consider advisable, and that under all the circumstances it is not necessary or desirable to make a definite declaration of policy or intention on the part of the House at present session.

Mr. Meredith followed and strongly supported the motion. He was thoroughly of opinion that the maintenance of Government House should be abolished.

After the recess for lunch the debate was continued. Messrs. Hardy, Gibson (Huron) and Balfour opposing the motion and Messrs. Whitney and White supporting it.

The Budget Debate.
Toronto, March 8.—Against the discussion of the budget came up in the House yesterday.

These new bills were introduced and read a first time.
Mr. Mackenzie—To amend the Municipal Act.

Mr. McColl—To amend the Consolidated Assessment Act of 1892.

Mr. Marter, upon whose motion the debate on the budget was adjourned, asked if he might be allowed to permit Mr. E. F. Clarke to take his place upon the question, stating that he might speak at a later date. His request was granted.

Mr. Clarke made an able speech from the point of view taken by the Opposition and attached the general fiscal policy of the Government.

Mr. Balfour followed Mr. Clarke and ably defended the policy of the Government on all questions at issue.

Messrs. White, Wood (Brant), Ryerson, Hardy and Waters also took part in the debate.

Mr. Whitney moved the adjournment of the debate.

Two Many County Councils.
Toronto, March 10.—There was a busy day in the House yesterday and some important business was transacted.

Mr. W. Houghly moved for an order of the House for a return giving an itemized statement of all expenditure and disbursements in connection with the East Northumberland Registry Office for the years 1891, 1892 and 1893, showing the number of employees, the name of each employee and the period in each year during which he or she was employed.

He said that he had good reason to think that the Registrar had stuffed his accounts, inflicting the expense in order to keep his name before the public. This would give him the right to engage in another business.

Mr. Balfour moved for an order of the House for a return giving an itemized statement of all expenditure and disbursements in connection with the Registrar's Office for the years 1891, 1892 and 1893, showing the number of employees, the name of each employee and the period in each year during which he or she was employed.
