No. 1

Thelma 45492

White and brown; calved March 10th, 1913.
Sire—Lampshade 30152.

Sire of Sire—Auchenbrain Lamplighted 25110.
Dam of Sire—Rideau Queen 27673.

Dam—Flora 30867.

Sire of Dam—Duke of Lyn 20424.

Dam of Dam—Lily of the Valley 20427.

This is a very big tippy young cow, is quiet and easy to milk. Although she has never been put in R.O.P. test, she is of good breeding, and her full sister, which is in test this year, is making good record.

Bred to Nancy's Master Peter 49631, and due to freshen May 2nd, 1920.

No. 2

Pleasant View Jock

Calved March 10th, 1919.

Sire—Nancy's Master Peter 49631.

Sire of Sire—Peter of Menie 35055.

Dam of Sire—Brookside Nancy 34929, with R.O.P. Record of 8,079 lbs. milk, 376 lbs. butter fat, as 2-year-old.

Dam—Autumn Maid 38259, with R. O. P. Record 8168 lbs of milk with 355 lbs. milk, test 4.09.

Dam of Dam—Lively Maggie 32131. R.O.P. Record 9,198 lbs. milk, 382 lbs. fat, in mature class.

Here is a fine, large, young bull from splendid cow with good teats, and this bull should be fit to head any herd.

No. 3

Lassie 49597

Calved March 16th, 1914.

Sire—Chief of Briar Hill 38632.

Sire of Sire—Auchenbrain's Big Ben 32079.

Dam of Sire—Jessie 32586.

Dam—Fairy Violet 38257. Record at 3-year-old in R.O.P. of 8,972 lbs. milk, 296 lbs. butter fat, in 40 weeks.

Sire of Dam—Rob Roy of Menie 27671. 4 qualified progeny.

Dam of Dam—Fairy Violet 27345.

This is a splendid young cow, large and tippy, with good teats, although we have not put her R.O.P. as yet. She is from R.O.P. stock and will no doubt make a good record. Had we had her another year, would certainly put her in.

Bred to Scottie of Hickory Hill 61579.

His dam's record in R.O.P. as 2-year-old, 11,843 lbs. milk, 457 lbs. butter fat.

No. 4

Guideboard Corner's

We are thinking much of Christmas which can really be one of "Peace and Good-will" now. How happy all can be with the children—for this is truly their season. Their loving trustful hearts, and happy eyes make gladness everywhere. How very worth while it is, to make those little hearts glad.

Mr. George P. Wight has not been very well the past few days, but is better now, and looking cheerfully forward to the Christmas family reunion.

Mr. Mott, of Frankville, spent Sunday with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. James Sheldon.

Miss Marie Wight visited Mrs. Herbert Steynson on Wednesday last.

Mrs. Bert Hayes called on friends and relatives here.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Darling on the arrival at their home of a tiny grandchild, son of their daughter, Hazel, now Mrs. Birch.

One and all of us, join in wishing our editor, the most enjoyable Christmas possible. We feel much indebted to him for "resurrecting" our weekly newspaper which had been silenced when the former young editor Mr. Austin Tribute had gallantly responded to the call of his country, at a time when the pen seemed less mighty than the sword.

Hard Island

Miss Anna Robinson spent the week-end under the parental roof.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Yates visited in Brockville two days this week.

We are sorry to know Mrs. James Foley is not enjoying the best of health.

A few from the island attended the Medal Contest Wednesday night.

School is closed and all looking forward to a Merry Christmas.

Matthew Dunham was successful in winning the prize for the most points on games at the Odd Fellows' Party last Friday evening.

Harlem

Mr. Harold Chant of the Merchants Bank, Almonte, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chant of this place. Mr. Harold has recently been promoted.

Miss Reuby Gorman has completed her course in the Ottawa Commercial College, and is home. She is being congratulated on all sides upon her success while studying at the capital.

Santa Claus was just a little early in bringing a Christmas present to Mr. Everett Chapman. It is a beautiful and bright baby girl.

J. C. Eyre and Mrs. Eyre motored to Almonte and back one day last week.

A Bee to replace the shed of the Methodist church back on its foundation from which it had moved by the late heavy gales was well attended on Saturday. Mr. Nelson Clemons, of Portland was on hand to direct the work.

Everyone is anxiously waiting for the new "Christmas Carol" by the Athenian post.
