"THE ARRIVAL OF KITTY."

The season's comedy success. "The Arrival of Kitty," is soon to be seen in the city. This comedy has a pro-nounced ht everywhere presented and local theatre goers who relish tuneful music, unique dancing, bright dialogue, charming songs, together with beautiful costumes and magnificent stage settings, may look forward to a most satisfying entertainment when this delightful comdaria companies.

what to a most satisfying chieratainment when this delightful comedy is presented here.

If novelty of plot, ingenuity of treatment and an acting, singing and dancing company of Broadway favorities count for anything in the makenp of a successful comedy production, it is no wonder that "The Arrival of Kitty" has been so successful. Norman Lee Swartout is responsible for the book, and Whitmark Jerome and Swartz, for the songs and music. Up-tr-the-minute comedy and real fun is promised, and judging from the list of principals, the laughing atmosphere looks exceedingly bright. The production is handsomely staged, gorgeously gowned and the scenic, electric and costume embelishment are fresh and new, and an excellent performance is assured.
