RETURNS FROM THE SOUTH

E. Fremlin Popular C. P. R. Agent Had A Very Enjoyable Trip

TALKS TO THE PLANET

Mr. E. Fremlin, the genial local city ticket agent for the C. P. R., has just returned from a two weeks' tour in the Sunny South, where he attended the annual convention of the Canadian Ticket Agents' Association, held at Mobile, Ala. This was a record year with the association. Two hundred delegates attended the convention, and 24 candidates were initiated.

"We had a very enjoyable time," said Mr. Fremlin in an interview with a Planet reporter. "During the convention at Mobile, were tendered a banquet by the Mobile and Ohio railway. At this banquet, Col. Russell, president of the M. & O., made an eloquent speech, making many complimentary references to the Canadian Ticket Agents' Association. At the conclusion of the banquet we were given a swell ball."

"Leaving Mobile, we next went on our way to New Orleans, passing through the district which was recently visited by the terrible storm, about which the papers have been telling us the past few days. It would be impossible to describe the immense havoc wrought by the floods. Railway tracks, telegraph poles and all were torn from their beds in places and carried miles away. Telegraph and telephone poles were flattened, and we saw huge steamers which were washed up, stranded high on dry land. Trees were lying flat as far as the eye could see, and buildings were down all over the country."

"We were next entertained by the Louisville and Nashville R. R., which system runs along close to the Gulf of Mexico. All along this route are beautiful winter resorts, where the wealthy from the large cities spend the cold months. People flock to this place from every state in the Union. The forests of pine and oak in this district are something immense, and the chief occupation of the inhabitants is tapping the pine trees for turpentine and resin. Alabama state to the traveller appears to be nothing but a wilderness of corn and corn, and outside of the towns and villages one never sees a dwelling house that is fit for human habitation. Illinois is much the same. Through the rural sections houses are scarce, and the conditions of the farms would shock the thrifty farmers of our country. There seems to be nothing but corn as far as the eye can see, and the country does not appear to be as well populated as one would expect it to be. In all this trip it was remarked that we saw nothing to compare with our own beautiful country, and when we reached Canada again it was good to look out once more on the nice, even fences and the well-tilled land."

"The L. & N. R. R. tendered us a banquet at the Mongolia hotel at Pas Christian. This is a beautiful winter resort situated close to the Gulf. Here I saw some of the most beautiful driveways I have ever looked upon. The road-bed is made of ground oyster shells, perfectly white in color, while to the sides, the closely mowed grass and the green pine tree hedges form a most eye-entrancing color scheme. It

A PRETTY WEDDING

Miss Lydia Br. adwent and Nelson Burk United in Marriage By Rev. T. Dobson Of Tilbury

From Our Own Correspondent.

Tilbury, Nov. 19.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Thursday last, 15th inst., when Miss Lydia Maude Broadbent, daughter of Andrew Broadbent, of South Buxton, became the bride of Nelson Howard Burk, of Blenheim. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Dobson, of Tilbury, in the presence of one hundred and twenty-five guests. The wedding march was played by Miss Grace Randall, of Chatham. The bride looked charming in a gown of white organdie trimmed with baby ribbon, and was attended by her sister, Miss Hattie Broadbent. The groom was attended by Simon Bart. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome fur-lined coat. Mr. and Mrs. Burk left in the afternoon on a wedding tour to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, and on their return will reside near Blenheim. Mr. Morris, of Merlin, conducted services in the English church here yesterday. Rev. Mr. Dobson administering the communion in the English church at Merlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wanda, of Chatham, are the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Henderson, Tilbury North.

Miss Ethel Godbolt and Mr. Lovell, of the Crown Bank, Comber, spent Sunday here, the guests of Miss Frankie Lee.

Alfred and Noble Prendergast, and Jcs. Reynolds, returned on Saturday from a hunting trip to Muskoka. Mrs. Sharp, who has been visiting her son, Dr. Sharp, has returned to her home in Delaware.

Mrs. C. Reaume, of Chatham, has been visiting friends here the past few days.

THE BENEFIT CONCERT

Chathamites are promised an artistic treat in the benefit concert which will be tendered to Mrs. John Cooper on the 20th of this month. Among those who will appear on the program is Mrs. McMullen, violinist, who made such a favorable impression in Chatham at a recent given in the Elks Auditorium by Mrs.

MRS. McMULLEN, VIOLINIST.

Cooper. Mrs. McMullen will appear several times on the program, and those who heard her before will be pleased that she is returning again. She is one of the most artistic violinists who has ever appeared in Chatham, and is particularly good in obligato work.

FINE HORSES

The sale of imported Clydesdale colts, held on the local market Saturday by Messrs. McCoig and Harrington, proved most successful. The thirty head which were sold realized nearly $9,000, and the sales were made to some of the most prominent and influential farmers in the county. The horses were imported by S. J. Prouse, of Ingersoll.

MR. BARNES HONORED

On Saturday afternoon the employees of the Defence Iron Works presented Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Barnes with two chairs on the occasion of their departure for Toronto. Mr. Barnes is leaving Chatham to take the position of mechanical superintendent for the Canadian Gas Power & Launches Co., Limited, the new company formed by the amalgamation of the Toronto Gas & Gasoline Engine Co., and the Defence Iron Works, with which Mr. Barnes has been connected since its formation.

THE REASON.

Why do you call your auto "she"? Because it is always breaking down at critical moments, raising the devil most of the time and keeps me "broke."

STRIKE GROWS DANGEROUS

Disorder Renewed on Hamilton Streets On Sunday

CHASE CARS INTO BARN

Hamilton, Nov. 19.—With the withdrawal of the Ontario railway and municipal board Saturday evening, all hope of settlement of the street car strike has been abandoned for the present.

The company yesterday notified Mayor Biggar that it would start its cars out at 8 o'clock Monday morning. The mayor told the company that it could do so at its own risk, as the police had to have a little rest and they could not be on duty again until 10 o'clock.

The company also made another demand for the calling out of the militia. The mayor again refused to do so. The company says that it will insist upon the soldiers being called out, and will probably apply to Judge Snider.

In spite of what the mayor told the company, the policemen said last night that they had been called out for 8 o'clock in the morning.

Disorders Renewed. Although the cars were not molested much since last Monday, the disorders were renewed yesterday, and the cars were chased into the barns. Near the corner of Locke and King streets a rail was placed across the tracks and spikes were thrown along the York street tracks.

The cars started out about 10 o'clock yesterday morning and ran until they were chased in at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rotten eggs and stones were thrown at a car near the corner of James and Main streets.

The strike-breakers and detectives, ten in number, armed with clubs, stopped the car, stepped off, and, with vile epithets, dared the crowd to come on. The detectives tried to catch those who had thrown the missiles, but the guilty ones were swallowed up in the crowd of about 2,000 that, quickly collected. The leader of the strike-breakers dashed up to the scene in a buggy and ordered his men to get back on the car and take it out of the crowd. The whole police reserve of forty men was called out to disperse the gathering.

A Boy Arrested.

Jack O'Connor, Harriet street, 19 years of age, was arrested on the charge of throwing a brick through a car window. The alleged offence was committed in front of the city hall, and the union handed out an official statement yesterday, expressing pleasure with what the Ontario railway and municipal board had done to settle the trouble. The statement expresses the opinion that if the company had wanted to act fairly and have the strike settled the board could have fixed matters up. The men, through the board, asked the company to submit a proposition, but it did not do so.

TORNADO IN SOUTH

Railways Damaged Through Washouts and Five Lives Lost.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 19.—Telegraphic and telephonic communication received yesterday from points in Mississippi, Arkansas and Tennessee for a distance of several hundred miles report that territory to have suffered Saturday night and early yesterday from a destructive rain and windstorm.

About five lives are known to have been lost, and great damage to property and crops. Railroad traffic from Memphis is demoralized by numerous washouts and many trains have been stranded.

The greatest damage occurred in the central and delta regions of Mississippi.

Churches Down At Winona. Chicago, Ill., Nov. 19.—At the office of President Harahan of the Illinois Cent. Railroad, the following despatch was received yesterday.

A severe storm passed over Winona, Miss., last night, about 8 o'clock, blew down Calvary Church and the Christian Church, took the roof off the cotton compress and blew in the front of the postoffice. The storm also damaged a number of residences. No lives were lost.

Worst Blizzard In 25 Years. Winnipeg, Nov. 19.—Winter has set in with a rush, and a snowstorm has raged over the west during the past few days, which was characterized by a prominent C.P.R. official last night as the worst in the history of twenty-five years' railroading. Traffic is almost completely tied up.

Success the fruit of labor.

BRIGHT SERVICES

Harvest Home Services in Christ Church Marked By Splendid Music

Rev. Dr. McCarroll, rector of Grace Church, Detroit, preached in Christ Church last evening on the occasion of the harvest home services. Rev. Rural Dean Robert McCosh conducted the morning services. Large congregations were present on both occasions, and the voluntary offerings contributed amounted to quite a satisfactory sum.

Rev. Dr. McCarroll preached a strong sermon at the evening service, taking for his text the words, "How much owest thou my Lord?" He spoke of the indebtedness of the nation and the church to the Almighty and His many mercies and favors, which had been bestowed so lavishly during the year just passed, for which all should be duly thankful.

The musical service was especially pleasing, and has since been very favorably commented upon by all who were present at the services yesterday. At the morning service Mr. Kovington sang a solo in very acceptable style, and the Te Deum was sung to an entirely new and thoroughly delightful setting. The music was composed by Mr. Kovington's father, of England, and Mr. Kovington supplied each member of the choir with a copy. During the offertory the "Holy City" was rendered by three members of Lorrman's orchestra under the direction of Choirmaster Philp.

At the evening service the solo "Come Unto Me Ye Weary" was very capably rendered by Miss Barassin.

ONE POINT OF VIEW.

A prominent local bank manager is responsible for the following story which a Planet reporter overheard him relating this morning.

The banker's little daughter attends the Convent school, and this is how the banker became acquainted with the details. The other day one of the Sisters had a class lined up and was putting questions to them.

"Now, children, can you tell me what is the highest form of an animal life?"

There was a pause. Evidently the question was a stunner.

Presently a little tot put up her hand.

"Well, what is it?" put the instructor.

"Please, Sister," replied the enthusiastic youngster, all a-queer with excitement, "please, Sister, it's a giraffe!"

WANTED IT LARGER.

The widower looked at it with the most tender interest.

It is her very self, he exclaimed; her large nose—the sign of goodness.

Then bursting into tears, he added: Oh! She was so good! Just make the nose a little larger!

MY SPECIALTY IS CHILDREN'S FEET

I have given the fitting of children's feet my personal attention ever since I have been in business. The result is I have got the children's trade in the city, and it is growing every day. There isn't a careful mother hereabout who does not come here as soon as she knows that I make a specialty of fitting children. It is true economy, too, for my shoes wear longer, keep their shape better and look nicer than cheap shoes carelessly fitted.
