A CHICAGO ALDERMAN OWES HIS ELECTION TO CHAMBER-LAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political cam-paign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to the first of the firs use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflam-mation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Silk Hat Hand Bag. A very useful hand bag may be made of an old, but not too old, silk hat, Carefully remove binding, band and soft lining and brush all the nap thoroughly. With a sharp penknife cut the brim from the crown, and the "beaver" will peel off easily. Rejoin the crown to the base and brim and fit the whole with a silk lining. The rings for the drawing strings should be fastened inside, and the appearance is much improved by a full silk frill behind the This bag will not roughen and look shabby in a very short time, as might be expected, and a particular convenience will be found in its flat which enables the contents to be seen at a glance.

The triumph of Ler career as a lawyer came in the supreme court of the United States in 1903 in a suit involving the rights in a packing for journals used in axle boxes on rallroad equipments. The inventor had spent three years, from 1887, the year the patent was issued, until 1900, trying to induce the railroads to use his packing. In 1900 he died and left his patent to his widow, who had no other means of support. She licensed the patent to a big supply company with a capital of the company agreeing to pay her a minimum royalty of $8,000 a year. The company fulfilled its con-tract for a time and then canceled the license and refused to pay the royalty.

Choosing Miss King as her attorney the widow brought suit against the company. Opposed to the Chicago woman as counsel were several of the most brilliant lawyers, aided by high priced experts. The case was carried through to the federal supreme court, and in 1903 Miss King won her case. The result was the annihilation of the big corporation, which went out of business entirely.

In this case were involved some very fine technical distinctions as well as legal principles. Miss King was master of them all, and her argument was one of the most lucid, forcible and com-

Crape Paper Veil Holders.

Beautiful veil holders may be fashioned out of crape paper, and if made at home are inexpensive. The only difficult thing is the hand painted decora tions, but if a woman has a little ex-perience this will be easy. One holder may be fashioned from two plain white the face, while for a drink for pitcs it is unequalled, causing no mfort after it is taken. Take a title with a closely fitting cover a gutta percha or lead pipe fastened a sheet or two of fine cotton batting delicately scented with rose or violet, and the edges are bound with ribbon to match the decorations to be painted or stamped on the paper. If red roses are painted in water color, then red satin ribbon is used, while if bunches of violets are put in the border blue rit bon is sewed to the edges, or, with chrysanthemums, a yellow ribbon. When both sides are decorated fold the napkins once, sew the corners of one end together and fasten with one or two dainty bows of baby ribbon of a shade to match that used on the edges. Then fold one corner of the other end, bring it down to the bottom and fasten in place. Put on one or two bows like those at the top and the holder is com-plete. Buying Remnants.

It is seldom the part of wisdom to buy remnants of anything unless they are of a length to make some complete garment. Odds and ends of silk, lace, insertion and passementerie may look irresistible on the counter in company with others of their kind, but what are good for when you get them Shirtwaists, fancy stocks, guimpes and so on may be concocted with success out of marked down bits and shreds, but to buy odd lengths of them on new gowns or wraps, is generally foolish. Unless one buys with an exact use in mind one is apt to find one's self burdened with a lot of impossible things, and there is certainly no economy in that.

Faith

You cannot be expected to have faith in Shiloh's Consumption Cure, the Lung Tonic, as a cure for Colds, Coughs and all Tonic, as a cure for Colds, Coughs and all diseases of the air passages, if you have not tried it. We have faith in it, and we guarantee it. If it doesn't cure you it costs you nothing. If it does it costs you 25c. That's fair. Try it to-day.

Shiloh has cured many thousands of the most obstinate cases, and we do not hesitate to say that it will cure any Cold, Cough, Throat or Lung trouble. If we did not believe this we would not guarantee it. Shiloh has had an unbroken record of success for thirty years. It has stood every possible test without failure. Further Proof is found in the many testimonials of those who have tried Shiloh and been cured. Mrs. Archie Taylor, Asaph, Pa., writes:—

"i lought a bottle of Shiloh's Consumption Cure and found it very beneficial. I havetwo children, and they had a terrible cough. I gave then everything I could think of, butthey not no better, until one evening my husband bought a bottle of Shiloh. We gave it to the children when they went to bed, and they elept all night. It cured them completely. I shall always keep it in the fig.

THE FRILLED LIZARD.

It Carries an Umbrella and Has a Fighting Tail. The frilled lizard is found in Australian woods, being tolerably abundant in north Queensland and the Kimberley district of western Australia. It lives on beetles such as are found on the tree barks. It is about three feet long, measured from head to tail point. What makes it remarkable consists of two things-its hurried walk and its fighting anger.

It carries a sort of natural umbrella top about its neck, which it elevates suddenly with an alarming effect even to ordinary lizard killing dogs, scaring them as an umbrella opened in the face of a charging bull; hence it is called the frilled lizard. Its teeth are not of much use as a defense against a vigorous animal, but when it fights it uses its long, lithe tail in a way to bring long bruises on one's hands—in fact, could it be properly trained, it might serve as an automatic switch, which like the magic rub-a-dub-dub stick, would at the word administer a thrash ing to the disobedient child.

From the scientific point of view the creature's peculiar method of ambulation is most interesting, because it presents an absurdly grotesque appearance at such times, more especially from the rear. It walks bipedally or or two feet, like a bird, and so much does it resemble a bird in its walk that it seems to be the connecting link between the ancestors of birds and the ned Man Sang "I Want to Be an Angel" With the Crowd.

"In the early days of Wyoming, when there were but a few churches and many infractions of law, a man of the name of Barstow, who never knew fear and was a devout Christian was elected to the office of sheriff," said a citizen of that state. "Soon after Barstow entered upon the duties of his office a man was convicted for a capital crime.

"The fact that there was no minister within reach preyed upon the mind of the sheriff, who undertook to supply the lack by holding an hour's Bibl reading in the condemned man's cell and praying with him. As the time for the hanging approached Barstow became possessed with the fear that he had not acquitted himself of the spiritual responsibility devolving upon him and devised a programme that was new and unique. After the victim of the law's mandate was placed upon the platform and everything was in readiness the sheriff prayed long and ervently. Then he called for some one to start a hymn, and a man near the platform began the only one he know, 'I Want to Be an Angel,' in which the prisoner joined.

"As the last verse was sung the sheriff busied himself adjusting the noose, and immediately upon its conclusion the trap was sprung."

Geography Set to Music.

"I don't know," said a Bangor man the other day, "what their methods of teaching are in the schools these days, but I was surprised not long ago when talking to a youngster to find that he couldn't tell how many counties there were in the state of Maine, nor could he name them all without looking up the information in his geography. He was a bright boy, too, and I wondered. When I went to school we learned the names of the sixteen counties to the tune of 'Yankee Doodle,' and to this day I have never forgotten how the class sounded singing the useful little jingle. It went this way:

"Sixteen counties in the state— Cumberland and Franklin, Piscataquis and Somerset, Aroostook, Androscoggin, Sagadahoc and Kennebec, oln, Knox and Hancock Waldo, Washington and York, Oxford and Penobscot."

Diminutive Aztecs. the famous Aztecs are tiny creatures, exquisitely formed and refined in feature. They carry the head with the upbearing grace of the full blooded In-dian; their skins are not red, but a clear, smooth copper color that shines like gold in the sun; their hair is coarse and black as ebony, and they are decorated with bright feathers and gay ornaments. These women make the most wonderful pottery that comes to us from Mexico, for they have kept the old Aztec forms and decorations in their art, and they also weave wonderful baskets and do exquisite embroidery.
