As slow our ship her foamy track
Against the wind was cleaving,
Her trembling pennant still look'd bac
To that dear isle 'twas leav.ing' So loth we part from all we love, From all the links that bind us; So turn our hearts, where'er we ro To those we've left behind us!

When, round the bowl, of vanished
We talk with joyous seeming—
With smiles, that might as well be
So faint, so sad their beaming;
While mem'ry brings us back again
Each early tie that twin'd us.
Oh, sweet's the cup that circles the
To those we'ge left behind us!

And when in other climes, we meet
Some isle or vale enchanting.
Where all flow'ry, wild and sweet,
And nalght but love is wanting;
We think how great had been out
If Heed en had but assigned us
To live and die in scenes like this,
With some we've left behind us! As trav'lers oft look back, at eve,
When eastward darkly going,
To gaze upon the light they leave
Still faint behind them glowing.
So, when'the close of pleasure' day
To gloom hath near consigned us,
We turn to catch one fading ray
Of joy that's left behind us.

The St. Mary's Argus gives the following account of the outrage on the person of Miss Christy of that Town by George Weir, the Contractor:

count of the outrage on the person of Miss Christy of that Town by George Weir, the Contractor:—

It this week becomes our painful duty to record one of the most heinous outrages which has ever disgraced this locality, viz, the dreadful commission of the fearful crime of rape by a man (if so he may be called) well known in this community, and, indued, in most parts of Canada, as a man well advanced in years, a widower, father of a large family, and of great wealth, upon a young woman belonging to a family of high character, and respectability, long desident in this village. The facts as near a we have been able to learn them, are as follows:—

It appears that George Weir, the individual referred to above, a large contractor on the Grand Trunk Railway, has for the past addresses to the young woman in question—whose name, for obvious reasons, we suppress—and it is said upon good autiferity that they were engaged to be married. On the evening of Wednesday, the 28h uits was upon and the found on Road, and when about six males from St. Mary's the cutter was upset and the sun promoted by Mr. Bell to have the word towards, their destination, Railway, has for the past the view or eighteen months been paying its addresses to the young woman in question—whose name, for obvious reasons, we suppress—and it is said upon good autiferity that they were engaged to be married. On the evening of Wednesday, the 28h uits was the promoted by Mr. Bell to have the word to the suit promoted by Mr. Bell to have the word to the suit promoted by Mr. Bell to have the marriage declared nill and void, and his judgment was affirmed by the Chancery creded towards, their destination, Railway the subject married to the suit promoted by Mr. Bell to have the marriage declared nill and void, and his judgment was affirmed by the Chancery to the constant of the suit promoted by Mr. Bell to have the marriage declared nill and void, and his judgment was affirmed by the Chancery to the constant of the promoted by Mr. Bell to have the marriage was adjou
