THE BEST RESULTS are pleasantly accom plished by that benign invigorant, antiperio die and promoter of digestion, appetite and aleep,—Northrop & Lyman's Quinine Wine. The laboratory of the chemist never yielded The laboratory of the chemist never yielded a more salutary preparation, or one in which the ingredients are more completely harmonized. The feeble and nervous darive from it new strength, sufferers from dyspepsia and loss of appetite find that it not only enables them to digest and assimilate properly, but imparts an unwonted relish for food. Invalids usually suffer from depression of mind. There is no better remedy for despondency, originated by ill health, than this genial tonic. Pure Sherry and aromatic constituents of a choice description, enhance its remedial value, and give it an agreeable flavor. It promotes convalescence following as a contract of the strength of the s flavor. It promotes convalescence following exhausting maladies, stimulates and fertilizes the circulation, and increases the muscular power. Sleeplessness, twitching of the muscles, trembling of the limbs, and other muscles, trembling of the limbs, and other manifestations of nervous weakness, are speedily remedied by it. When taken during the absence of the fever, it is a remedy of sterling merit for billious, remittent and intermittent fever. A wine-glassful three or four times a day, will usually be found an effectual preventive of the return of the paroxysms. Intelligent observation and long experience determine the efficacy of this medicine, which has met with wide recognition, and won an unrivalled reputation. No absurd pretensions are put forth in regard to it: the statements in its behalf are plain, straightforward facts, susceptible of constructions. straightforward facts, susceptible of con-vincing proof. Though an advertised remedy, it is in no respect akin to the many cheap nostrums with which the market is flooded. Ask for "Quinine Wine, prepared by North-rop & Lyman, Toronto."
