PURGATIVE PILLS have become a settled necessity with the American people. Indeed, eathartics always have been and always must be used, in some form, by all mankind. In this country, the plular form of administration has been growing in favor since pills were first made of Aloes and Rhubarb, rolled into a bull. Their high position in the public confidence has finally been secured and fastened into permanency, by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, the most skillful combination of medicine for the diseases they are intended to care.

THEO. DesBRISAY,
