Federal Parliament.

Ottawa, May 27—The Liberal majority in the Senate, doing the work of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the opposition in the House of Commons will kill the naval bill.

The expected action was taken by Sir George Ross, Liberal leader in the Senate, this afternoon, following a Liberal caucus held in the morning. Sir Cecil Spring Rice, the visiting British Ambassador to the United States, was there and saw it done.

If the Liberal majority sticks together, as it undoubtedly will, there is no hope for the bill and there is no immediate and effective aid to the naval forces of the Empire, so far as the liberal's in parliament are concerned.

Sir George Ross moved an amendment "That this house is not justified in giving its assent to this bill until it is submitted to the judgment of the country."

This is the substance of the amendment moved by Senator Longheed when the Lander Naval Service Bill was before the Senate in 1910. It was, of course, rejected at that time by the Liberal majority which now applies it to reject the Dreadnought bill.

Sir George Ross, moving the amendment, said that if such an amendment had been proposed in connection with a bill founded upon constitutional principles it would properly be moved to a measure "which has not got a constitutional principle in it."

The expectation that the former premier, and leader of the Liberal party in Ontario, would come forward as executor of the Naval Bill drew a great crowd to the Senate. The upper house has not known another such day, in many years. A large number of members from both sides of the House of Commons watched the proceedings and the galleries were full of people.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, to make sure that nothing went wrong with his plans, went personally to the Senate and was among the most interested listeners. Several of the Liberal ex-ministers who have been fighting the Naval Bill from the House were also there, including Hon. Mackenzie King, Hon. W. S. Fielding, and Sir Fredrick Borden.

Ottawa, Ont., May 28—The Naval Bill, according to the present outlook, will not come back to the House of Commons. The Ross amendment is not an amendment to the bill, but is an amendment to Senator Longheed's motion for the second reading of the bill. It strikes out from the Longheed motion all but the first word "that" and substitutes the words "This House is not justified in giving its assent to this bill until it is submitted to the judgment of the country."

The adoption of this amendment means that the bill does not get its second reading. It is killed. If it came back to the House with an amendment on the lines of the Ross motion, the ultimate result would be the same as no such amendment would be accepted by the government and the bill would be killed. The Ross amendment does the work more quickly. The vote may be taken by tomorrow night, although there are a number of speakers to be heard.

Ottawa, May 30—At one o'clock this morning the Senate voted on the amendment to the second reading of the Naval Bill offered by Senator Longheed. Sir George Ross, which would refer the proposal to the people. The vote stood for the amendment 51, against 27, opposition majority of 24.

Senator Mills, appointed by a Liberal Government, to represent the amendment, and Senator Macpherson, appointed by a Conservative Government, voted for the amendment. As Senator Longheed, the Government leader, will refuse to move further in the matter, the bill will then go back to the Commons.

Ottawa, May 30—Sir Robert Buchanan, the oldest member of the New Zealand parliament, and who is now in Ottawa, called on the Prime Minister this afternoon. He is deeply interested in agricultural matters and has visited the Central Farm at Ottawa. He will go to Guelph and Winnipeg. While not wanting to express an opinion on the naval matter lest it be interpreted as interference, he remarked that he was astonished at some of the statements he had heard by Liberal senators in the naval debate. He was particularly impressed with the utterances of Sir Mackenzie Bowell which he regarded as remarkable for a man of his age. He observed that when New Zealand had given its Dreadnought it was a free will offering and considered above party politics.

Ottawa, May 30—The claims of the Fenian Bank victims are again being pressed upon the government, and the general consensus of opinion among members of both sides of the house seems to be that some measure of relief ought to be forthcoming.

There is no official information available as to what will be done, or as to the extent of the aid which may be granted. The losses amount to approximately a million and a quarter, and it is expected that the double liability, of which not much more than forty per cent. is likely to be collected will take care of the preferred claims only. The building up of a huge corruption fund seems likely to result from the activities of the Liberal machine which has been at work here all season blocking legislation in the hope that the government would provide a general election to satisfy the ambitions of a few ex-ministers and ex-members. Rumor has it that a personal appeal has been made and is being made to the Liberals in Ontario and in some of the other provinces to send in contributions of one dollar and upwards towards a "legitimate expenses" fund to be spent if an election can be brought about immediately or related for use when the next general election comes on the due course. The money will be sent to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The appeal seems to be meeting with a ready response. Large numbers of letters are coming in at the parliamentary post-office addressed to Sir Wilfrid Laurier on a printed form and marked "free."

His Lordship, Bishop O'Leary, visited St. Joseph's Convent on Thursday and Notre Dame Convent on Friday. In both instances there was a cordial reception and was entertained with choicest music and song.

The commencement exercises of Prince of Wales College took place on Friday forenoon. His Worship, Mayor Lyons, presided. Addresses were delivered by the Lieut. Governor, Principal Robertson, Premier Mathieson, Hon. W. S. Stewart, Hon. M. McKinnon and others.

The funeral of Mrs. John Sinnott to St. Joseph's Church, Morell Rear, on Wednesday last, was very largely attended, over one hundred carriages being in line. A Solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated by her son, Very Rev. Mgr. Sinnott, with Rev. P. D. McGuigan, deacon; Rev. A. McAulay, sub-deacon, and Rev. T. Curran assistant priest. The ceremonies were directed by Rev. A. J. McIntyre, P. F., and Rev. Dr. McLaughan. Rev. N. J. Cole also occupied a seat in the Sanctuary—R.I.P.

His Majesty's ship Camber and, having among her cadets, Prince Albert, second son of His Majesty King George, came to Charlottetown Saturday afternoon. During the afternoon the usual exchange of courtesies took place between the Lieutenant Governor and the commander. In Company with the commander the Royal Prince visited Government House. Subsequently his worship Mayor Lyons and the city Recorder visited the ship and extended the welcome of the city. On Monday afternoon from 4 to 7 His Honor the Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Rogers entertained at a delightful "at home" when His Royal Highness, and some thirty other cadets met a large number of ladies and gentlemen belonging to the city and a most enjoyable time was spent. The Prince follows the same routine and is subjected to the very same discipline as his counterparts on board the ship.

Rev. Francois McQuade of this city recently ordained in the Grand Seminary, Quebec, Mass his first high Mass in the Cathedral here on Sunday last. It was a solemn high Mass in presence of the Bishop. The celebrant was assisted by Rev. Maurice McDonald, as deacon, Rev. S. J. McDonald, as sub-deacon and Rev. Dr. McMillan and Pius McDonald as Masters of ceremonies. His Lordship the Bishop presided in Cope and Mitre and was assisted by Rev. Father Galiani and Father of the College. The sermon of the occasion was preached by Rev. Dr. F. G. Kelly of Chicago. He expressed his pleasure at being present to welcome His Lordship Bishop O'Leary who sat for the first time on his Episcopal throne and also to preach on the occasion of the first Mass solemnized by a fellow Islander. He paid a fitting tribute to the predecessors of the present Bishop referring to their saintly lives and their missionary zeal. He then delivered an admirable sermon on the priesthood. He traced the history of the Christian priesthood, and described the nature and character of the different priest-hoods that had existed. In glowing language he described the power, prerogatives and responsibilities of the priesthood of the new law, pointing out its joys, as well as the sacrifices connected therewith.

The commencement exercises of St. Dunstan's College on Thursday afternoon were of a most interesting character and were very largely attended. His Lordship, the Bishop, his Honor the Lieut. Governor, Premier Mathieson, the American Consul, and many other distinguished clerical and laymen were present.

An address of welcome was presented to his Lordship the Bishop by the students. His Lordship responded in felicitous terms, and then the following programme was carried out: 1. Overture—"The Prince's Dream"—(Eras)—College Orchestra. 2. Chorus—"Dawn of Day"—(S. Reay)—College Glee Club. 3. Alumni Essay—Ray McCarville. 4. Song and Chorus—"Hurrah for the Red and White"—(Smith)—Alex. McDonald and boys. 5. Sextet—"What from Vengeance"—(Donisetti)—Messrs. John, Crepan Finol, Gilles, Foirier, Robillard. 6. Distribution of Premiums and Special Prizes: 7. Walk—"Spring Balls"—(Mackie-Beyer)—Orchestra. 8. Vocal Solo—Magnetic Walk Song—(Arditi)—Mr. Reuben Finol. 9. Valedictory—A. McAdam. 10. Male Quartet—"L'Orphéon en Voyage"—(de Rill)—Messrs. John, Crepan, Foirier and Robillard. 11. Vocal Solo—"Lullaby"—(Goddard)—Mr. Arthur John. 12. Address to Graduates—Rev. Dr. Kelly. 13. Chorus—"O Hush thee, my Babe"—(Sir A. Sullivan)—College Glee Club. "God Save the King."

The address to the graduates by Rev. Dr. Kelly, of Chicago, a former student of the College, was pregnant with sound advice words of wisdom for the young graduates. The Alumni prayer by Mr. Ray McCarville and the Valedictory by Mr. Adolphus McAdam, were excellent essays.

The Rev. Rector reviewed, at some length, the work of the year, expressing satisfaction with the conduct of the students, and emphasizing his great pleasure and that of the faculty in the honor conferred on them by the presence of his Lordship, the new Bishop.

His Lordship, the Bishop, thanked the Rev. Rector and students for their kind welcomes. He said he had not come expecting any official welcome, but to show that he was deeply interested in the work of the institution, and henceforth intended to take a special interest therein. He had considerable knowledge, he said, of the admirable work St. Dunstan's had done and was doing. He knew, also, of the sacrifices his predecessors had made to advance and support the institution, and in this great work he intended, he said, to follow their noble traditions.

His Honor the Lieut. Governor, Premier Mathieson, American Consul Frost, Judge Warburton and his Worship Mayor Lyons delivered brief appropriate addresses. The proceedings then closed with the national anthem. We regret that lack of space prevents us from giving a more extended report. Following are the names of the graduates:

A. Reid, J. E. Duggan, J. Dromin, A. MacAdam, W. V. McDonald, A. John, E. P. Curley, J. A. McDonald, L. Smith, H. Robillard, G. L. Smith, F. F. Walker.

Reasons Why The C. B. C. Is The Best

The Charlottetown Business College's claims of superiority are not based on hot air, bombast or broadside bragosity.

The equipment of this college is complete in every respect. There are enough typewriters, forms, etc., for every student, and therefore none are kept back and none especially favored. The teachers are the best that can be secured and the location ideal—right in the heart of the business district—the courses plain, practical and full of "usable" knowledge.

Students who graduate from this institution are QUALIFIED to cope with any problem that is placed before them in actual practice. This institution is the only one in the Province to turn out successful verbatim reporters.

The courses cover bookkeeping, auditing, type writing, shorthand, brokerage, banking, business correspondence, navigation, engineering and Civil Service preparatory exams.
