The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

Suppose a man had a beautiful garden on one side of his house, and on the other an unsightly dump, and suppose he always sat by a window where he could look out on the dump instead of the flower garden. What would you think of him?

And yet how many people look out from the windows of the House of Life in just that way!

A young girl in our neighbourhood lost her grandfather recently. She had been very fond of him and put on black at his death.

Whereupon the neighborhood glibly assured itself:

"H'm, it's easy enough to see why Elsie feels so terribly about her grandfather. She thinks black is becoming to her."

Now Elsie is a very pretty young girl, and she undoubtedly does look even prettier, in a quaint, pathetic way, in the somber gowns.

But she is also a very sensitive, affectionate young person, and was deeply touched by her grandfather's death.

Why isn't it just as easy to believe that sincere grief and not vanity is what actuates her?

* * * * *

The other day I forgot to take the change from a five dollar bill after making a small purchase. I did not find out my mistake for a day or two, but when I enquired for the money I found that the girl with whom I had traded had kept it intact for me.

I came home all enthusiastic over her honesty to be dampened by, "She probably was afraid she'd lose her job if she took it."

Perhaps.

And yet the honesty was an equally possible motive.

Why look beyond it for the less creditable one?

* * * * *

There is a woman in our neighborhood who does more for charitable affairs and entertainments than any other two women in the town.

We were speaking of her the other day and someone said, "I wonder if she really does it because she wants to help or because she likes to be in everything and likes to tell about it."

I suppose either motive is possible, but isn't it much pleasanter to believe that she was actuated by the former?

There is much bad in the world and there is much good.

If you want to be happy and sweet and lovable, train yourself to always see as much of the good and as little of the bad as possible.

If you want to be cynical and sour and disagreeable—well, be always looking out of the windows that overlook the dump.

Ruth Cameron

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

GIVEN AWAY.—Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, new revised Edition, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Household Notes.

Green soap is the best cleanser for pimples and blackheads, but should be used sparingly and diluted with water, or it may irritate the skin.

If an oil lamp that, in spite of being clean, will not burn brightly, it can be improved by putting a half of a teaspoonful of salt into the oil.

Preserves, jellies and canned fruit should be kept in a dark closet. If the closet has a glass door it should be covered with a dark green shade.

To freshen stale cake, dip it for a second in cold milk and then rebake it in a rather cool oven. Stale bread may be treated in the same way.

Keeping groceries in paper bags is the hallmark of a slovenly housekeeper. There should be a proper receptacle, tin box or glass jar, for everything.

To perfectly cleanse and sweeten the coffee pot, fill it nearly full of water and add a generous teaspoonful of borax. Let the water come to a boil.

If moths get into the carpets, boil a few camphor balls in water, dip a clean broom into the mixture and sweep the carpet with the dampened broom.

For polishing brass trimmings such as door knobs and hinges, mix equal parts of paraffin and naptha with enough rotten stone to make a stiff paste.

Plaster-of-Paris figures which have become dingy and brown may be brushed with a soft brush and then washed with with warm soapsuds without injuring them.

Burns should always be treated quickly to save pain and avoid scars. Baking soda, olive oil, scraped raw potato, molasses and even milk are efficacious.

When the silk dress is made quite long so that it rests on the ground it will hang better if a facing of canton flannel is used, extending above the hem a few inches.

To prevent olives from becoming tainted after the bottle has been opened, pour a little olive oil in on top of them. It will keep them in good condition indefinitely.

There is nothing better for nails that are inclined to break off or for cuticle which is difficult to manage than to rub on some olive oil or white vaseline several times daily.

If knives are spotted, rub them with a cut potato dipped in wood ashes.

Sandwiches made from rye bread are delicious if cut very thin and spread with a mixture of minced olives, Spanish peppers, cream cheese and a little bit of mayonnaise.

Small side dishes, once so numerous, are now used for nothing save perhaps a thin apple or rhubarb sauce. Rarely more than two vegetables are served with a meat course.

Court plaster should never be allowed to completely cover a deep cut. It should be cut into strips and fastened across the wound so that the secretions from it can freely escape.

Emery powder and oil made into a paste is an excellent mixture to clean steel. Rub on well and polish after which rub with an oiled rag and then polish up again with a clean duster.

When the saucepan in which oatmeal or any other cereal is cooked is emptied, fill immediately with cold water. By the time the pan is to be used again it will be easy to clean.

To prevent raisins or currants from dropping to the bottom of the pan, first put in a layer of dough without them, and then add the dough to which the raisins, well floured, have been mixed.

The bluish cast which comes on finely polished furniture in damp weather may be removed by wiping with lukewarm water in which there is a tablespoonful of ammonia to a gallon of water.

FOGOTA DUE.—The s.s. Fogota is due here from the north this evening.

BADLY NEEDED.—The rain storm of last night was welcomed by the farmers as the grass and plants were suffering for the want of moisture.

WITH THE ADVENTISTS. —Elder C. H. Keslake will preach to-morrow night at the Adventist Church, Cookstown Road. Subject: "And Satan came also—whence came He and whither bound?" Seats free. A welcome to all.

BEOTHIC SAILS.—The s.s. Beothic sailed at 7 p.m. yesterday for Hudson Bay, where she will be engaged all summer. Capt. Falke, formerly of the schr. Grand Falls, is in command and this is his first time taking charge of a steamer. When the ship was in the stream before she left, some of the men, who had been taking a drop too much, got into row, but the officers quelled it before the contestants received any injury.

CHURCH POINT, July 7th, '08.
Blacking & Mercantile Co.'y, Ltd., Amherst, N.S.
Dear Sirs,—Nearly one year ago I had my first order of "Mathieu's Syrup" from you. It was not known in this country, and I gave samples to several families whom I knew would use it. After a few weeks I began to have a call for it, and trade has increased wonderfully since. I have not the least doubt but that it will soon be the best selling remedy for coughs, colds, etc., on the market. In my store here sales are good and our people ask for it. Several stores in this county now keep it in stock and report sales increasing. I have bought from you since August 16th, 1907, 4 Gross and have only three dozen on hand at this date, and which I am holding for retail trade in my store. Yours truly,
LOUIS A. McLANSON.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, June 30.

The festivities in connection with the Coronation of King George, so far as the metropolis is concerned, ended to-day, with His Majesty's treat at the Crystal Palace to a hundred thousand of London's poorest children. The King and Queen personally attended the Festival. Their Majesties walked among their little guests, who, in batches of 25,000, were formed in the open spaces of the Crystal Palace grounds. The whole entertainment was well organized, and worked with Kitchener-like precision. The general public was excluded from the Palace. All the side shows were thrown wide open to the youngsters, who had the time of their lives on joy-wheels, switch backs, water-chutes, and with other excitements entirely novel to them.

LONDON, June 30.

The House of Lords by a vote of 192 to 48, has passed Lord Cromer's amendment to the Government's anti-Veto Bill. The amendment omits the clause empowering the Speaker of the Commons to decide what a money bill is, substituting a committee of seven members from each House, and permitting the Speaker and Chairman to cast votes. The amendment is designed to prevent the passing of general social Legislation, under the guise of financial measures.

PARIS, June 30.

An express from Havre for Paris has been derailed. All the cars turned over, but none were injured. Copies of the Guerre Social were found near the rails, and the press strikes a note of alarm, demanding that the ministry put an end to revolutionary activities and outrages.

MADRID, June 30.

A bomb was exploded during the procession closing the Eucharistic Congress. In the panic, sixty persons were injured.

SANDWICH, England, June 30.

In the play-off for the open Golf Championship, Vardon defeated Massey of France.

TORONTO, June 30.

The Most Rev. Denis O'Connor, D. D. Archbishop of Toronto, is dead. He was a native of Ontario.

LIVERPOOL, June 30.

The strike situation shows no improvement.

Will Make Hair Grow

Every up-to-date woman should have radiant hair.

There are thousands of women with harsh, faded, characterless hair, who do not try to improve it.

In England and Paris women take pride in having beautiful hair. Every Canadian woman can have lustrous and luxuriant hair by using SALVIA, the Great American Sage Hair Tonic. McMurdo & Co. sells a large bottle for 50 cents, and guarantees it to banish Dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in ten days, or money back.

Received a Purse.

James Bruin, stoker of the Florizel, to whose heroic action in saving from drowning firemen J. Miller on the night of Saturday, the 17th inst., the Telegram referred at length, was presented by the passengers of the ship with a well filled purse of gold in recognition of his bravery. Bruin rescued Miller in the midst of a heavy thunderstorm by jumping overboard after him, and had he not done so the other must have quickly drowned. As the Telegram observed at the time, Bruin is well deserving of the Humane Society's medal.

NEW HOTEL.—At Shoal Harbor a new hotel will shortly be erected for the benefit of the many people who come that way. It will be conducted by Mr. Falk and will be a modern hostelry.

Neuralgia and Sciatica

Caused great suffering for 25 years. Nothing effective until Dr. Chase's Medicines were Used.

"It affords me pleasure to speak favorably of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills," writes Mr. W. T. Collins, Morpeth, Ont. "I had been a sufferer for 25 years from sciatica, lumbago and neuralgia and tried nearly all the remedies advertised without one particle of benefit until I began the use of Dr. Chase's medicines. Before I had finished two boxes of the Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills I noticed considerable benefit in my condition. I have so much confidence in these medicines that I have recommended them to dozens of my friends."

In severe cases of this nature the combined use of these medicines brings results which are both surprising and satisfactory. The Kidney-Liver Pills regulate the action of kidneys, liver and bowels, while the Nerve Food enriches the blood and builds up the nervous system. Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
