His Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to direct that the following Proclamation of His Majesty the King, superseding Proclamations of August 5th and August 12th last, relating to Trading with the Enemy, shall come into effect on the date thereof.

JOHN R. BENNETT,
Colonial Secretary,
Department of the Colonial Secretary,
September 15th, 1914.

BY THE KING

A PROCLAMATION.

Relating to Trading with the Enemy.
GEORGE R. I.

Whereas a state of War has existed between Us and the German Empire as from eleven p.m. on August 4th, 1914, and a state of War has existed between Us and the dual monarchy of Austria-Hungary as from midnight on August 12th, 1914:

And whereas it is contrary to law for any person resident, carrying on business or being in our Dominions, to trade or have any commercial or financial transactions with any person resident or carrying on business in the German Empire or Austria-Hungary without our permission:

And whereas by our Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, relating to trading with the enemy, certain classes of transactions with the German Empire were prohibited:

And whereas by paragraph 2 of our Proclamation of the 12th August, 1914, the said Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, was declared to be applicable to Austria-Hungary:

And whereas it is desirable to restate and extend the prohibitions contained in the former Proclamations, and for that purpose to revoke the Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, and paragraph 2 of the Proclamation of the 12th August, 1914, and to substitute this Proclamation therefor:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary to warn all persons resident at carrying on business or being in our Dominions, of their duties and obligations towards Us, Our Crown, and Government:

Now, therefore, We have thought fit by and with the advice of our Privy Council, to issue Our Royal Proclamation declaring and it is hereby declared as follows:

1. The Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, relating to trading with the enemy, and paragraph 2 of the aforesaid Proclamation of the 12th August, 1914, together with any public announcement officially issued in explanation thereof, are hereby, as from the date hereof, revoked, and from and after the date hereof, this present Proclamation is substituted therefor.

2. The expression "enemy country" in this Proclamation means the territories of the German Empire and of the dual Monarchy of Austria-Hungary, together with all the Colonies and Dependencies thereof.

3. The expression "enemy" in this Proclamation means any person or body of persons whatever nationality resident or carrying on business in the enemy country, but does not include persons of enemy nationality who are neither resident nor carrying on business in the enemy country. In the case of incorporated bodies enemy character attaches only to those incorporated in an enemy country.

4. The expression "outbreak of war" in this Proclamation means eleven p.m. on the 4th August, 1914, in relation to the German Empire, its Colonies and Dependencies, and midnight on the 12th August, 1914, in relation to Austria-Hungary, its Colonies and Dependencies.

5. From and after the date of this Proclamation the following prohibitions shall have effect, (save so far as licenses may be issued as hereinafter provided), and We do hereby accordingly warn all persons resident, carrying on business or being in our Dominions—

- (1) Not to pay any sum of money to or for the benefit of an enemy.
- (2) Not to compromise or give security for the payment of any debt or other sum of money with or for the benefit of an enemy.
- (3) Not to act on behalf of any enemy in drawing, accepting, paying, presenting for acceptance or payment, negotiating or otherwise dealing with any negotiable instrument.
- (4) Not to accept, pay, or otherwise deal with any negotiable instrument which is held by or on behalf of an enemy, provided that this prohibition shall not be deemed to be infringed by any person who has no reasonable ground for believing that the instrument is held by or on behalf of an enemy.

(5) Not to enter into any new transaction, or complete any transaction already entered into with an enemy in any stocks, shares, or other securities.

(6) Not to make or enter into any new marine, life, fire or other policy or contract of insurance with or for the benefit of an enemy, nor to accept, or give effect to any insurance of any risk arising under any policy or contract of insurance (including re-insurance) made or entered into with or for the benefit of any enemy before the outbreak of War.

(7) Not directly or indirectly to supply to or for the use or benefit of, or obtain from, an enemy country or an enemy, any goods, wares or merchandise, nor directly or indirectly to supply to or for the use or benefit of, or obtain from any person any goods, wares or merchandise, for or by way of transmission to or from an enemy country or an enemy, nor directly or indirectly to trade in or carry any goods, wares or merchandise destined for or coming from an enemy country or an enemy.

(8) Not to permit any British ship to leave for, enter, or communicate with any port or place in an enemy country.

(9) Not to enter into any commercial, financial or other contract or obligation with or for the benefit of an enemy.

(10) Not to enter into any transactions with an enemy if and when they are prohibited by an Order in Council made and published on the recommendations of a Secretary of State, even though they would otherwise be permitted by law or by this or any other Proclamation.

And we do hereby further warn all persons that whoever in contravention of the law shall commit, aid or abet any of the aforesaid acts, is guilty of a crime and will be liable to punishment and penalties accordingly.

6. Provided always that where an enemy has a branch locally situated in British, allied, or neutral territory, not being neutral territory in Europe, transactions by or with such branch shall not be treated as transaction by or with an enemy.

7. Nothing in this Proclamation shall be deemed to prohibit payments by or on account of enemies to persons resident, carrying on business or being in our Dominions, if such payments arise out of transactions entered into before the outbreak of War or otherwise permitted.

8. Nothing in this Proclamation shall be taken to prohibit anything which shall be expressly permitted by our license, or by the license given on our behalf by a Secretary of State, or the Board of Trade, whether such license be specially granted to individuals or be announced as applying to classes of persons.

9. This Proclamation shall be called The Trading with the Enemy Proclamation, Number 2.

GIVEN at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this 10th day of September, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fourteen, and in the Fifth year of Our Reign.

The Portuguese Market for Codfish.

The Board of Trade are just in receipt of the following communication from Lmd and Conto Oporto:

"The first effects of the news of War was a general rush for supplies whereby stocks of fish in first hands were rapidly depleted. As a natural sequence, the public demand being satisfied, there followed a period of hardly any demand whatever. Holders of food stuffs have been warned by the authorities that any unnecessary rise in prices will be subject to strict official enquiry and we have been obliged to inform them of the prices at which we are selling."

"We are doing the best we can to obtain the highest prices in the circumstances but in the absence of any basis of exchange to work on it is impossible to say what such prices will realize in sterling. The exchange in London has fallen to a nominal quotation of from 38s. to 39s. at which only small transactions can be effected. Apart from the difficulty of obtaining drafts we think that shippers have no fear of any serious alteration in the conditions here so long as this country remains outside the range of hostilities. In the meantime it is not possible to obtain drafts at sight and ninety days' bills can only be bought in small amounts. The Banks are also refusing to issue letters of credit except for small amounts."

"Owing to the high selling prices necessitated by the fall in the exchange, sales of codfish are very difficult and slow. At this time of the year, however, demand is always very slack and there may be some improvement this month. One of the effects of the war is the stoppage of the supply of codfish from Germany and this competition is therefore eliminated."

"A moratorium was declared on the 10th August for sixty days but we understand that only those who have money held up are taking advantage of it. The position here seems to be about normal."

"The Treaty of Commerce between England and Portugal having been signed, it now only awaits ratification for British codfish to enter Portugal at the reduced rate of 34 reis per kilo."

"We have worked hard for many years to get this matter arranged and hope that it will be the means of increasing the import of British fish."

"Our present stock is very limited and we shall be glad to receive a further supply."

"We cannot understand why shippers should quote prices such as 45s. to 46s. for Large and Medium and 45s. to 45s. for Small when a cargo has been offered direct to our dealers at 35s. 6d. consisting of 1650 cwt. Large and Medium.

1200 cwt. Small
150 cwt. Haddock.
3000 cwt.

"A cargo from Newfoundland was recently sold here for 39s. 6d. for Large and Medium, and 35s. Small."

America's Answer to Germany.

(From the New York Times.)

Germany through her men of "light and leading" has appealed for the sympathy of the people of the United States. The answer has been given through the innumerable voices of public opinion. We have told the Germans that in our judgment Austria was unreasonably harsh and provocative in her demands upon Serbia; that we have a profound conviction that their great Emperor was guilty of a wrong against civilization in supporting the Austrian demands and the Austrian course of action; that he was wrong again in withdrawing assent from peaceful proposals of Sir Edward Grey, in which France, Italy and Russia joined; that it was a monstrous wrong to send the German troops across the Belgian frontier; and that inasmuch as Great Britain, France and Russia have taken up arms in defence of political ideals which have our approval against autocratic and militarist theories and designs which we hold in abhorrence the sympathy and moral support we deny to Germany and to Austria are freely given to the allies. This is the answer we make to Germany. It expresses the belief and the feelings of the whole American people, save only some of those whose judgment is subject to the natural influence of the lies of kindred.
