

THE INVICTUS

A shoe for well-dressed men. Costs enough to insure a perfect shoe, but is as low as a shoe of this character can be sold. Seen beside a cheaper shoe, the difference is unmistakable. Men who want appearance, satisfying wear, and solid comfort, should wear the "Invictus Shoe."

Two Leading LEATHERWARE Lines

In Shoes; Low Prices and Cheapness

Are as far apart as the Poles. Cheapness in Shoes does not depend upon their price, but upon the service they give. To maintain the Low Price of cheap shoes it is necessary to use even more inferior leather than usual. That can only result in one thing—less service—less wear—therefore less economy. No substitution of inferior stock has been made in either of our two Leading Lines for Men and Women.

By RUTH CAMERON.

RUTH CAMERON

"The Lord loveth a cheerful giver." One could well understand that He would. Emerson says, "I would rather rise from my chair than be served by one who does it not for love."

For myself, I would rather be refused any favor or service point-blank than be granted it grudgingly.

In the one case, one knows just where one stands. One is under no obligation. In the other, one is laid under an obligation and yet one can feel no gratitude for grudging service. On the contrary, it leaves one with an unsatisfied, resentful feeling. She Thought Her Friend Would Do The Same.

Once upon a time, my mother sent me to borrow a scarf from a neighbor of ours. I was going to my first party. Mother thought I needed a scarf and, as I had none, she sent me to borrow it of one of her friends. My mother would have gladly loaned that friend the dress off her back and it never occurred to her that she would do less.

The friend had plenty of scarves—three, in fact. She brought them out and showed them to me and then told me the reasons why she wasn't anxious to loan them to me. After doing that, however, she picked out the least attractive of the three and told me to take it. I tried to refuse it, but she forced it upon me. I took it because I was young and awkward and didn't know how to do otherwise, but I didn't take it to the party. To-day, I have an ungovernable dislike for that woman.

And Now I Can't Like Her. She is a very estimable person. I know I ought to like her, but I simply can't. I am displeased with myself and I often scold myself about the matter, but still the unreasoning dislike remains, and I attribute it at least partially to the time when she rendered me a service so ungraciously that it was really a dis-service.

I write this, not to justify my dislike, for I think it is unjustifiable, but to show how deep an impression such an experience can make.

I met a friend of mine going to town late in the afternoon the other day. "I'm terribly tired," she said; "but I simply must match the silk to-day, or I can't get Rose's dress done for the party and she has set her heart upon it."

She Always Answers Hesitatingly. This woman has a friend who lives with her, and for whom she does a good deal. The friend goes to town every day. "Why didn't you let Mabel match it?" I asked. I said "let," because I thought it a privilege.

She hesitated. "I don't like to ask her to do things like that."

"Why not? Isn't she willing to?" "Yes; that is—I suppose so; she always does them; but when I ask her she never says cordially that she would be glad to. She always answers in a hesitating way. I suppose it's foolish, but I've got so that I can't bear to ask her."

Perhaps it is foolish, but I know how she feels.

"The Lord loveth a cheerful giver," and so do the rest of us.

"It's a better car sold at a lower price." That's why there are so many "FORDS" on the road to-day.—jun22,tf

Florida.

By GEORGE FITCH.

Author of "At Good Old Slawsh." Florida is a vast expanse of water, sand and climate, which sticks out about 400 miles into the ocean at the southeast corner of the nation, and is as hard to dodge as a sore thumb. For many years it was the vermillion appendix of the United States. No particular use for it was known, and the Seminole Indians kept it in a constant state of inflammation. It is now being extensively cultivated, however, and is growing faster than any other Southern state, though goodness knows it needs to.

Florida was discovered by Ponce de Leon almost 400 years ago and immediately became famous for its wonderful climate. Ever since then people have been going to Florida to enjoy the climate and coming back to enjoy society. This shows Florida's simplicity. In California the man who arrives to enjoy the climate is treated so hospitably that he never saves money enough to come back. However, in the past few years a few great hotels have been built in Florida, and it is now possible to go down there swelled all out of shape with money and be successfully treated for the affliction in a very few weeks.

Florida is divided equally into timber, swamps and orange groves. It contains the Everglades, the greatest swamp in America. It is so large that the Agricultural Department almost got mixed in it. It also contains the only sea railroad in the world, running to Key West over 100 miles of water and keys. The Florida key is a peculiar one, made out of coral, and is almost as big as an old-fashioned New England house key.

Florida ships oranges, grapefruit, alligators and cigars to the world. If it were not for Florida, mankind would be able to swear off smoking. In fact, this would be almost necessary. Florida also contains the oldest city in the United States—St. Augustine—which is one of the celebrated sleeping beauties. The metropolis of the state is Jacksonville, which has grown out of general stores into skyscrapers in the last ten years. The capital is Tallahassee, of which no more is known.

Florida is now very prosperous. Buying Florida land is a national diversion and selling Florida land is one of the surest roads to wealth.

What Are You Doing for that Eczema?

"Nothing; I've about given up trying to cure it." "That is not wise. Do as I did and you will probably be cured in a short time. I used Zylex and Zylex Soap with it and my Eczema began to improve at once. A couple of boxes cured. You can get Zylex at your druggists."

Household Notes.

Darken the rooms and the flies will find places to creep out. Spinach should not be covered while boiling.

Bend new kinks in the old hat. It will look like a new shape. Currants for jam or jelly should be picked dry.

Wipe the furniture off occasionally with a cloth dipped in linseed oil. In making salad dressing, cream and melted butter can be used in place of oil.

Paper plates make the picnic preparations and clearing up more simple.

Turpentine is said to restore the lost whiteness of the ivory handles of cutlery.

When the feet feel tired and hot, it is a great relief to bathe them in cold water.

The water rice has been cooked in is a well-proved remedy for bowel troubles.

A pound of dried corn goes further than a can of corn, and it is much cheaper.

If peas are a trifle old, try boiling them with lettuce leaf and a pinch of sugar.

A very good glue can be made of tapioca, soaked until it is the proper consistency.

Buttered popcorn with cheese makes a good dish to accompany the after-dinner coffee.

When a finger becomes swollen so that a ring cannot be removed, dip it in ice-cold soap-suds.

When a box of sardines is opened, it should be drained of its oil at once and the fish turned out.

The Volunteer School.

The Superintendents of Education desire to thank most sincerely the ladies who have assisted in the Volunteers' School. At the close of April when the call was made for lady-helpers, a most hearty response was made and sixty-two ladies came forward and offered their services. This was a larger number than was wanted and subsequently by arrangement the following twenty-two ladies were selected for the work: Miss Ellen Anderson, Miss Jean Angel, Mrs. Angel, Mrs. James Atkinson, Miss Jean Churchill, Miss Viola M. Conker, Miss Elsie Crowley, Miss M. Clouston, Miss Mary Doyle, Miss Mary Emerson, Miss Gwendoline Edwards, Miss Olive Hayward, Miss Elsie Herder, Miss M. Mitchell, Miss Catherine McGrath, Miss Nora Rendell, Miss Anita Russell, Miss Rogers, Miss Agnes Soper, Miss Mollie Shea, Miss Kate Stott, Mrs. Withers.

For nearly two months the majority of these ladies devoted some three hours daily to the work of the Volunteers' School. The regularity and punctuality of attendance, the excellence of the work done, and the glad heart with which it was done are beyond praise.

The idea of projecting this school came in the first instance from His Excellency the Governor who requested the Superintendents of Education to endeavor to organize it. This they were glad to do. Mr. Barnes was appointed director and is to be congratulated upon the work that has been accomplished. Temporarily the school has had to be closed owing to the difficulty of arranging suitable hours for the soldiers, but it is hoped to resume the work after the summer vacation.

A Word about Carpet Squares!

We have just opened the finest display of Wilton, Axminster and Tapestry Carpet Squares that have ever been seen in the Island.

These Carpet Squares are remarkable for their exquisite colors and perfect design. Beautiful old Blues and deep Brown tones are blended in a fine Wilton that is very pleasing and restful to the eye. Another—A Tapestry in quaint Grey Tints has a lovely Pompadour border of roses in subdued colors. Yet another in lovely Old Rose and Reseda.

There is also a quantity of handsome Axminster Art Squares suitable for Den, Dining-room and Library.

ROYAL VISIT TO CANADA.

The appointment of the Duke of Devonshire to be Governor General of Canada is, I read, the preliminary to His Majesty's resolution to make a tour of the Dominions as soon after the war as may be feasible. He had intended visiting Canada during the Duke of Connaught's tenure of office, but the hostilities of course put this out of the question. The Duchess of Devonshire is not only mistress of the Robes to the Queen, but is perhaps more intimately her friend than even Lady Lamington. The Queen will certainly accompany the King, who will probably take the opportunity of getting some big game shooting. Both the Duke and the Duchess of Devonshire (who already knows Canada) are anticipating their sojourn there with enthusiasm. The Canadians is an admirable hostess. The Canadians will doubtless see in the Duke Stephen Laycock's incredible ideal of an English lord come true.

GRANVILLE BARKER AS SOLDIER AND POLITICIAN.

Granville Barker is sailing from New York to enlist in the army. The famous actor-manager has always been full of patriotism in its military form. He is also a Socialist. His intention, I believe, after the war is to quit the theatrical profession for politics. He wants to stand for Parliament as an advanced Radical if he finds it impossible at first to be returned as a Socialist. He would like, best, probably, to be adopted as a Labor candidate, but that might not prove practicable. He is still under 40, so he has plenty of time for a political career. Of course it is more
